The revolutionary party at Rome attempted to emeute on the 9th inst., threatening to sack St. Peter's and attack the Vatican. The disturbance reached formidable proportions before it was quelled by General D'Annes, aided by the military. A number of the revolutionists were wounded, but none were killed.

A force of nearly two thousand cavalry and infantry has been ordered to Londonderry for fear of a disturbance at the approaching anniversary of the establishment of the union of Great Britain and Ireland.

A Man by the name of Charles Kitson, residing on the New Bedeque Road about eleven miles from Charlottetown, hanged himself to a tree on Wednesday last. He had a wife and five children and is said to have been more than ordinarily well to do. For some time past he has been imagining that his cattle were going to starve, and his family perish with cold. Hence the supposed cause of the deed. This mad and unnatural crime seems to be becoming fearfully prevalent of late.—Arg.

A Boston despatch to the St. John Telegraph says:—"It was said, some days ago, that the British Minister, Sir Edward Thornton, had received instructions to settle the complications arising out of the seizure of a number of American fishing vessels by the Dominion authorities.

"There seems to be a prospect now, that this question will soon be disposed of, and will not enter into Gen. Schenck's instructions.

It is understood that Minister Thornton has already taken initiatory steps for drawing up a new treaty between his Government and the United States to settle this matter if possible.

THE TYNE CREW TO ROW AT HALIFAX — A few days ago the Secretary of the Royal Halifax Yacht Club received a letter from Mr. Renforth, the Captain of the Tyne crew, stating that he would enter "a crew" for the proposed races on our harbor next summer. The Secretary, when he forwarded the programme to Mr. Renforth, doubtless supposed that the Tyne Crew were still holding together, and that a letter to Mr. R. would reach all of them. It subsequently transpired, however that Renforth had quarreled with the others and left them. The Newcastle, "Daily Chronicle" of the 3rd instant contains the following:—"We have received the subjoined letter for insertion from James Taylor. That oarsman informs us that himself, Winship and Martin, still 'row in the same boat,' and that in the reconstructed crew, Winship will take the vacant stroke seat, while another man will be put in his place amidships:—To the Editor of the Daily Chronicle.—

Sir,—I see by your paper of the 1st December that the Tyne crew is invited to take part in the forthcoming regatta at Halifax, Nova Scotia, and it is intended to enter some other crew. I think it my duty to inform the public that the Tyne crew still exist (at least three of of them stick together), and that they intend to take part against all comers at the proposed regatta.

I am, yours respectfully.
JAMES TAYLOR,
For Tyne Crew.

LATE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

London Dec. 28.—Count Bismarck has refused Jules Favre a safe-conduct to attend the peace Congress to be held in London next month. The bombardment of Paris opened on Tuesday last at sunrise. It continued throughout the whole day and was directed at Fort Avron. The largest mortars were used, and an immense number of huge shells were thrown into the fort from the Saxon batteries. The fort replied all day long. The bombardment is expected to become general on to-day, Wednesday when it is anticipated there the city itself will be reached and shelled.—A despatch from Versailles states that great activity prevails among the German troops throughout the whole investing lines.—It is generally conceded that the bombardment of Paris has begun in right good earnest.

London, Dec. 29.—Earl Granville has received a despatch from the Prussian Government apologizing for the outrage on English vessels in the Seine, and stating that pecuniary indemnity, will be given if demanded, and announcing that the military commander guilty of the outrage had been court-martialed and dismissed the service. The Prussians on Wednesday occupied a line between Duchair and St. Pear, and were apparently concentrating behind the town of Balbec, where an engagement is imminent.

Ottawa, Dec. 29.—Vancouver Island papers to the 9th inst., show that the members of the new Council are all in favor of Confederation, but differing about details. The location of the terminus of the Pacific Railway excites great discussion. There is a mainland party, and another party wanting the Road to cross Vancouver's Island with the terminus there; the question to be decided before Union is officially agreed to.

They also require that terms of Electoral Franchise be fixed in the Union Act, or else the Colony left free to regulate its own franchise. A strong party want the Customs Tariff different from that of the Dominion of Canada, and giving more protection to agricultural interests. These points may delay the ratification of the Union agreement.

London, Dec. 31.—The intensely cold weather causes fearful mortality among the German wounded. Nearly all the occupants of fifty-six carriages filled with soldiers wounded at the assault on Belfort, on the 21st of December, were frozen to death before the trains reached Chatenuis.

Another unsuccessful attempt has been made on the fortifications of Belfort, in which the German besiegers lost 1400 killed and wounded.

The Germans captured and sunk another English collier at Rouen.

SPECIAL TELEGRAMS

TO THE

Charlottetown Associated Press.

SACKVILLE, Jan. 3, 1871.—Gen. Prim died at 9 o'clock last night. His death produced profound sensation—grief everywhere; great indignation felt against assassin.

Republican militia of Madrid have been disarmed.

The British Government has ordered no more fishermen to be seized by Canadian authorities. Ordered agent to proceed to Washington to settle difficulties.

A later despatch says that the Conference on the Black Sea Question has only been postponed a few days. Bismarck allows Favre to attend Conference.—Victor Emmanuel entered Rome on Saturday last, with enthusiastic reception. The day before, King Amadeus reached Carthagena.

SACKVILLE, Jan. 5, 1871.

LONDON, Jan. 3.—Forts around Paris remain sited. Intense cold continues. Troops are concentrating in south-western Russia.

The Marquis of Huntingdon has been appointed Chief Secretary for Ireland. Mr. Fortescue President Board of Trade. Report that Commissioner had been sent to the United States to settle disputes about fisheries, is untrue.

The Prussian Government explains respecting the sinking of the British colliers on the Seine, by stating they were fired at to bring them to. The Sultan and Khedive again on angry terms.

The Austrian Field Marshall Mooring, died yesterday. Victor Emmanuel left Rome. A petition numerously signed at Greenwich, requesting Gladstone to resign, charging him with suicidal apathy amidst complications on European questions and aggressions of Prussia.

Severe engagement, in which the French were successful, preceded evacuation of town of Evray, by Germans. Reports German army of Loire retreated on Grien, apparently confirmed. Government at Bordeaux delegates Favre to represent France at Conference. It has been determined at Versailles to continue bombardment until peace declared or Paris capitulates. Markets.

New York, Jan. 3.—Gold 110 3-4.

SACKVILLE, Jan. 5. 1871.

London, Jan. 4.—Petitions calling upon Gladstone to resign have received many signatures. Multitudes of people attended the funeral of the late General Prim at Madrid. At Bordeaux, Gambetta spoke to 100 000 people and assured them the motto of the Republic was to fight it out to the bitter end. King William addressed the troops at Versailles on Sunday. Parisians weary of inaction, and urging Trochu to attempt another sortie. Lack of fuel and milk, and children are dying daily in Paris. A Versailles telegram of the 3rd says, bombardment of forts east of Paris continues. Such effect only fort Nugent—replies to German guns. Gen. Faidherbe sent a message to the Minister of War on the 3rd saying he fought a battle near Bassume, which lasted from eight in the morning until six in the evening on Monday, and drove the Prussians from their positions and villages occupied by them. The enemy's losses are enormous, and ours serious. King Amadeus made his first entry into Madrid on Monday last, and was received most enthusiastically by the people.

New York Jan. 4th.—Gold quiet.

Sackville, Jan. 6, 1871.—Certain Bankers in Berlin sentenced to long terms of imprisonment for subscribing to French loan.—Cardinal Antonelli received the Ambassador sent by Victor Emmanuel to announce his arrival in Rome.—Austria sends Count Syiossin, assistant, to her representative to the London Conference.—New General sent to command the French forces at Havre.—By the surrender at Mezieres 2000 prisoners, 106 guns and a large quantity of stores fell into the hands of the Germans.—Suffering from cold in Paris; great want of fuel. It is Decided to distribute food and establish supper-houses under the direction of the Government. The French Gen. Blaize died of his wounds. A Havre despatch says Gen. Faidherbe at Arras is making a movement on Manteuffel, probably with the intention of joining Bourbaki, who is on the road to Germany, to form junction with the army of the North. There are now in Havre 16,000 men; outside in the neighborhood of Balbec there are 2000 exclusive of regulars, Franc-Tireurs and cavalry.

SACKVILLE, Jan. 7. 1871.—Havre despatch says General Bourbaki marching on Germany, and Chausey at Lemars constantly pushing ahead troops in flying columns. 10,000 troops marching towards Paris, by way of Chartres. Garibaldi doing little at Dijon. Faidherbe at Arras preparing movement on Manteuffel, probably with intention of joining Bourbaki and form junction with army of North. Now that Bismarck has agreed to permit Favre to go to London, he says he will not leave Paris to attend conference.—Reports from Paris state serious quarrels exist between members of Government. Forward movements from Havre have begun; what result unknown.

Jan. 6 p. m.—Latest cable despatches up to last evening report great battle on left bank of Seine confirmed. Battle was fierce, and lasted several hours. As far as ascertained no decided results gained; loss of Prussians very heavy. French troops showed remarkable spirit and daring. Bombardment of southern forts of Paris commenced at 9 o'clock on Thursday morning.—Gold 110 1-2.

JOHN P. MOTT'S CHOCOLATE BROMA AND OTHER COCOA PREPARATIONS, APPROVED OF AND RECOMMENDED FOR MORE THAN A QUARTER OF A CENTURY BY THE MOST EMINENT PHYSICIANS OF BRITISH NORTH AMERICA.—To those who desire the best productions of Cocoa, free from deleterious substances unsurpassed in quality, and more nutritious than Tea or Coffee, the undersigned offers the above articles manufactured by himself. His Broma, owing to the peculiar process of manufacture, by which the oil of the nut is completely neutralized, while all its virtues are retained, affords, as well to the robust as to invalids, and to those whose digestion is impaired, a delicate and salutary beverage. That its value as an easily digested and highly nutritious article of diet is recognized by the highest medical practitioners in the Dominion, the following testimonials amply demonstrate.

JOHN P. MOTT.

Having tried the Broma made by Mr John P Mott, of Halifax, N. S, and having been made acquainted with its several ingredients, we are of opinion that it is a combination at once innocent and highly nutritious, not only to persons in health, but also to the weak and debilitated; and that, from the facility with which it may be prepared, and the salutary properties of its ingredients, it is a valuable compound, and we cheerfully recommend it to convalescents and all who require a mild and strengthening food.

BROADWAY,

And said that a nigger was as good as a white man. Pat, threw a rotten egg down his throat, and shouted,—

HURRAH! HURRAH! HURRAH! FOR BROADWAY!

"All Bunkum," or "No Bunkum," Bid, ask the Quane for what you want on her own strate; but hould your whist about

BROADWAY.

The cold, chilly winds of autumn have gradually and perceptibly, as the season advances, brought on the frosts and snows of grim King Winter, and favored Jack and Jill with their festive sports; and while nature is now busy weaving her white mantle to spread it again over the earth, may I take the opportunity of enquiring how you are off, gentlemen, for CLOTHING? Please examine your wardrobe, and if there are any garments required, walk into and get them. We can suit you to Overcoats, Jackets, Undercoats, Pants, and Vests, already made—made by ourselves—in the Latest

BROADWAY

BROADWAY

Styles, Cheap and Durable. You can also order whatever kind of garments you require from our Stock of Cloths and Trimmings, Unsurpassed; which we will make at short notice, in the most fashionable New York Styles, which

BROADWAY,

and only Broadway, know how to furnish. Gentlemen, you can have all these cheap at the New York Clothing Emporium, on
