HORSESHOEING.

HAVING secured the services of MR. WILLIAM TUCKER, a native of this Island, who has had nine years' experience as a Horse-shoer in the United States, I am prepared to supply a long-felt want in this line. Mr. Tucker has reduced horse-shoeing to a science, and is prepared to perform all classes of work in a common-sense and scientific manner. I need not inform the intelligent horseowner that the gait of the horse and condition of the feet must be understood to weight a horse properly and successfully operate thereon. Numerous patrons already admit the merits of the work performed, and recommend his system of shoeing.
Customers can always depend on prompt attention and entire satisfaction.

The Christmas Season

AT TRINITY CHURCH, GEORGETOWN.

The day was unusually wet, but warm, and the "Classic mud" deep on the streets. It was, however, saddened by the funeral of Mrs. Ezra Wickwire, who died suddenly on the 23rd December. Her demise will be greatly felt by all classes, and her presence especially missed in the sick-chambers.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, the natal day of our Blessed Savior was duly observed by the faithful of Trinity Church, services being held morning and evening. The usual tasteful decorations were to be seen adorning the walls and pillars of God's holy sanctuary, and arranged with artistic design. The windows and pillars were surrounded with beautiful wreaths of spruce. The prayer-stool, reading-desk, pulpit and chancel-rail were also embellished with spruce wreathing, while the motto, "Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ," surrounded the chancel window. The invitation "Come ye to Bethlehem," in white letters, with scarlet grounding and green spruce border, was erected above the altar. Other mottoes in scarlet and white, with green borders, such as "Ye, Lord, we greet Thee," "Hail Incarnate Deity," "The Herald angels sing, Jesus to Thee be glory given," were arranged around the walls of the church, presenting an appearance creditable to the good people of the congregation.

The Rev. Mr. Simpson, of St. Peter's Church, Charlottetown, preached an eloquent sermon on the 29th, and conducted a celebration of the Holy Communion on Thursday morning, with much acceptance.

School Examination.

The semi-annual examination of the "Thistle and Shamrock" school, No. 106, took place on the 29th ult., in the presence of the trustees, a number of the pupil's parents and other visitors. Of the sixty-seven pupils enrolled, forty-three were present that day. The subjects in which the pupils were examined, were Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English, Map-Drawing and Geography, and the way in which they answered the many and difficult questions put them showed a marked improvement in every subject, since the last examination, and reflected much credit upon themselves and their amiable teacher, Mr. James H. Monaghan, who, although yet young in the profession, has proved himself an excellent instructor.

The following is the result of the examinations held monthly during term.
Pupil having the highest general standing—Patrick Kelly.

Abion School Examination.

The semi-annual examination of this school took place in the school-room to-day, at 10 a. m. The teacher, by way of opening the examination, first read an interesting report of the school for the last half year, containing suggestions of improvements that would tend to assist the advancement of school-work in our school, and the result of the written examination in all the classes and grades, &c.; after which the pupils in the several classes were examined before the visitors, who were highly pleased with the work done, showing that Mr. Lavers is not satisfied with doing good work, but is ever trying to improve, in some way or other, on his good methods. This is the ninth semi-annual examination held by Mr. Lavers, in our school, and each one seems, from the experience of the visitors, to be more satisfactory. Judging from the appearance, it seems as though the most harmonious relation existed between the teacher and his pupils, for, after the examination was concluded, the teacher took from his desk a large package of assorted confectionery and distributed the contents among his scholars, wishing them a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, which was loudly and heartily responded to by the children. The school then closed for Christmas holidays.

The following is the result of the teacher's examination, as per Teachers' Register:—

Grade 1—1st, Wm. M. Moore; 2nd, Damairs Creed; 3rd, Geo. W. Kemp.
Grade 2—1st, Philip O'Connor; 2nd, Mary Thornton; 3rd, R. W. Young.
Grade 3—1st, Reuben A. Thornton; 2nd, Martha Moore; 3rd, Wm. J. Young.
Grade 4—1st, Augustus J. Donnelly; 2nd, Elizabeth O'Connor; 3rd, Nat. McKinnon.
Grade 5—1st, Edward R. Thornton; 2nd, Angus McKinnon; 3rd, Maria Creed.
Grade 6—1st, Hugh McKinnon; 2nd, Maggie Creed; 3rd, Ada McKinnon.
HENRY YOUNG,
Secretary of Trustees.
Albion, Lot 59, Dec. 24, 1886.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

SIR,—I understand that certain parties are endeavoring to induce the Government to withhold my salary as Inspector of Licenses for King's County, on the alleged grounds that I have neglected the duties of my office. I beg to tell those parties that I have already succeeded in placing in the hands of the Government, as fees for licenses, a sum almost equal to the amount of my yearly salary, and this, too, after being only five months in office.

I have inspected all the Licenses issued for King's County under the Scott Act, and if no prosecutions for violations of that Act have taken place in said County since I was appointed Inspector, the fault is not mine. Up to the present date no information against illicit liquor-sellers has been submitted to me; and as I am not one who considers it his duty to go into barrooms, call for liquor and drink it, in order to be able to prosecute the rumseller, I hold that I am not to blame if no prosecutions for some time back have taken place in this County. I have, however, not been idle; and am prepared at all times to receive any reliable information that may be offered, and shall act upon it promptly without fear or favor.

I cannot see why I should be singled out as the only Inspector on the Island who is not giving satisfaction. The Stipendiary of Charlottetown, aided by a large staff of police, is doing just now, it is true, some effective work in the city; but how many liquor sellers in the rural sections of Queen's County have been prosecuted lately. I have no desire to shirk my duty on the plea that matters are just as unsatisfactory in other parts of the Island as in King's County. On the contrary, I am most anxious to have the law carried out in its entirety; and to this end, I trust all true temperance men will give their assistance in the new year upon which we will soon enter.

Yours faithfully,
CHAS. W. VAN DERSTINE,
Inspector of Licenses, Morell, King's Co.

Who Lady Colin Campbell Is.

Some years ago a paragraph went the rounds of the press in this country intimating that the notorious Mrs. Woodhull became related by marriage to Queen Victoria. Who Mrs. Woodhull is or was we presume everybody knows. The publisher of the obscene sheet known as Woodhull & Cluffin's Weekly, the authoress of the evort-to-be-regretted Beecher-scandal story, the brazen-faced and money-making expounder of the doctrines of "free love," and the "affinity" of one Colonel Blood, her history was only too well known throughout the United States a few years since. Having made money on Wall street, the Lord only knows how, she betook herself to England, taking Colonel Blood and their children along. How she wormed herself into notice there, we are not informed. Her eldest daughter, an exceedingly beautiful girl, attracted attention, and meeting Campbell at a party, soon after married him, despite the most urgent and determined objections of his father and relatives. The beauty of the girl and the wiles of the mother we may well believe combined to effect the contract. It was given in evidence the other day that the young sprig of nobility told his mother-in-law prior to marriage of his ill-health, but she replied "that will not matter, as my daughter will be happy if she is only permitted to be your nurse." With that understanding the marriage took place, and under the circumstance, it would have been a marvel if it had turned out other than it has. Lord Colin Campbell is the youngest brother of the Marquis of Lorne, who married the Princess Louise, and that is how it came that the Woodhull woman boasted of being "related by marriage to Queen Victoria."—San Francisco News Letter.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little shrub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gum, allays all pain, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for the fever, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.
