Makes Start In Building Ayrshire Herd

A St. Peter's Bay man, Mr. Joseph H. McInnis, has made an auspicious start in the building of a purebred Ayrshire herd as his only milking purebred animal has topped all entries in R. O. P. for three year old animals in the 365 day division tests recently completed. The young red and white, Edana Empress lead the three year olds by producing 13,107 pounds of milk and 538 pounds of fat. The average milk test was 4.26. Mr. McInnis has a number of high quality grade cattle and some young purebred heifers but Edana Empress is believed to be his first milking purebred. Naturally he and his family are quite elated over the animal's Canada leading production record. The cow was sired by Springburn Royal King formerly owned by A. MacRae and Sons of Central Royalty and now dead.

INVESTIGATION

The motorman of the second train skidded his wheels nearly 1,000 feet but it was too late. His lead car roared into the rear coach of the first train, stalled by what the surviving motorman termed faulty brakes. The motorman of the second train died. Precise cause of the disaster was still uncertain. But the railroad reviewed what may have been the situation. The first train was running 90 seconds late. It either slowed sharply or made an unaccounted stop as it neared Jamaica Station. When motorman William Murphy, 61, tried to pick up speed again, his powerful air brakes failed to release. In the rear, brakeman Bertrand Bigram had dropped to the track, waving his red electric lantern, with the train's own red warning lights above his head. But when he heard the power go on, he jumped back aboard, as was proper. Then the brakes held.

Heard Train Coming

He heard a train coming "but I thought it was on another track." Before he could jump down again and signal a warning, he saw the speeding train "coming like the devil...right down the same track." He was hurled the length of the car to safety. But behind him, motorman Benjamin Pokorny, 55, rode to his death in a slaughterhouse of passengers. The railroad said it could not say at this time what track signal light was showing. A spokesman said it would take a full investigation to determine whether the block signal showed "go ahead," "caution," or whether Pokorny ran through a full-stop signal. Pokorny's car went through and over the other train's rear coach like a bullet going through a gun. Shredding humanity, steel, mohair chair seats and glass into a dripping, tangled mass. For hours, the scene was a horror of severed hands, bodiless heads, and odd arms and legs.

Large Show Building For Exhibition Grounds Mooted

The Provincial Government would likely give favorable consideration to the shouldering of one third of the construction costs of a large show building on the Exhibition Grounds if such a project were to be mooted. It was stated yesterday by Hon. C. C. Baker, Minister of Agriculture. The Provincial Government and the Exhibition Association have been considering the project and a Provincial Government owned hangar at the Charlottetown Airport has been viewed as a possible framework for the proposed building.

A possibility that the Dominion Government might bear one third of the costs was also mentioned by Mr. Baker. "Although they might pay one third, I am not prepared to say," he stated.

Considering Hangar

The Exhibition Association have been considering the purchase of the hangar from the Provincial Government but as yet no definite decision has been reached. It was learned from Mr. H. J. Kennedy, Manager of the Association. The proposed building would be used chiefly to advance the interests of agriculture although it has been suggested that many other organizations would find use for it. During the war the building which for so many years housed exhibits of all kinds at the annual

Dr. Shaw Discusses Commercialization In Field Of Sports

"Here in the Maritimes there is evidence of the fact that we are trying to keep away from over commercialization of sports," Dr. L. W. Shaw, Deputy Minister and Director of Education for P. E. I., is quoted as saying in a recent issue of an Amherst newspaper. The occasion of Dr. Shaw's address was a dinner meeting of the Maritime Association for Physical Education and Recreation held in Amherst on November 17th. Mrs. Harry Cudmore, director of Swimming and Water Safety, Red Cross, acted as chairman at the banquet. The Amherst paper quotes Dr. Shaw as saying: "Over commercialization of sport is one of the great faults in our recreation. In the old days there was less commercialization due to the fact people created their own recreation and were far better off. Recently with the introduction of the automobile, movies and other attractions sponsored on a commercial basis, the people have started to buy their recreation instead of creating it."

Cream Industry Hit By Foreign Vegetable Oils

HALIFAX, Nov. 23 — (CP) — The influx of cheap foreign vegetable oils in Canada is threatening not only the butter, but the cream industry and every other category of dairy in Canada. J. S. Turnbull, president of the National Dairy Council, said today. "A vegetable oil product has already displaced thousands of gallons of fresh cream," Mr. Turnbull said in a speech prepared for delivery before the Nova Scotia Dairywomen's Association. "It is being used commercially in bakeries for a number of products, including 'cream puffs' and 'cream fillings' and toppings of all kinds. "Because it is not necessary to label this type of bakery goods, consumers are buying them under the false impression that they contain pure fresh cream."

In other words, said Mr. Turnbull, "these cheap foreign vegetable oils which now can be brought into this country from the principal oil producing countries of the world without payment of tariffs of any kind are threatening not only the butter industry but the form of margarine but threatening also the operations of every dairyman in the form of imitations and substitutes for every dairy product produced." Canadian dairymen, therefore, were becoming "more and more apprehensive as to the adverse effects vegetable oil substitutes could have on the ice cream, evaporated milk, fluid milk and cream and cheese branches of the industry."
