Founder's Day Dinner Is Observed By Sorority

Members of the Charlottetown and Summerside chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority last evening observed the 27th Founder's Day at a banquet held in the main lounge of the Charlottetown Hotel.

The banquet was preceded by a reception held in the writing-room of the hotel. This was a very delightful part of the evening as the sorority sisters renewed their friendships. Pretty clothes were in evidence. The sacks of course were there in many quite brilliant colors. Complementing there were the large white collars replete with hair-ribbon bow at the neckline. Many of the bows had long streamers. All that was needed with these collars were the Bar Harbour Boater hats! As for the shoes and ear-rings they were simply intriguing.

After the reception the members entered the lounge for dinner. The head table was centered with a black vase of beautiful Talisman roses, yellow and black being the colors of the sorority. Matching tapers in silver candelabra enhanced the floral setting. The place cards were pennants with the sorority crest.

Mrs. J. O. Hornby, president of Alpha chapter, was the chairman for the evening. Mrs. Keith S. Rogers, played an excellent arrangement of the Queen. Mrs. Carl Burke offered the Beta Sigma Phi grace. Miss Marion Shaw, president of the Exemplar Chapter, presided over the dinner. (Continued on Page 5)
