JOHN T. MELLISH, Esq., A.M., who for many years has been so favorably known in these Lower Provinces as a practical educationist, as well as a writer and public speaker, has lately returned from a professional tour in the old country. We understand that he was especially pleased with the Scottish educational system, and with his visit to Scotland in general.—Patriot.

JOURNALISTIC.—At the meeting of the Methodist Conference in Toronto last week, it was decided to continue the publication of the "Christian Guardian" in Toronto, and to amalgamate with it the "Evangelic Witness," published in London by the late New Connection Conference. The "Provincial Wesleyan" is to be continued in Halifax, and the Rev. Mr. Nicholson has been elected editor, with the Rev. W. H. Withrow for assistant. The Rev. E. H. Dewart is to edit the "Christian Guardian."

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL ELECTION.—At a meeting held in Clifton, New London, on Monday, the 5th inst., Mr. McEwen was nominated a candidate to represent the First District of Queen's County in the Legislative Council. At the same meeting the following resolution was adopted:—"That this meeting gratefully remembers the past conduct and services of Hon. D. Montgomery in the Legislative Council, and highly approves of the action of the Dominion Government in placing him in the Senate of the Dominion of Canada."

THE CITY TANNERY—A NUISANCE.—Nearly a year ago the City Tannery was destroyed by fire. There is yet no fence around the site of it, and the pits are full of putrid water. It would be dangerous to walk carelessly in the vicinity after nightfall if the abominable smell were not a warning to all who go near it. It is not at all unlikely, however, that an intoxicated man or woman may fall into it some dark night, and that a pestilence may break out in the neighborhood. The place is a dangerous nuisance. Cannot our City Fathers see to it that the owner does his duty?

WHAT DOES HE MEAN.—A Toronto despatch to the Montreal Gazette reports—"Mr. Swinyard, who has just returned from Prince Edward Island, having been sent there by Government to report upon railway matters, went up the Toronto, Grey and Bruce Railway this morning in company with several of the leading officials of the Company for the purpose of inspecting the line. It is proposed to run a narrow gauge railway through Prince Edward Island and Mr. Swinyard wishes to enquire fully into the working of our narrow gauge before reporting to Government."

MR. POPE TO RE-ENTER POLITICAL LIFE.—The Legislative Council of Prince Edward Island is elective. Several vacancies in it are to be filled during the present month. One of these, it is thought, will be supplied by the Hon. J. C. Pope, so well known as the ablest of the Island politicians. Mr. Pope is decidedly a clever man. It it to be regretted that he does not represent an Island Constituency in the Canadian Parliament. Still he may render good service to his Province in its Legislative Council while waiting for a chance to re-enter the House of Commons.—St. John News.

BIGAMY.—A man named Agnew is under arrest in St. John, N. B., charged with bigamy. It appears that the second wife—with whom he lived a considerable time—has been driven out of the country, and the first now wishes to quash proceedings and secure the release of her husband. The Police Magistrate will not, however, agree. He says the case must go on in public, not in private, interests and the end must be reached by the aid of the formalities and proceeding which wise legislation has provided for such emergencies, it being desirable above all things, that innocence should be established and guilt punished in due form of law and to the public satisfaction.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Howatt, George Crosby, Lorenzo Wright, Archibald Ramsay, J. Green, jr., Jabez Burrows, John McKeirnan, Thomas Ives, Arthur Ramsay.

The Grand Jury presented a congratulatory address to Chief Justice Palmer. The docket was short and unimportant. On motion of Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Neil McLeod was admitted a barrister of the Court. Mr. J. T. Mellish was admitted a student in the office of Robert Shaw Esq.

It is probable the Brazilian Emperor will visit the United States next year.

Bryan Waller Proctor, better known as "Barry Cornwall," the English author, is dead aged 84.

Thirty-two lives were lost by an earthquake Sept 30th at Guatemala, and many buildings destroyed.

The situation at Buenos Ayres is desperate. Rigorous measures will be adopted by the Government to quell the insurrection.

The direct Cable, being laid by the Faraday, parted and was lost in a severe gale, and the steamer has returned to Queenstown.

Mr. Beecher got $250 for his address to the agricultural fair at Caledonia County, Vermont, and $250 for another address delivered on the following day to the fair of Grafton County.

The public accession of Lord Ripon to the Communion of the Church of Rome has been signalized by a number of newspaper attacks, and bids fair to cast into the shade the somewhat similar case of 'Lothair.'

Layard, British Minister, and M. DeChauxdardy, French Minister, presented their credentials to President Serrano, Madrid, Saturday. Both Ministers addressed him as "President of the Executive Power," and neither alluded to the Republic.

The application of gas for lighting street cars has been successfully inaugurated in London. The gas is supplied under pressure to a reservoir carried beneath the car, whence it is led by suitable regulators and pipes to the burners. A car is now running from the Euston Road to Hollaway, in which the gas is stored in a copper cylinder at a pressure of 40 lb per square inch.

In the Pope's letter to President MacMahon, written in reply to the announcement of the withdrawal of the man-of-war Orinoque from Cevita Vecchia, he recognized the reasons for this measure, but declares he would not have used the vessel to quit Rome under any circumstances. The Ultramontane journals represent that the Pope desired the recall of the Orinoque in order that France might be no longer exposed to complaints and menaces on this account.

DROWNING OF A NAVAL OFFICER AND SIX SAILORS.—Advices from China received at Portsmouth announce that Lieut. Charles Gardner and six sailors of her Majesty's gunboat Kestrel, while engaged at the wreck of the Laptek, have been drowned. Mr. Greig, of the firm of Dodd & Co., shared their fate. The Laptek had entirely disappeared. Lieut. Gardner has been serving in the Kestrel since the 9th of January, 1873.

A FOX HUNTING EMPRESS.—The Empress of Austria is enjoying herself in the Isle of Wight Hunt, when the field numbered about thirty. Two foxes were started, and there was some good sport. The Empress was generally well to the front, riding in bold and dashing style, and clearing the fences admirably. It is intended to get up a steeple-chase meeting before the departure of the Empress, who has consented to give one or two cups for competition.

The statement put forward by the Pall Mall Gazette that Bishop Medley, "who was consecrated in 1845 to the Bishopric of Fredericton, has announced his intention of resigning his See," is founded on a misconception of words which, knowing the affection with which the members of the English Church within and outside of his own diocese regard the Bishop of Fredericton, we correct by a reference to his own Charges. Resignation of Colonial Sees are so rife, and the lawn sleeves that were for a few years seen in partibus infidelium are now conspicuous in so many rectories, canoneries and deaneries in England, that it was noticed as an exceptional thing three years ago, that the Bishop of Fredericton spoke of the See becoming vacant by his death not by his resignation; and in the charge delivered this year at St. John he suggested to the Synod the desirability of providing a Coadjutor, 'such assistant to have the right of succession after my death. By this means, if it be approved of by the Synod, the Diocese will not only be assisted during my life if it should be prolonged, but no confusion will arise after my decease. This does not look as if the Bishop had any 'intention of resigning his See.'—Toronto Nation.

Dr. Charles Mackay is preparing a work, which should prove interesting to the Gaelic population of Canada, entitled, 'The Gaelic Etymology of the Languages of Western Europe, and more especially of the English and Lowland Scotch, and their Cant, Slang and Colloquial Dialects.' In the prospectus of the work Dr. Mackay demands due recognition of the maternal character of the Gaelic, as, to a large extent, the source of Greek, Latin, Italian, French, Spanish, and especially of the English. He traces its rise from the far east, and claims for it a greater antiquity than any language now spoken in Europe. In this Dr. Mackay is merely reaffirming the general belief of philologists that the Celts were the first tribe, at least among Europeans, who left the original home of the Aryan race in Central Asia; and that consequently the original Celtic language is the oldest Aryan tongue in Europe. But it can scarcely be doubted that remnants of still older languages, spoken by non-Aryan races who occupied Europe previous to the Celtic invasion, still exist, such as the Basque and Finnish dialects; the latter spoken by the Laplanders and Finns, and the former by the inhabitants of the mountainous district of Biscay, in north-eastern Spain. The fact that this portion of the Iberian peninsula is also the main stronghold of Carlism, might be adduced as a striking proof of the wonderful persistency of the influence of race.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

When people see a man advertise they know he is a business man, and his advertizing proclaims that he is not above business, but anxious to do it. Customers, like sheep, are gregarious, and flock where they see others go. If nobody else were engaged in the same business, it would be important to tradesmen and dealers to advertize in the paper, because they are tempted to buy what they read of. But others are engaged in the same business, and even if they do advertize, it becomes the more important for you to do so; if they do not advertize it becomes doubly important.—Anon.
