

In Brief, And to the Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember: No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

What Honest Lawyers may Do.

(New York Commercial Advertiser.) The true ethics of the matter is perfectly plain and simple.

A lawyer may rightfully defend a cheat, but he may rightfully defend him only in honorable ways, stooping to no tricks of rascality for the purpose of saving an offender from the just consequences of his crimes.

and no honorable lawyer has the least right to make himself the pal of thieves, advising them and planning their rascalities for them in return for fat fees.

"No, George," she said, "I cannot marry you; I shall always esteem you as a friend, but I cannot be your wife."

George hesitated. "Clara," he said brokenly, "will you grant me one favor before I go away forever?"

"Yes, George," she replied kindly; "what is it?" "Please put your refusal down on paper; I'll feel safer."

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth.

It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button."

It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes.

Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind! mar17 eod & wky
