SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

NOVA SCOTIA'S EXHIBITION.

Over Ten Thousand in Attendance Yesterday.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Delivers An Address This Afternoon.

HALIFAX, Sept. 30.—Over ten thousand people attended the exhibition yesterday. It is beyond doubt the greatest show that has ever been held in the Maritime Provinces and is likely to be surpassed by only one in Canada. Sir Wilfrid Laurier arrived this morning and delivered an address at the exhibition this afternoon.

Hon. Mr. Mills Accepts.

OTTAWA, Sept. 30.—It is learned on good authority that Hon. David Mills has accepted the portfolio of Justice and will be sworn in when Sir Oliver Mowat assumes the duties of the Lieutenant Governorship of Ontario.

Sir Louis Davies Decides.

OTTAWA, Sept. 30.—Sir Louis Davies has decided not to make any special appointments for the gathering of the fishing bounty claims and the paying out of the bounty. Hereafter the minister will require the officers of the department to do this work.

To comprehend the beauty and novelty of the display, you must recall the commonplace styles of five or six years ago. Designers and manufacturers have been on the alert to catch every new idea and turn it to the betterment of the stock. This season the assortment is prodigious. So many charming styles everybody is bound to be well pleased. Never in the history of dry goods retailing have quantities so vast been brought to the retail purchaser. It will pay you to come if only to see the great bulk. Especially one 48 inch costume cloth, we might say worth in the usual way 65c. Paton's price, 40c.

ORANGE BLOSSOMS.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place on Tuesday last, when Miss Lucinda M. Haley, youngest daughter of Mrs. John Haley, Waterside, and Mr. John J. McGillivray, of Seal River, were united in marriage. The interesting ceremony was performed in St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River, by the Rev. Dr. Doyle, assisted by Rev. Father Cullen, of Boston, at eight o'clock in the morning. Miss Nellie McGillivray, sister of the groom, was the bridesmaid, and the groom was supported by Mr. F. Malachi Walsh, nephew of the bride. The bride's dress was of pale grey, with hat and gloves of white. Miss Mary O'Neill presided at the organ during the nuptial mass, and her rendering of the wedding march was excellent.

The dinner was private, only a few friends of the contracting parties being present. A reception was held at the residence of the bride's mother from two till five o'clock. Later in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. McGillivray, accompanied by a few friends, drove to Seal River, their future home. As the happy couple drove off a veritable deluge of rice and crushed flowers seasoned with many good wishes, greeted them.

The great popularity of the contracting parties was evidenced by the many beautiful and expensive wedding offerings received by the bride. To Mr. and Mrs. McGillivray THE EXAMINER wishes a long, prosperous and happy future.

St. Mary's Church, Summerside, was on Tuesday morning, the scene of an auspicious event—the marriage of Miss Dorothy Lefurgey, of that town, to Mr. Horace G. Roberts, of Davenport, Iowa. The church was artistically and beautifully decorated with natural flowers, evergreens and mountain ash berries, and presented a charming appearance.

The marriage ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate members and relatives of the Lefurgey family, and the following, who have been guests of Mrs. Lefurgey for some days past—Mrs. Roberts, mother of the groom, Mrs. E. E. Sheppard and Miss Hazel Sheppard, of Toronto, Miss Ackerman, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mr. Edward C. Roberts, brother of the groom. The body of the church was filled with invited friends of the family.

The bride, bridesmaid and maid of honor were very prettily robed in white, and carried handsome bouquets. The officiating clergyman was Rev. T. B. Reagh, Rector of Milton, who was assisted by Rev. C. W. Wiggins, B. A., Sackville. The choral portion of the service, with Mrs. W. B. Mills presiding at the organ, was specially fine.

After the ceremony the bridal party returned to the residence of Mrs. Lefurgey, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was partaken of. Then they repaired to the steamer Northumberland, which was gaily decked with bunting, and where a large number had assembled to say good bye to the newly wedded pair as they set out on their bridal tour. The Summerside Cornet Band were on the wharf, and gave several excellent selections, and there was rice throwing, hand-shaking and congratulations in abundance.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts go west for a short trip, and then go to Germany, taking up their abode for a year or two at Leipzig, where they will continue their studies in the fine arts.

The wedding presents were very numerous and costly. The bride is popular with all who know her, and her departure leaves a blank, which cannot easily be filled, in the social circle. She was also a favorite elocutionist, and was always ready and willing to apply her talents to help along any good cause. The groom is very popular in his western home, and during his short stay in Summerside he has made many friends. With all the wide circle of relatives and friends of the happy pair, we join in extending to Mr. and Mrs. Roberts our heartiest congratulations and best wishes.

Mr. Wilbur Warren Dewing, of New York, and Miss Nettie Anne Van Iderstine were united in marriage Monday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Van Iderstine of Chapman avenue, Rev. Carey W. Chamberlain, of the Dorchester Baptist temple being the officiating clergyman. The ceremony took place at 4 o'clock, and was witnessed by only the immediate friends and families of the contracting parties. The best man was Mr. Harry Blanchard, of Norfolk Downs, and the bridesmaid was Miss Ethel Van Iderstine, sister of the bride. The bride was attired in an elegant travelling suit of brown broadcloth, trimmed with buff broadcloth, and carried a handsome bouquet of roses. Immediately after the ceremony, the young couple took a train for the west. After the honeymoon they will be at home to their friends at 189 West One Hundredth street, New York city. Mr. Dewing is a native of Needham, and was well-known in Boston business circles, where he was exceedingly popular. In Dorchester, Miss Van Iderstine was associated with many young folks' societies, and was particularly interested in temperance work, and her friends were legion. The costly and elegant array of presents from admiring friends bore ample proof of the popularity of the young couple. In the evening the parental home on Chapman avenue was brilliantly illuminated, and the older acquaintances of the bride, and her parents were invited to spend a social hour. Quite a number were present, and Mr. and Mrs. Van Iderstine entertained them royally, a fine collation being served and each being favored with a piece of the bride's wedding cakes. The wee sma' hours had approached before the festivities were brought to a close, and the kindest expressions of good feeling for and success to the newly married couple were left behind on their departure.—Dorchester Beacon. [The Van Iderstines referred to in the above extract are lately from Vernon River, in this province.]

A NEW TYPE OF STEAM FIRE ENGINE

The old fashioned manual fire engine is being rapidly superseded in provincial towns and country districts in England by steam worked machines, which are more powerful, less costly to work, and are now made quite as light in weight as their predecessors in this class of apparatus. A new pattern steam fire engine, which was brought out last year at the London Fire Tournament, has been found especially suitable for the country and would be very useful for service in Colonial towns and districts. This machine is the invention of Messrs Merryweather and is named the "Gem." It has a unique combination of advantages in having the fire door at rear, double cylinders and pumps placed vertically in front. It is made in sizes to throw from 200 to 500 gallons per minute, and although only introduced a year ago has already been adopted by Hiramcombe, Exeter, Teignmouth, Bridlington, East Ham, Ashford, Alderley Edge, Twickenham, Tettenhall, and other English towns, and has also been made for several South American and Indian Fire Brigades with special fittings to stand hot and damp climates.

Dress Goods—Judge a store by its black dress goods, then you'll judge us right. We are very strong in dress goods of all kinds. Black dress goods have a special position. Prices are reasonably low. Fine black dress goods figured at 35c, 38c, 45c, 55c, 65c, 75c, 85c and $1. Extra fine grades up to $1.30. See our 50c cashmere; worth 75c elsewhere.—Jas. Paton & Co.
