ESSAY CONTEST AWARD WINNER

Alliston Girl Is Winner Of Red Cross Contest

MONTAGUE — Miss Jeannie Campbell of Alliston, last Thursday was presented with a book on behalf of the Canadian Red Cross by Judge J.S. DesRoches, president of the provincial society.

The presentation was made in Alliston School in the presence of the pupils, teacher, and many interested parents. The award was won by 10-year-old Jeannie for receiving honorable mention in a Cross-Canada Tell-It-Yourself essay sponsored by the Canadian Red Cross Magazine, and in which there were thousands of entries. In congratulating the award winner, Judge DesRoches said it took the keen interest and support of both teachers and parents to create the conditions to make such an award possible. He congratulated Jeannie, and wished her every success in the future. She was also congratulated by her teacher, Mrs. Robert Munn; Sandra MacPherson on behalf of her schoolmates, and speaking for the parents, Mrs. Bert Hickman and Mrs. Ellis MacPherson. Jeannie is the daughter of Mr and Mrs. John Campbell of Alliston.
