THE FIREWOOD SLEIGH.

In life there is many a treasure
That mortals are prone to display;
But few seem to doat with much pleasure]
On the honest Old Firewood Sleigh
How shameful it should be so slighted,
And left without honor or praise,
When for strength and convenience wanted
'Tis surely the monarch of Sleighs.
Oh, what are the painted and cushion'd
Unsociable Cabs of the day,
Compared with a jolly old fashion'd
Commodious Firewood Sleigh.
Oh; grant me a pony to ramble
And a fair one to sit by my side,
Then over the snow banks to gambol,
Wrapt in a wild Buffalo's hide.
And Oh; for a moonlight excursion,
With friends, on a bundle of hay,
How glorious the fun and diversion
Of a drive on the Firewood Sleigh
But the breezes of April are blowing,
And the pleasures of winter decay;
The snow is all melting and going,
Farewell to the Firewood Sleigh. R. B.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE ICE CROP.—Ice-cutting operations in this vicinity have been discontinued for the season. The result is stated to be, that not more than from one-third to one-half a crop has been housed, and that portion secured is generally of an inferior quality—lacking in thickness and solidity, and is consequently more perishable. Last year, the aggregate crop housed by the New-York Ice Companies somewhat exceeded 200,000 tons. This year, it will fall short of 100,000, which is the smallest for many years. The concern most largely engaged in the business, the Knickerbocker Ice Co., has secured this season, only about 25,000 tons against 100,000 last year. There is a proportionate falling off in other places. Baltimore has failed altogether, and Philadelphia is little better. In Boston, where there is usually an abundant supply for all purposes, the crop is decidedly short. We understand that the prices of ice next summer will be nearly double what they were last, or at least one-third larger; for instance, a large majority of families ordinarily receive ice at the rate of 25 cents per week; for the same quantity it is supposed about 37½ cents will be charged, insomuch as, while the supply is diminished, a largely increased demand is anticipated.—New York Tribune.

MCGLASHEN'S PATENT TRANSPLANTING APPARATUS.—The transplanting machine of Mr. McGlashen of Edinburgh, now well known to practical men in the east country, and for which he has received a first-class certificate of merit from the Caledonian Horticultural Society, was tested on the grounds of Mr. Campbell of Blythswood, in presence of a large party of ladies and gentlemen, and practical men. Mr. McGlashen having everything in readiness to proceed with the operation, a fine laurel, the branches of which were twelve feet in diameter, was raised with the ball of the earth, five feet seven inches square, and three feet deep, attached and placed on a truck for removal in less than a quarter of an hour. The laurel, with the soil adhering to the root, was calculated to be between four and five tons in weight. The raising of the shrub vertically from its bed was accomplished with the greatest ease by the action of a screw turned by two men. The success of the operation was deemed highly satisfactory, and must have been very gratifying to Mr. McGlashen, the inventor. The invention is applicable to all departments of gardening, and in its various forms can raise with the same facility the florist's flower and the largest tree.

THE BOOMERANG SCREW.—In outline, the Boomerang screw resembles the curious instrument after which it is named, but its sweep is like that of a bird's wing, though there is no taper towards the end, the breadth being nearly uniform. The advantages claimed for it are, a largly increased propelling power, and a freedom from any "choke" of water after leaving the fan, while its weight is very much less than that of propellers of like power now in use. These, of course, are great desiderata, especially in long voyages. To test the capabilities of the "Boomerang," the Genova, an iron-steamer, has been fitted up by Messrs. James Taylor and Co., Britannia iron works, Cathcart-street, Birkenhead. The Water Witch, another iron steamer, which has been lengthened some 45 feet, by the same firm, and supplied with engines of greater power, is also to be propelled on the same principle; but, in this instance, an important improvement is introduced. The shaft and fan extend beyond the rudder, so that, if any accident should happen either to the screw or machinery, the fan can be readily detached and hauled upon deck, in anything like moderate weather, and the vessel can proceed on her voyage under sail. As an evidence of the estimate of Sir Thomas Mitchell's patent, the government has, we understand, ordered the construction of an iron steamer upon that principle by Messrs. James Taylor and Co.

ARISTOCRACY.—It is related of Antæus, who aspired to wrestle with the gods, that, if they could by any means induce him to leave his "mater terra" and grapple in with them, they found little difficulty in worsting him, but so long as he could keep his foot firmly planted upon his native soil, he was more than a match for them.

When men outgrow their position and aim to live removed from the cares and duties of life, they, like Antæus, lose their footing and fall. In order to battle successfully, we should never forsake our sphere. Thousands are kept poor by aping the notions and customs of the rich, and thousands who are rich become poor, because they are too proud to use the same efforts to keep, that it required to accumulate.

Never Failing Remedy!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A CRIPPLE SETS ASIDE HIS CRUTCHES AFTER TEN YEARS SUFFERING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thompson, Chemist, Liverpool, dated August 20, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I am enabled to furnish you with a most extraordinary cure effected by your invaluable Ointment and Pills which has astonished every person acquainted with the sufferer. About 10 years ago, Mr. W. Cummins, of Saltney Street, in this town, was thrown from his horse, whereby he received very serious injuries; he had the best medical advice at the time, and was afterwards an inmate of different infirmaries, yet he grew worse, and at length a malignant running ulcer settled in his hip, which so completely crippled him, that he could not move without crutches for nearly 10 years; recently he began to use your Ointment and Pills, which have now healed the wound, strengthened his limb, and enabled him to dispense with his crutches, so that he can walk with the greatest ease, and with renewed health and vigor. (Signed) J. THOMPSON.

A MOST EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A DREADFUL SKIN DISEASE, WHEN ALL MEDICAL AID HAD FAILED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Hird, Draper, of Keady, near Gainsbro', dated March 1st, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR—Some time since, one of my children was afflicted with dreadful eruptions over the body and limbs. I obtained the advice of several eminent Surgeons and Physicians, by all of whom the case was considered hopeless. At length I tried your Ointment and Pills, and without exaggeration, the effect was miraculous, for by persevering in their use, all the eruptions quickly disappeared, and the child was restored to perfect health.

I previously lost a child from a similar complaint, and I firmly believe, had I in her case adopted your medicines, she would have been saved also. I shall be happy to testify the truth of this to any enquirer.

(Signed) J. HIRD, Draper.

ANOTHER SURPRISING CURE OF ULCERATED BAD LEGS, DEBILITY, AND GENERAL ILL HEALTH.

Copy of a Letter, from Mr. J. M. Clennell, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, dated September 20th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I am authorised by Mrs. Gibbon, of 31, Bailey Street, in this town, to inform you, that for a considerable period she had been a sufferer from debility, and general ill health, accompanied by a disordered stomach, and great derangement of the system. In addition to this, she was terribly afflicted with ulcerated wounds, or running sores, in both her legs, so that she was totally incapable of doing her usual work. In this distressing condition she adopted the use of your Pills and Ointment, and she states that in a wonderful short time, they effected a perfect cure of her legs, and restored her constitution to health and strength; and that she is now enabled to walk about with ease and comfort. Several other persons in this neighbourhood have also received extraordinary benefit from the use of your invaluable medicines.

I remain dear Sir, yours faithfully,
(Signed) JOHN MORTON CLENNELL.

CERTAIN REMEDY FOR SCORBUTIC HUMOURS—AND AN ASTONISHING CURE OF AN OLD LADY SEVENTY YEARS OF AGE OF A BAD LEG.

Copy of a Letter from Messrs. Walker and Co., Chemists, Bath.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—Among the numerous cures effected by the use of your valuable medicines in this neighbourhood, we may mention that of an old lady living in the Village of Preston, about five miles from this City. She had ulcerated wounds in her leg for many years, and latterly they increased to such an alarming extent as to defy all the usual remedies; her health rapidly giving way under the suffering she endured. In this distressing condition she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and by the assistance of her friends, was enabled to persevere in their use, until she received a perfect cure. We have ourselves been greatly astonished at the effect upon so old a person, she being above 70 years of age. We shall be happy to satisfy any enquiries as to the authenticity of this really wonderful case, either personally or by letter.

A private in the Bath Police Force, also, has been perfectly cured of an old scorbutic affection in the face, after all other means had failed. He states that it is entirely by the use of your Ointment, and speaks loudly in its praise. We remain, Dear Sir,

Your's faithfully,
(Signed) WALKER & Co.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:—
