Briton Sees UN Drifting To Impotence

UNITED NATIONS (CP) Lord Caradon, in his maiden speech before the General Assembly has warned the United Nations is drifting in frustration and impotence and is in danger of sinking altogether.

The British minister of state for foreign affairs—first man of cabinet rank to head Britain's permanent UN delegation—called on the Soviet Union to "give the lead" in finding a way out of the present impasse over peace-keeping finances. "I cannot imagine any action which would rightly win greater prestige than such a gesture from the Soviet Union now," he said.
