BURLINGTON

—The home of Mr. Alton Bell and family at Burlington was graciously opened for a very successful social evening on January 19, under the auspices of St. Stephen's Anglican Church.

With music, games, contests and stunts, there was something of interest for all ages and inclinations, and cares were laid aside for the time while everyone entered into the fun of the evening.

The program opened with instrumental music by Mrs. Borden Campbell and Mrs. George MacLeod. Messrs. Linwood and Ivan Gill of Kensington very acceptably contributed a song commemorating the epic feat of Marilyn Bell. Calls for "More" greeted Miss Laura Bell's piano solo, and the Long River Brown brothers, Grafton and Erwin delighted the audience with a vocal duet. Erwin who is also an accomplished accompanist lent his talents during the evening for a sing-song, and rendered piano selections on special request.

Spring Valley showmen introduced the "Old Gray Mare", who "ain't what she used to be", and contests and stunts were put on by Mrs. Borden Campbell, Mrs. Leigh Paynter and Mrs. W. J. Profitt.

The Rev. W. Eric Ingraham was the capable chairman and at the close of the evening extended a hearty "thank you" to Mr. Alton Bell and Mrs. Ruth Carr, for their kindness in opening their home.

An auction sale of donated articles conducted by Mr. W. J. Profitt added a neat sum to the centennial fund, to be used for redecorating on the church property in view of the 100th anniversary to be celebrated later this year. Lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Ruth Carr and Miss Laura Bell, assisted by Mrs. Everett Sudsbury, Mrs. James Evans, Mrs. H. B. MacLeod, Mrs. Nelson Paynter, Mrs. Leigh Paynter, Mrs. Harry Sudsbury, Mrs. Hubert Caseley, Mrs. Borden Campbell, Mrs. Ivan Harrington and others.

In Memoriam

CHARLES CASELEY

—One of the oldest and most highly respected men of the area, Mr. Charles Caseley, passed away at his home at Spring Valley on November 26, 1954, following a brief illness.

A lifelong resident of Spring Valley, he was born on December 10th, 1865, and in a few days would have reached his 89th birthday.

Although of a quiet unassuming nature and a lover of home, his integrity, kindliness and industry won for him the high esteem of all who knew him, and as a friend in need he was unexcelled. Alert both physically and mentally to the end of his long life, he is sorely missed by friends and neighbors but especially by the members of his family who will always remember his innate goodness and constant kindness and his ready help in any time of crisis.

He is lovingly remembered by a family of nine children, Edna, (Mrs. Alexander MacKenzie), Baltic; Mamie, (Mrs. Mamie Adams), Spring Valley; Alberta, (Mrs Wesley Cole) Spring Valley; Bruce, Spring Valley; Nettie, (Mrs Edward Inman) Portland, Maine; Jennie, (Mrs. Roger Stormont) Medford, Mass.; Andrew, Spring alley; Beatrice, (Mrs. Richard Wall), Baltic; Joseph, on the homestead, Spring Valley, thirty grandchildren, thirty-nine great-grandchildren and one sister, Tillie, (Mrs. George Vaughan), Charlottetown. His wife, the former Easter Davison predeceased him almost twelve years ago.

The funeral was held on Monday with a short service at his late home, followed by the burial service in St. Stephen's Anglican Church and the adjoining cemetery where he was laid to rest in the family plot.

His minister, Rev. W. Eric Ingraham, B.A., was the officiating clergyman. Pallbearers were six grandsons, Ivan Adams, Charles MacKenzie, Bruce MacKenzie, Reuben Wall, Charles Cole, Brenton Cole.

BEDEQUE

—A goodly number attended the annual meeting of the official board of the Bedeque United Church charge on January 20th., in the Church Hall. The pastor, Rev. George K. Ward, presided. Mr. J. Arnold Henderson was secretary. Financial reports indicated that splendid progress had been made in 1954. The Missionary and Maintenance fund was $2500. Pine Hill campaign allocation was $2500. However $3398 was subscribed with $2178 paid in. The total raised for all purposes for the year was $22,000. The average givings per family amounted to over $80.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Ada B. Schurman, who passed away in Montreal on January 16th., was held from the Central Bedeque United Baptist Church on Thursday afternoon January 20th. The service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Charles A. Britten. Interment was in the Church cemetery. It is worthy of note that the late Mrs. Schurman was a sister of the late Mr. M. F. Schurman, Summerside, who passed away on June 29th, 1952. The famous Islander, Mr. Jacob Gould Schurman was also a brother.

Mr. Stewart Williams, Charlottetown, spent the week-end with relatives at Fernwood. —BQ.
