

FAT BABY

Fat is the cushion that nature fills out and surrounds the little ones with, to protect their tender parts—the same with kittens and puppies—fat is not tender. Fat they must have; and fat they must be.

If your baby is anyway short of his rights, give him Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil.

We'll send you a little to try if you like.

VULGARIZED BY THE PRESS.

Opinion of the Editor of the Century Magazine.

One of the best tests you can find of the moral calibre of a periodical is in the character of its advertising. By the sense of the responsibility shown in the advertisements admitted, you may not be able to discern the religious denomination, but you can gauge correctly the moral grade of the proprietor. That the public mind is vulgarized by the swash served in the sensational papers is certain, and it is to be hoped that there will soon be a reaction. Just what degree of excellence in journalism the public are prepared for is a question. It is perhaps not to be expected that people without culture will show fine taste and discrimination, but at the same time we know very well that some of the best literature has the widest circulation. One would think from this evidence that there is opportunity for the best in newspapers. The people have a notion that 'a one-cent crime is no sin.' Readers ought to realize that they themselves are largely responsible for the sensationalism of the daily papers. They can't put all the blame on the speculative proprietors with their rotary presses and cheap processes. If readers are self-indulgent and willing to gratify curiosity by patronizing and helping support the more trashy publications the moral responsibility rests on them as well as on the owners. Publishers will furnish better papers if readers refuse to buy poor ones. We need not carry the sense of responsibility to the point of morbidity, but we should feel and act accordingly. Upon the public rests the duty of selection.—Interview with Richard Watson Gilder, editor of the Century Magazine, New York, as reported in The Outlook.

ROBBED ON THE IDAHO.

Belt Containing Gold Cut From One of The Canadians.

There was a daring robbery on the steamer Idaho, during her passage to Halifax. The steamer had on board several "indulgent passengers." Shortly after the Idaho had left St. Vincent, one of the members of the contingent complained to the captain that he had been robbed of all the money he had, which was in gold and sewed up in a belt. Captain Ouston, commander of the Idaho, was determined to locate the thief. He learned that the Canadian had been robbed while he slept. The belt was severed with a razor and the money stolen. Among the gold was a number of marked Kruger pieces. The captain suspected one of the indulgent passengers, who denied all knowledge of the robbery at first, but the captain felt justified in searching him and the money was found in his possession. The marked Kruger pieces found on the accused was evidence of his guilt. He was kept under restraint during the remainder of the passage.—Halifax Herald.

Autonomy for Iceland.

COPENHAGEN, November 6.—The elections to the Icelandic Althing have resulted in a great majority for the proposition of Professor Gudmundsson to create a special Icelandic ministry and give Iceland, virtually, an autonomous government.

WORRY STOPS DIGESTION.

The cat has served to teach mankind an all-important lesson concerning the working of the stomach. The X-rays directed upon a cat's stomach have demonstrated that any irritation or disagreeable nervous excitement arrests the process of digestion. Dr. Fritz Lange, of Munich, who makes a special study of the stomach, performed a series of experiments, which resulted in this interesting discovery. After the cat had eaten the X-rays were turned on, and Dr. Lange watched the animal's stomach. Then he irritated the cat by placing a live mouse just beyond its reach. Dr. Lange was able to observe that digestion was absolutely interrupted by the irritation of the animal. Briefly stated, the lesson for men and women is: Don't let anything bother or interrupt your dinner?

A GENTLEMAN.

A gentleman is common now,
When everyone is such;
A decent coat, a courtly bow—
Birth does not count for much.

But split the word in two, and find
Around you if you can,
The one, in heart and life and mind
Who is a gentle man.

If you wish to be miserable you must think about yourself—about what you want, what you like, what respect people ought to pay you, what people think about you—and then to you nothing will be pure. You will spoil everything you touch; you will make sin and misery for yourself out of everything which God sends you. You will be as wretched as you choose.—Kingsley.

A noted London club man once laid a wager with a friend that the latter could not sell a given number of gold guineas at a penny a piece. He won his wager. The people refused to buy. They thought he was offering too much for too little.

It may be that the claims made for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription seem almost too great to women who in years of suffering have found no help in doctors or medicines. But it is to be remembered that no claim is made for "Favorite Prescription" which is not substantiated by thousands of women cured by its use. Its effects are truly wonderful. It wipes out past years of pain as a sponge wipes a slate.

Favorite Prescription is the great medicine for women. It establishes regularity, dries enfeebling drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It is the best preparative for maternity, making the baby's advent practically painless.

"When I wrote to you in March, asking advice as to what to do for myself," says Mrs. Ella Reynolds, of Guffie, McLean Co., Ky. "I was expecting to become a mother in June, and was sick all of the time. Had been sick for several months. Could not get anything to stay in my stomach, not even water. Had mishaps twice in six months, and threatening all the time with this one. Had female weakness for several years. My hips, back and lower bowels hurt me all the time. Had numbness from my hips down. Had several hard cramping spells, and was not able to do any work at all. I received your answer in a few days, telling me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I took three bottles, and before I had taken it a week I was better, and before I had taken it a month I was able to help do my work. On the 27th of May my baby was born, and I was only sick three hours, and had an easy time.

"We praise Dr. Pierce's medicine for it has cured me."
