A WINNIPEG despatch says that gold in paying quantities has been discovered at Battle River.

ABOUT twenty sail of schooners entered the harbor this forenoon, the majority of these are in ballast, and come for cargoes of produce.

ONE case for trial before the Stipendiary Magistrate this forenoon. A woman, resident of Great George Street, was fined 50 cents for calling another—well, something unbecoming.

A DESTITUTE old man, desiring to die, went into a lonely wood near London, Ont., and lay down to starve. He was found almost dead, having lain there five days without food.

ONLY A FEW DAYS MORE!—Landis & Gatchell, Silk Hatters, will remain here but a few days longer. If you have an old Silk Hat you want made as good as new, bring it in this week.

WE would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of McCormack & May in to-day's issue. It should have appeared before, but by an oversight it was omitted. Give them a call.

AN arrangement has been come to relative to the distribution of the administration of Egyptian affairs, by which the French Commissioner takes charge of the railways and ports, and Mr. Rivers-Wilson, for England, of the Ministry of Finance.

IN consequence of Wednesday being calm, the Regatta, which took place in Georgetown Harbor, was not as successful as it otherwise would have been. Some very lively rowing was witnessed, and a pleasant time was spent by those who were present.

THE arrival of potatoes by vehicle from the country districts was very large to-day. Not less than 2000 bushels could have been weighed at the City Scales alone. One of the chief buyers give us the following prices:—Roses, 40 cents per bushel; Whites, 35 cts., and Blues 32 cents.

WE have been creditably informed that on Wednesday last a large quantity of ripe raspberries were picked from bushes on the farm of Mrs. Lewis, of Point Pleasant, Royalty West. The raspberries were the second growth of the season, and are quite a phenomenon.

ON Monday evening, at Bridgetown, a mulatto girl, about 17 years of age, called Ann Thompson, was so dreadfully burned by her clothes taking fire while in a fit of epilepsy—to which she was subject—that she died in a few hours. She was alone in the house at the time.—Hc. Chronicle.

SHIPMENTS of potatoes to the United States have now fairly commenced. The first cargo shipped the present season was that of 2802 bushels, which was shipped at Crapaud for Boston, on the 15th inst., by Mr. John Hughes, of this city. The next was one of 2240 bushels, shipped by McDonald Bros., of Georgetown; and to-day Messrs. Carvell Bros. have cleared a cargo of 2400 bushels, for the same place.

FUNNY GRITS.—The Patriot republishes the speech of Mr. Horton, M. P. for Centre Huron, who has so disinterestedly (?) made way for "mixer and muddler" Cartwright. Among other extravagant things Mr. Horton says: "He did not believe that the party which has recently obtained power can retain it more than one session, if so long." We are afraid Mr. Pattulo, as a prophet, is at a discount.

TO-DAY a mad named John Coyle, Jr., made complaint at the Police Court against one James Goodman, who, he asserts, "assaulted him while walking with a young lady on the public streets." Goodman, it appeared, dealt Coyle a heavy blow, and he fell to the ground. The former then fell upon him, and, taking Coyle's nose between his teeth, almost severed a large portion of it from his face. A warrant was issued for Goodman's arrest. He will, no doubt, pay for practising cannibalism.

A YOUNG man named Frederick Music met with a very painful and serious accident while working in Mr. Lea's Factory to-day. At noon, shortly after the circular saw—which he was attending—started, his coat sleeve became caught by the teeth of the saw, and before he could discern what was the matter, the saw passed into his arm, cutting it in an upward direction to the elbow, inflicting a terrible gash, and almost severing it in two. He was immediately taken to a surgeon, who did all in his power to relieve the pain of the young man.

Lord Beaconsfield.

AN English correspondent writes: "I have it from an almost infallible source that Lord Beaconsfield is in a bad condition of health. He is said to be debilitated and in need of complete rest. My authority is so absolutely correct and cautious that I am disposed to think the case is worse than as represented; and that the strain and excitement of the past two years have tended to weaken a constitution which must necessarily be effected by age and by the loss of tissue consequent on an active and vigorous brain. His Lordship will either have to resign the helm to Lord Salisbury or must expect to suffer the worst of penalties to an active man, declining years darkened by an enfeebled body. It is thought that perhaps he will remain out the full term of this Parliament, and retire, whatever the issue, at the next general election. My impression is that the Premier will take the opinion of the country at no distant date; and that is more likely if, as it is said, there be dissensions within the Cabinet on the policy of the Government in India and Afghanistan."

THERE was a very full market to-day. Saleables were almost in excess of demand. Prices were as follows: Beef (small) from 5 to 12 cents per lb.; mutton, from 4 to 8 cents per lb.; lamb, from 4 to 8 cents per lb.; geese, from 30 to 50 cents; ducks, from 20 to 30 cents; chickens, from 25 to 45 cts. per pair; butter (fresh) from 20 to 24 cents lbs; butter (tub) from 16 to 20 cents; pork, carcass, from 4 to 5 cents per lb.; hay, from 40 to 50 cents per 100 lbs.; barley, from 65 to 70 cents per bushel; oats, from 30 to 32 cents per bush.

The People Want Proof.

There is no medicine prescribed by physicians, or sold by Druggists, that carries such evidence of its success and superior virtues as BOSCHER'S GERMAN SYRUP for severe Coughs, Colds settled on the breast, Consumption, or any disease of the Throat and Lungs. A proof of that fact is that any person afflicted, can get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try its superior effect before buying the regular size at 75 cents. It has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderful cures are astonishing everyone that use it. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sold by all Druggists on the Western Continent.
