Death in the Midst of Life.

The pleasures of Dominion Day were sadly marred by the dreadful news of the sudden death of Mr. Walter Beer. Since the news arrived yesterday afternoon all sorts of rumors have been flying about the town. We have been at pains to obtain particulars of the mournful occurrence which may be relied on as "nearly correct as possible."

Early on Monday morning five young gentlemen, viz., E. W. Dawson, Robert Weeks, Lowman Yeo, Fred. Compton and John Moore left town for a day's fishing at New Glasgow. Mr. Walter Beer, whose intention seems to have been to spend a few days at the "Ocean House," went with them; and we are told that of the entire party none was so lively, so full of health and spirits as he. Arrived at New Glasgow, the heat and other considerations induced the five, who intended to go fishing, to yield to Mr. Beer's solicitations and to drive right on to the "Sea Side Hotel." There they arrived a little before one o'clock, determined to have a plunge before dinner. They accordingly took a boat; and Mr. Beer sculled it to a bathing place at the mouth of Rustico Harbor. Having beached the boat, they all immediately prepared to bathe. Mr. Beer, who must have been very much heated by the exertion of sculling, was the third or fourth of the party who ran out into the water. He did not plunge in; but the banks were very bold—the water about thirty feet deep—and he was quickly beyond his depth. His companions observed nothing wrong, until a fishing boat entering the harbor seemed to be bearing down upon him, and he to be taking no notice of it. They shouted to warn him, but he made no sound or motion. Mr. Dawson, who was by this time on shore, saw that he was not swimming, and called to Moore to swim after him. Moore did so; and was horrified to find only the helpless body—the life, the spirit which animated it but a few moments previously, all gone—gone forever. Moore shouted for help; and Yeo quickly came to his aid. Dawson also sprang in again. With the utmost difficulty the body was brought to the shore. Restoratives were instantly applied. Judge Hensley and others on the shore tried, for more than half an hour, by every method known to them to restore animation. All in vain. The pulse moved not once; and no breath marred the brightness of the mirror held to the rigid lips. The soul of Walter Beer had fled to its rest, and neither by cry, nor moan, nor audible sigh was its flight made known to those who bathed with him in the fatal current.

As soon as possible the body was removed, and a Coroner's inquest held. The verdict was: "Death caused by going into water being overheated."

A physician, after hearing the particulars, says he thinks death was the result of paralysis of the heart, and that it was instantaneous. A hearse was sent after the body last evening; and it was received by the bereaved relatives of the deceased at an early hour this morning.

In another column it is announced that "the funeral will leave his father's residence for the Depot on Wednesday afternoon, at 2.45 o'clock."

Mr. Walter Beer was the eldest son of George R. Beer, Esq., of this city. He was a genial high-spirited young man—liked by every one; and by his relatives and intimate friends sincerely loved.

In business he was enterprising, prompt and courteous, with ambition enough, had his life been spared, to have raised him to the rank of our first merchants. At the time of his sudden death he was 22 years of age; and few, in all the town, seemed to be entering upon what is known as "life" with fairer prospects.

The bereaved parents will, we are sure, be comforted with the thought that prospects so bright are exchanged, even in the twinkling of an eye, for the reality of an eternal life of happiness; and that he who erstwhile took to Himself the widow's only son, has also taken their first-born, as He does all things "for the best."

THE BEST ON EARTH.—The new Wheeler and Wilson Sewing Machine was considered by the judges of the American Institute to be the best machine in the world, and was awarded the Special Medal of the Institute, 1877, (and sustained by all the world's exhibitions.) Now is the time to get the best machine at the lowest possible price, as Mr. Johnson, the General Agent, is in the city for a short time. Call at Chappelle's Bookstore—ladies, ask for Clark's Elephant Spool Cotton for all Sewing Machines. [June 18, eod t]

Little York.

A MEETING will be held at Little York on Saturday evening next for the purpose of electing delegates to the Liberal-Conservative Convention to be held on the 19th inst.

The Weather.

The impression which prevailed yesterday (Dominion Day) that the weather then experienced was the warmest for several years was correct. The following are the corrected readings from the instruments of the Meteorological Department:—

Mean temp. High'st. Low'st
Saturday, 29th June, 75° 85° 59°
Sunday, 30th June, 75° 83° 65°
Monday, 1st July, 77° 87° 67°

In 1876 the maximum temperature was, on the 11th August, 88°, the mean of the day was 75°.27. On the day previous, though such a high maximum was not reached, the day was warmer by about a quarter of a degree, viz., 75°.5. The maximum of 1874 was 87°.7 on 16th July; but the mean was only 71°.6. Yesterday was warmer by two degrees than any other day, certainly since 1872, perhaps for a longer period.

DOMINION DAY.

YESTERDAY—being the eleventh anniversary of the formation of the Dominion of Canada—was observed as a general holiday throughout the Province. Early in the morning trains and steamboats were crowded with excursionists, coming to and going from the city—all seeking the merriest place in which to spend "Canada's own Holiday." The city, however, was the centre of attraction, as shown by the great influx of excursionists. At 7 o'clock the steamer Tiger arrived from Pictou with a large number of Pictonians. The majority of those attended the tea at Victoria Park, while a large number proceeded to Upton Park to witness the races. After spending a pleasant day they returned home at 11 p. m. At 9 o'clock, a. m., the steamer Heather Bells arrived from Craupaud. She was crowded with excursionists, who came to take part in the temperance demonstration and tea. A very large number also arrived on the early train from Summerside. From early morning the roads leading to the City were alive with vehicles filled with rural youths, who came on a holiday visit to the City, to attend the various sports of the day. At 10 o'clock a procession of carriages arrived from New Glasgow and Wheatley River, conveying the members of the Divisions of Sons of Temperance from that vicinity.

At 12 o'clock the city was crowded with visitors from all parts of the Island. As the Temperance procession was billed to start from the Athenæum at 10 o'clock, the streets in the vicinity were long before this time crowded with people.

TEMPERANCE DEMONSTRATION.

At 1 o'clock the procession formed at the Athenæum, in the following order:—
Galbraith's Brass Band.
Grand Division of Sons of Temperance, with Banners.
Cadets of Temperance, with Banners.
Subordinate Divisions of Sons of Temperance, with Banners.
Hibernian Minstrel Band.
St. Patrick's Total Abstinence Society, with Banners.

In the above order the procession marched along Fitzroy street, down Hillsborough street, along Water street, up Pownal, and thence to the Park. Shortly after their arrival the processionists sat down and did ample justice to the good things which were prepared for them.

At four o'clock the Band played some lively airs, after which the speaking commenced.

The G. W. P. of the Grand Division, Mr. J. J. Chappell, congratulated the friends of temperance on the success of the demonstration, and on behalf of the Grand Division, extended a cordial welcome to the different Societies represented.

G. W. Millner, Esq., read an excellent original temperance poem.

Wm. Laird, Esq., of New Glasgow, hoped temperance men would stand shoulder to shoulder until our purposes were fully accomplished.

P. R. Bowers, Esq., was glad to find Dominion Day celebrated so auspiciously. Temperance celebrations always passed off quietly and pleasantly.

R. Shaw, Esq., referred to the Temperance Act, 1878, and urged upon the electors of the whole Island to interest themselves in the matter.

Rev. D. FitzGerald was glad to find such hearty co-operation in the good cause of Temperance, as displayed in the procession to-day.

The Addresses were all interspersed with music by the Band, and closed with an original poem by John LePage, Esq., on the Demonstration of Dominion Day, 1878.

At 6.30 p. m., the procession reformed, and returned to the city.

In the evening the entertainment in the Market Hall was well patronized. We have not, as yet, heard whether the entertainment was a success financially.

UPTON PARK RACES.

The Summer Meeting at Upton Park was held yesterday. Owing to the different excursions, tea parties and pic-nics, the attendance was not quite so large as at the previous races. There was, however, large numbers present from the country districts. During the interesting races which took place the strictest order prevailed. This shows that the example made of those disorderly fellows who created disturbance on the Park at the last race had a good effect. On the whole, yesterday's racing was the best we have seen at Upton Park.

At three o'clock the judges—Dr. Creamer, Mr. James Currie and Mr. McDonald—rang up the first, which was a match between Dr. Jenkins' "Young Hamiltonian" and Mr. White's mare "Tib," the distance being seven-eighths of a mile. In the first heat "Ham," led and trotted over the course in splendid style. "Tib" made the chase hot at times; but was fractious to the end. "Ham" led the way at the finish by six lengths. "Ham" also led in the second heat, and trotted well till passing the distance post. Here he broke. "Tib" was at his quarter, and in her attempt to give him the "go-by," she also broke, and both galloped under the wire—"Tib" leading by a half length. "Tib" led in the third heat, and kept it till passing the half-mile pole, when "Ham" gave her the "go-by" in good style. They trotted splendidly down the back-stretch, and on the home "Tib" spurred, took the lead, and finished this heat with "Ham" at her wheel. As will be seen by the following summary, "Ham" took next heat. On the last he became fractious, and galloped wildly over the course, coming in ahead. The heat was, however, given to "Tib," as she trotted the course squarely.

SUMMARY.
"Ham" 1 2 2 1 2
"Tib" 2 1 1 2 1

2.55 CLASS—ENTRIES:
John Mallet's b m "Nell."
R. Crabbe's b m "Bell."
Dr. Jenkins' b m "Young Queen."
A. N. Large's bk s "Messenger Boy."
In the first "Nell" led, but was passed by "Messenger" at the turn and by "Queen" at the quarter-pole. "Messenger" maintained his lead till the finish. He was closely pursued by "Queen" and "Nell," "Belle" being a considerable distance in the rear. At the end-off on the second heat, "Messenger" led, followed by the others in a bunch. He broke on the back-stretch, and fell to the rear. "Nell" then led, but was passed by "Queen" at the quarter pole, who kept the lead till the finish, "Nell" next, followed by "Messenger" and "Belle." At the end off on the third heat, all went in a bunch. At the turn "Queen" led, followed by "Messenger" and "Nell" at her quarters. All trotted splendidly down the back-stretch. On the home stretch "Queen" broke, but came down to a square trot and passed the wire, closely followed by "Messenger" and "Nell." The last heat was well trotted, and the horses passed the wire in the same positions as in the third.

SUMMARY.
Nell..... 3 2 3 3
Bell..... 4 4 4 4
Queen..... 2 1 1 1
Messenger..... 1 3 2 2

"Queen" gets first money, "Messenger" second and "Nell" third.
For the running race there were three entries: First, Mr. Sellars' b. c.; second, Mr. Brown's b. c.; and third, Mr. Clow's b. m. In the first heat Mr. Brown's colt came in first, Mr. Clow's mare second, and Mr. Sellars' colt third. The second heat was run splendidly, Clow's mare coming in first, Sellars' colt second, and Brown's colt last. The third heat ended with the same result. Clow got first money, Brown second and Sellars third.

CRICKET.

The match between the "Phoenix Cricket Club," of Charlottetown, and the Summerside Club, took place yesterday, and resulted in a victory for the "Phoenix," who won by one innings and 59 runs to spare. Charlottetown, at about eleven, a. m., sent Summerside to the wicket, and they were disposed of with a total of 27; their batting was weak, and lacked confidence. Charlottetown followed, and the steady play of G. Macleod and J. A. Longworth soon ran above the Summerside score—the total before they were separated amounting to 48. The bowling at this time was very weak, and Charlottetown scored rapidly, J. H. Yeo making the best score of the day, viz.: 32, by steady play and good batting. We were pleased to see our Local Premier, L. H. Davies back again at his old place in the field. The following are the scores:

THE SALUTE.

A salute of twenty-one guns was fired at noon from Fort Edward by a detachment of Major Morris's battery of Artillery, under the command of Lieutenant James Irving.

BASE BALL MATCH.
At eight o'clock a. m. the members of the Pownal and Rochford Base Ball Clubs engaged in a friendly match on Rochford

Square. The match lasted for a considerable space of time, but finally resulted in an easy victory for the members of the Rochford Club, who scored 60, to 20 of the Pownal Club.

BOWLING.

A return bowling match, between the members of the Charlottetown and Summerside Reform Clubs, took place at the Reform Club Rooms in this city. The game was well contested. It resulted in a victory for the members of the Charlottetown Club, who scored 1621 to 1526 of the Summerside Club.

CARDIGAN TEA.

A great crowd assembled on the grounds, on the beautiful slope of the hill between Cardigan Bridge and the Railway Station. The number present was estimated at over two thousand. Tents covered with evergreens were filled all day with those who partook of the excellent supply of delicacies placed before them. The dancing booths were well patronized; and, notwithstanding the fact that the thermometer registered about ninety in the shade, the gay lads and lassies "tripped the light fantastic toe" incessantly. In the afternoon a large quantity of fake was "auctioned off" by Mr. A. McNeill, of Charlottetown, and others; and presentations of splendid cake were made by Mrs. Archibald McDonald, of Georgetown; Mrs. Austin McDonald, of Montague; Mr. Donald Ferguson, M. P. P. for Cardigan, and others. In the assemblage were many of the leading men of the County, of all sects and parties. Prominent among them were candidates for Dominion honors. From Charlottetown, His Worship the Mayor, Owen Connolly, Esq., Professor Caven, John Ball, Esq., and many others were on the grounds. The proceedings were brought to a close by a concert in the large tent arranged for the occasion. The arrival of the train from Georgetown, however, caused a sudden stampede from the tea grounds to the station, all anxious to secure the best seats. The tea was, financially, "a success."
