The Teacher

Who advised her pupils to strengthen their minds by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, appreciated the truth that bodily health is essential to mental vigor. For persons of delicate and feeble constitution, whether young or old, this medicine is remarkably beneficial. Be sure you get Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"Every spring and fall I take a number of bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and my health is greatly improved."—Mrs. James H. Eastman, Stoneham, Mass.

"I have taken Ayer's Sarsaparilla with great benefit to my general health."—Miss Thirza L. Crerar, Palmyra, Md.

"My daughter, twelve years of age, has suffered for the past year from

General Debility.

A few weeks since, we began to give her Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Her health has greatly improved."—Mrs. Harriet H. Battles, South Chelmsford, Mass.

"About a year ago I began using Ayer's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for debility and neuralgia resulting from malarial exposure in the army. I was in a very bad condition, but six bottles of the Sarsaparilla, with occasional doses of Ayer's Pills, have greatly improved my health. I am now able to work, and feel that I cannot say too much for your excellent remedies."—F. A. Pinkham, South Moluncus, Me.

"My daughter, sixteen years old, is using Ayer's Sarsaparilla with good effect."—Rev. S. J. Graham, United Brethren Church, Buckhannon, W. Va.

"I suffered from

with lame back and headache, and have been much benefited by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I am now 80 years of age, and am satisfied that my present health and prolonged life are due to the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—Lucy Moffitt, Killingly, Conn.

Mrs. Ann H. Farnsworth, a lady 79 years old, so Woodstock, Vt., writes: "After several weeks' suffering from nervous prostration, I procured a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and before I had taken half of it my usual health returned."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

PREPARED BY
Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
Price $1; six bottles, $5. Worth $5 a bottle.

Local and Other Items.

MORE CALENDERS.—The thanks of THE EXAMINER are due Mr. F. W. Hyndman for some very nice calendars.

SCOTT ACT.—At the last meeting of the Summerside Town Council the salary of the Scott Act prosecutor was increased from $150 to $200.

LUMBER SHIPMENTS.—It is said that eighty-five million feet of lumber were shipped from Nova Scotia last year, an increase of two millions over the previous year.

FIRE.—The Journal says that a stack of oats belonging to Mr. Donald McLean, Tyne Valley, was burned on Sunday night. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

THE FESTIVE FOOTMAN.—Thomas Johnson and Jennie Stuart have arrived in Montreal from New York, from which place they are said to have eloped. Miss Stuart's father is a wealthy New York stock broker, and Johnson was his footman.

FOR THE LADIES.—The style of hair-dressing for 1889 is said to be a narrow fringe on the forehead, with a narrow continuation of coils running from the top of the head low down on the neck. The hair will not be so much hidden by the hat as at present.

Weak eyes and inflamed lids indicate an impure condition of the blood. The best remedy is Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It vitalizes the blood, regulates the secretions, and expels all serofulous humors from the system. Try it. Price $1. Worth $5 a bottle.

THE EUROPEAN PLAN.—Halifax is next summer to have a hotel conducted on the European plan. It will be established by Mr. Marr, of the St. Julian House. It will be well fitted up and will be ready for the accommodation of guests by the first August.

THE CYCLOPE CURS.—Cyclones, it appears, have their good as well as their bad side. There is an old lady in Brooklyn, N. Y., who hadn't walked without crutches for ten years. She forgot them when she heard the cyclone coming and has been able to walk as well as anybody ever since.

CATHOLICS IN THE UNITED STATES.—The Catholic directory places the Catholic population of New England at nearly a million and a quarter. The diocese of Portland, in which Bangor is included, contains 61,000. Portland diocese has fifteen parochial schools attended by 3,670 children. The entire Catholic population of the United States comprises about one-eighth of the entire people of the country.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL.—The annual meeting of the St. Vincent de Paul was held on Sunday last. The reports of the Secretary and Treasurer were presented, by which it appears that the receipts for the year ended 31st December last were $70.85, and the expenditure $46.35, leaving a balance of $24.50, wherewith to commence the winter's operations. The old officers were re-elected.

MOUNT ALLISON.—The educational institutions at Sackville, N. B., have re-opened for the season with very favorable prospects. The attendance at the male academy is much increased. The dining-hall is filled to its utmost limit, and any further addition of students would make necessary the finishing of rooms in the fourth story. A good proportion of the new books for the university library, which have been purchased by the gift of the Rev. Ralph Brecken, arrived during the holidays. They will be a great boon both to students and professors.

THE MARRIAGE QUESTION.—In the Superior Court, Quebec, Emma Jane Murphy is the plaintiff in a case against John Arthur Flanagan to annul a marriage which took place between the plaintiff and defendant early in January. In law the issue will be looked for with great importance by the legal fraternity, on the ground that the parties were married by a Presbyterian clergyman and are Roman Catholics, and the court will be asked to decide whether a Protestant minister can officiate at the marriage of Catholics, as in this case, by a license issued by the marriage commissioner.

ASTRONOMICAL.—Says an exchange: Mercury is evening star. He reaches his greatest eastern elongation Jan. 30th. He is then at his period of greatest brilliancy, is further north than the sun and is approaching the earth. The conditions are all favorable for observation, and he will be visible to the naked eye on the 30th an hour and a half after the sun. The careful observer, if the evening be exceptionally clear, must note the sunset point, and three-quarters of an hour after sunset will find Mercury about seven degrees north of the point where the sun went down. It is well to find his position with the aid of an opera glass, and when thus found, the unaided eye can easily follow his course.

AT IT AGAIN.—Says the Fredericton Capital: Theodore White, who was arrested for stealing eggs and jewelry some months ago while wearing the Salvation Army badge, completed his sentence of five months in the common jail on Wednesday. The last month or two he had been "rooming" with John Bolter. The young lad had scarcely been released when he went up to Bolter's house and told Mrs. Bolter that John had sent him after his suit of clothes. Mrs. Bolter never suspecting the young lad's intention, at once handed over the clothes, and yesterday learned that they had never reached the jail. Theodore has not been seen since, and is believed to have left the town.

A WARNING.—The Vienna correspondent of the London Times says: "American couples about to travel in Austria ought to take with them their marriage certificates. An American lady recently gave birth to a child here, and the father, accompanied by witnesses, went to register the birth. Owing to the absence of a marriage certificate the clerk said he must record the birth as illegitimate, and the only concession made, after much expostulation, was the substitution of the word 'doubtful' for 'illegitimate.' Further, on being told that the parents belonged to the Anglican Church the clerk wrote down, 'No religion.'"

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A Christmas Greeting.

SIR,—I left my P. E. Island home last fall and entered Queen's College, the better to prepare myself for the duties of life; and after spending three months in constant application to my studies, accepted the kind invitation of a P. E. Island friend, who had been settled as pastor of a congregation in Ontario, to spend the Christmas holidays with him.

On arriving, on Saturday morning, Dec. 22nd, at Lorneville, a small village station about seven miles from Lake Simcoe, I was met by my friend, who gave me such a cordial welcome as only one Islander can give another. A short stay with my friend, who until recently had been a stranger to me, revealed more of the history of the congregation than, perhaps, he had intended.

Our friend came here a short time ago a comparative stranger, and found that the field, through some cause or other, had been sadly neglected. But the untiring zeal and energy of the new pastor soon revived a good healthy spirit of devotion and consecration.

A new manse had been fitted out and a small dilapidated church in one section of the congregation has been replaced by a neat and commodious new one. And a still better sign, fifty-nine new members have been added to the communion roll.

Sunday morning the Church was well filled, and a good practical sermon preached to an attentive and appreciative audience. Monday evening, the occupants of the manse—especially the strangers within their gates—were alarmed by seeing a long array of lights surround the place.

A gentle rap at the door, however, soon indicated that the place was not to be taken by storm; and as soon as admittance was granted a seemingly endless stream of young ladies began to pour in. The prepossessing appearance of the young ladies would secure them a welcome anywhere, but they were doubly welcome as each one carried a basket laden with the good things of life, prepared after the latest culinary lore, in which the ladies of Lorneville appear to be proficient.

No sooner were the ladies well within doors when the young men began to pour in. And when they had arranged matters to suit their purpose, they presented their pastor with a well-written address, indicative of their appreciation of his services, and a more tangible indication in the form of a riding sleigh and accompaniments.

The ladies also presented him with an address, and at the same time a fine side-board, together with a handsome dinner set. When this had been settled, and the wants of the inner man attended to with refreshments, a suitable literary and musical programme was arranged, and after spending a most enjoyable evening they started for their homes as the clock was striking "the snaw' our ayout the twal," the pastor blessed in receiving, and the congregation more blessed in giving.

Knowing you, Mr. Editor, to be interested in the welfare of Islanders at home or abroad, I thought I would drop you this note for publication. The pastor referred to, is the Rev. Malcolm McKinnon, B. A., formerly of Brown's Creek, P. E. Island, whose brother, John McKinnon, B. A., of Queen's College, accompanied me on this occasion.

Yours truly,
D. CAMERON.
Lorneville, Jan. 5, 1889.

The great popularity of Ayer's Pills as a cathartic is due no less to their promptness and efficacy than to their coating of sugar and freedom from any injurious effects. Children take them readily. See Ayer's Almanac for this year, just out.

OCEAN FREIGHTS.—A Pictou man who has just returned from New York says that ocean freights have increased wonderfully and all the talk is about ships. Some men in New York are chartering vessels at 100 per cent. over what they did two years ago.

ON HIS DIGNITY.—Peter Jackson, the colored Australian pugilist, when shown the despatch, announcing that Jim Smith, the English champion, had issued a challenge to fight him, said, if Smith wanted to meet him he would have to come to California, as he would fight nowhere but in California, and that his mind was not fully made up whether he would meet Smith under any circumstances.

ANOTHER WARNING.—Norman Holland, aged thirteen years, while seated in his class at the Methodist Sunday School, Sydenham, Ont., on Sunday afternoon, drew from his pocket a dynamite cap, and not knowing its nature, picked it with a pin, when it exploded, tearing away four fingers from his left hand and one from his right hand. Two other boys who sat near Holland were wounded in the face. Dr. Sullivan amputated two fingers and dressed the wounds.

A RICH FIND.—George France, a farmer of Laporte, Ind., went into the woods near his residence a few days ago to chop stove wood. He was accompanied by his son. The two commenced work at an old hollow beech tree. After it was felled the elder France looked into the hollow stump and discovered a peculiar looking earthen jar. It was at once secured, the lid removed and the jar was found to be filled with silver coin. The money was of Spanish mint and its coinage was over 200 years old. France brought the silver into town, where it was weighed and tested, and the farmer was given $800 for his find.

There is comfort for the man with a prematurely gray beard in Buckingham Dye, because it never fails to color an even brown or black as may be desired.
