NOW IN ENGLAND—Charlottetown friends will be interested to learn of the continued success of Mr. David M. Legate who was mentioned in a recent article in "The Montreal Star." "Week-end Magazine" representative in England, Mr. Legate, who retells the "Glastonberry Legend" in this week's issue, is a man whose life and career have taken him half way around the world. Born in New South Wales, Australia, the son of the late Dr. R. M. Legate, former minister of the Kirk of St. James, and Mrs. Legate, he was educated in Queensland, the Fiji Islands, Northern Ireland, and in the Maritimes. He graduated from McGill University with honors in economics and philosophy. His travels began again when he was sent to London, England, for "Week End Magazine" last May. Friends will recall that Mr. Legate and his wife visited in Charlottetown some time ago.

It was also a welcome party for Mr. K. R. Elliott, newly appointed manager of the Charlottetown Branch, and Mrs. Elliott. There was a short musical programme, followed by square and modern dancing. During the evening, Mr. E. A. House, on behalf of the staff, presented Mr. Robinson with two large Island scenes. Delicious refreshments were served. Music was provided by Robinson and Hobbs' orchestra.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Earl S. Reeves, Summerside, who passed away April 5th, 1951.

As time goes on I miss you more. I little knew when I awoke The sorrow that the day would bring.
The blow was hard, the shock severe To part with one I loved so dear.
Fondly Remembered by His Loving Wife.
