Training Courses For Young Leaders

TORONTO, (CP) The Presbyterian Church in Canada is setting up week-long training courses for young church leaders in 100 centres across Canada. Rev. Dr. W. A. Cameron, moderator of the Church's general assembly, announced the plan Friday. It begins next week. Four groups of lay leaders, missionaries and ministers will visit church districts from Quebec City to Vancouver to hold training courses for the church's Sunday school teachers, youth leaders and adults interested in youth work. The courses will involve instruction in up-to-date methods of Sunday school teaching and youth leadership. Those attending will also receive information on recent developments in the Church's foreign missions. The courses are sponsored jointly by the board of Christian education and the Women's Missionary Society western division of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. In announcing the venture, Dr. Cameron said "The Christian church must give leadership to the modern revolution taking place everywhere in the world in order that peace and security of mind and spirit may evolve from the chaos of thinking now prevalent." He added:

"It is the individual man and woman, young and old, who must realize that Christianity means an unflinching adherence to a moral and spiritual code which affects every phase of the life they live." He said the plan "is an expression of interest by and for the Christian layman — an interest which is finding emphasis in many ways in Canada — and which is a

Recover Bodies of Drowning Victims

MONTREAL, (CP)—Police recovered on Friday the bodies of most promising movement within the Christian church both in Europe and North America."

two people drowned Saturday in Lake St. Louis when their boat overturned in a storm. Three other persons are still missing, and presumed dead. Relatives identified the bodies found as those of Norman Middleton, 44, of Strathmore and Kenneth Dickson, 27, of Montreal. Those still missing are: Linda Middleton, 5, of Strathmore; Ronald Aldis, 25, and Lawrence Wilkinson, 24, both of Montreal. HUGE APPLE BELLEVILLE, Ont. CP — luscious McIntosh red apple picked from the orchard of Harry Allison of Albury had a circumference of 12 1/4 inches, and a diameter of 4 1/2 inches. Allison said there were others like it.
