Cardigan Notes.

The schooner Cardigan, Graham master, sailed from Cardigan Bridge on Monday,

May 7th, for St. Pierre, Miquelon, with a cargo of 26 head of fat cattle, 26 fat sheep, 6 pigs, 1,000 bush. potatoes, 350 bush. oats and 10 tons hay, valued at $1800.

The cattle in the above shipment were a very fine lot. Among the cattle shipped we noticed 1 bull, 1600 lbs, fed by E.

S. Norton, Brudenell; 1 ox, 1330 lbs, fed by Terence Power, Roseneath; 1 ox, 1290 lbs, fed by Geo Moar, Geo'town Royalty; 1 ox, 1170 lbs, fed by Jas Gordon, New Perth;

1 cow, 1060 lbs, fed by Neil

Nicholson, Lot 52; 2 oxen, 2260 lbs, fed by Alex Stewart, New Perth; 1 ox, 1100 lbs, fed by Jas Gordon, New Perth; 1 cow,

980 lbs, fed by Jas Gordon, New Perth; 1 ox, 1230 lbs, fed by D. Munn, Roseneath;

1 ox, 1020 lbs, fed by C. Donohoe, Roseneath; 2 cows, 1650 lbs, fed by J. Donohoe, Roseneath; 1 cow, 940 lbs, fed by R. Shaw, Roseneath; 1 cow, 920 lbs, fed by D.

Campbell, Cardigan; 3 cattle, 2700 lbs, fed by John Moar, Baldwin's Road; 1 bull, 1030 lbs, fed by Alex McLeod, Pisquid

Road, Mr. Alexander Hamilton, New

Perth, had also some finely finished cattle, and others, whose weights we did not ascertain, were very good. Altogether, these were the finest lot of cattle shipped at Cardigan for many years, many of them being only three years old. The purchase of the above cargo in this neighborhood has scattered quite a lot of money, and in consequence trade has been good. Jas. E.

Macdonald, Esq., is the shipper.

Messrs. Morson & Morgan have had their fine store newly painted and are opening an extensive stock of general merchandize.

Mr. J. F. Norton is extending his store, and when it is completed will have a most commodious establishment.

Mr. Minto is doing a rushing business and reports sales better than the average.

The trustees of the Presbyterian Church at Cardigan have arranged with Messrs.

Clark & Schurman, of Summerside, for the erection of a fine new church during the coming summer. The building is to be capable of seating between 500 and 600. It is to be built on the church property adjoining the manse.

The schooner Lochiel, Capt. Bisset, is loading with oats and potatoes for Cape Bretton, and Messrs. Carvell Bros., of Charlottetown, are loading a schooner with oats.

Notwithstanding the late spring the farmers are busy with spring work and considerable wheat has been sown.

Start Right.

J. G. Holland ("Timothy Titcomb," in his letters to young men says:

"I suppose that the first great lesson a young man should learn is that he knows nothing; and that the earlier and more thoroughly this lesson is learned, the better it will be for his peace of mind and his success in life. A young man, bred at home, and growing up in the light of parental admiration and fraternal pride, cannot readily understand how it is that every one else can be his equal in talent and acquisition. If bred in the country, he seeks the life of the town, he will very early obtain an idea of his insignificance. If, at this time, he thoroughly compre-hends and in his soul admits and accepts the fact that whatever he is to be, and is to win, must be achieved by hard work, there is abundant hope of him. If, on the contrary, a huge, self-conceit still holds possession of him, and he straightens stiffly up to the assertion of his old and valueless self; or if he sinks discouraged upon the threshold of a life of fierce competitions and more manly emulations, he might as well be a dead man. The world has no use for such a man, and he has only to retire or be trodden upon.

"When, therefore, a young man has ascertained
