

To a Waterfowl.

Whether, midst falling dew, While glow the heavens with the last steps of a day, Far, through their rosy depths, dost thou pursue Thy solitary way?

Vainly the fowler's eye Might mark the distant flight to do thee wrong, As, darkly seen against the crimson sky, Thy figure floats along.

Seek'st thou the plashy brink Of weedy lake, or margin of river wide, Or where the rocking billows rise and sink On the chafed ocean side?

There is a Power whose care Teaches the way along the pathless coast— The desert and illimitable air, Lone wandering, but not lost.

All day thy wings have fanned, At that far height, the cold, thin atmosphere, Yet stoop not, weary, to the welcome land, Though the dark night is near.

And soon the toil shall end; Soon shalt thou find a summer home and rest, And scream among thy fellows; reeds shall bend, Soon, o'er thy sheltered nest.

Thou'rt gone, the abyss of heaven Hath swallowed up thy form; yet on my heart, Deeply hath sunk the lesson thou hast given, And shall not soon depart;

He who, from zone to zone, Guides through the boundless sky the certain flight, In the long way that I must tread alone, Will lead my steps aright.

—William Cullen Bryant.

A Fatal Warning.

THE STORY OF A GIRL WHO SAW THE SPIRIT OF HER MOTHER FORETELLING DEATH.

In his treatise on "Spirits," John Beaumont relates a very singular account of an apparition seen by the daughter of Sir Charles Lee, and related to the Bishop of Gloucester, by the lady's father. It is considered one of the best authenticated stories on record. Sir Charles had a daughter by his first wife, who died in childbirth. At her own desire, Lady Everard, sister of the deceased lady, had the child with her to raise and educate, and kept the little girl till she was of marriageable age. Ultimately, Miss Lee was engaged to Sir William Perkins, and the marriage was agreed upon, when it was prevented in a singular manner. "Upon a Thursday," to quote the Bishop's own words, "Miss Lee, thinking she saw a light in her chamber after she was in bed, knocked for her maid, who presently came to her, and she asked her why she had left a candle burning in her room. The maid said she had left none, and that there was no light in the room but that she had brought with her at that time. Then she said it was the fire, but that, the maid told her, was quite out, and said she believed it was only a dream. Whereupon she said it might be so, and composed herself to sleep again. But about 2 she was awakened again, and saw the apparition of a little woman between her curtain and pillow, who told her she was her mother; that she was happy, and by 12 o'clock that day she would be with her. Whereupon she knocked for her maid, called for her clothes, and when she was dressed went to her closet and came not out again until 9, and then brought out with her a letter sealed and addressed to her father. She gave it to her aunt, the Lady Everard, told her what had happened, and desired that when she was dead it should be sent to him. But the lady thought she was suddenly fallen mad, and thereupon sent presently away to Chelmsford for a physician and surgeon, who both came immediately, but the physician could discern no indication of what the lady imagined or of any indisposition of the body. Notwithstanding, the lady would have her bed, which was done accordingly. And when the young woman had patiently let them do what they would with her, she desired that the chaplain might be called to read prayers, and when the prayers were ended she took her guitar and hymn-book and played and sang so melodiously and admirably that her music master, who was there, admired it. And near the stroke of 12 she rose and sat down in a large easy chair, and presently, fetching a strong breath or two, she expired, and was so suddenly cold as was much wondered at by the physician and surgeon. She died at Waltham, in Essex, and the letter was sent to Sir Charles at his house in Warwickshire, but he was so afflicted at her death that he came not till she was buried. But when he came he caused her body to be taken up to be buried by her mother in Edmonton, as she had desired in her letter. The event occurred in 1662, and there is no record of any further manifestation in the house.

NOTES.

Not the promissory, but facts about WELCOME SOAP, an article that does not contain one particle of the adulterations used to reduce the cost of "Pure Goods," but does possess the value of legitimate Washing Qualities, the demand for which proves the advantage gained by the use of the genuine over Soaps of doubtful character. None should be deceived even by Red and Yellow Wrappers, or any of the imitations of the WELCOME, as a pair of clasped hands is stamped on every bar. Made by CURTIS, DAVIS & Co.

A MARVELOUS STORY

TOLD IN TWO LETTERS.

FROM THE SON: "23 Cedar St., New York, Oct. 23, 1882. 'Gentlemen: My father resides at Glover, Vt. He has been a great sufferer from Scrofula, and the enclosed letter will tell you what a marvelous effect has had in his case. I think his blood must have contained the humor for at least ten years; but it did not show, except in the form of a scrofulous sore on the wrist, until about five years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, it gradually spread so as to cover his entire body. I assure you he was terribly afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now, there are few men of his age who enjoy as good health as he has. I could easily name fifty persons who would testify to the facts in his case. Yours truly, W. M. PHILLIPS."

FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a pleasure and a duty for me to state to you the benefit I have derived from the use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Six months ago I was completely covered with a terrible humor and scrofulous sores. The humor caused an incessant and intolerable itching, and the skin cracked so as to cause the blood to flow in many places whenever I moved. My sufferings were great, and my life a burden. I commenced the use of the SARSAPARILLA in April last, and have used it regularly since that time. My condition began to improve at once. The sores have all healed, and I feel perfectly well in every respect—being now able to do a good day's work, although 73 years of age. Many inquire what has wrought such a cure in my case, and I tell them, as I have here tried to tell you, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. Glover, Vt., Oct. 21, 1882. Yours gratefully, HIRSH PHILLIPS."

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures Scrofula and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworm, Blotches, Sores, Bolls, Tumors, and Eruptions of the Skin. It cleans the blood of all impurities, aids digestion, stimulates the action of the bowels, and thus restores vitality and strengthens the whole system.

New and Original Departure in Coal Cooking Stoves COMBINING DURABILITY, HEAT AND ECONOMY.

THE above Stove I invented and patented in 1876, and at the present time HUNDREDS ARE IN USE, giving perfect satisfaction. A large number have been in constant use for eight years, and the repairs have been very trifling, in many instances none have been required. This valuable experience should be sufficient evidence of their durability, which is accounted for in the following:—It has, instead of a Lined Fire Box, two heavy Cylindrical, which obviate the expense connected with all Square Cooking Stoves of being compelled to renew Linings and Grates, at least once or twice every year. The heat being radiated from the Cylinders to the Floor where most needed, overcomes a serious objection to all kinds of ordinary Coal Cooking Stoves. The Cylinders are situated directly under the cover holes, and a fire may be made in one or both, thus adapting it for use either in winter or summer, with equal satisfaction, besides effecting a great saving to fuel. I have also attached the PATENT TELESCOPIC OVEN to all my Elevated Oven Wood Stoves, such as the Waterloo, Niagara, Star, &c., causing the thousands using them to exclaim—My Stoves are worth TEN DOLLARS MORE than the same kind made by other foundries. The trade and retail purchasers will please bear in mind the fact that although a great advantage is claimed for my own Oven above all others, they cost no more, and being the sole manufacturer and patentee, no other foundry can supply. Enquire for Fawcett's Patent Telescope Oven, and it your dealer has none on hand send direct to the Sackville Stove Foundry.

I am adding several new and handsome Patterns this season, which, with my former large variety of One Hundred Different Patterns and Sizes of Cooking, Parlor, Office and Hall Stoves, also Farmers Boilers, Hollowware, Ploughs, Stove Pipes and Tinware, comprise the most complete assortment offered by any manufacturer in the Lower Provinces. Terms and prices will be found as favorable as can be obtained elsewhere. CHARLES FAWCETT, SACKVILLE FOUNDRY, SACKVILLE, N. B. June 19th, 1885—mod wkly
