IN MEMORIAM

DOYLE — In loving memory of our dear Father Philip Doyle who departed this life one year ago on July 7th, 1961, age 87.
Down memory lane
We take his hand
This tribute to him
He will understand

The days are long
The nights are drear
Dear Father we wish
That you were here.

We miss your voice
Your manner and smile
You were the one
Who made home worthwhile..

Long years you toiled
You did your best
May God grant you
Eternal rest.

Sadly missed by Family. Edward, Frank, Abram, Ambrose and Gertrude.

STEWART — In loving memory of a dear son and brother who was killed one year ago on July 8th, 1961.
One year has passed since that sad day
When God called one we loved away
Sweetest thoughts will always linger
Round the grave where Brenton lies.
Sadly missed by mom, Mrs. Harriet Stewart, Sisters Brenda and Margaret, Brothers, Don, Ivan.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank Dr. Laidlaw, nurses, friends and relatives, for all their kindness, visits, gifts, flowers, letters and cards, while a patient in P. E. I. Hospital.
Mildred Smith, Tryon.

The family of the late Maurice Doucette, St. Charles, wish to extend sincere thanks to Dr. Kassner, and nurses of Souris Hospital, to the Doctors, Sisters, and nurses of the Charlottetown Hospital, to Rev. Father Steele and Rev. Father Gallant, also all those who sent mass cards, floral tributes, cards and letters of sympathy and to the kind neighbours and friends who helped in any way during their recent bereavement.

OBITUARY

Inserted by friends and relatives as a tribute to the deceased.

LEIGH W. BARRETT
The death occurred at the P.E.I. Hospital, on Tuesday, May 8th, 1962, of Leigh W. Barrett of Kingston in his 68 year.

Although for a number of years he was in failing health, his sudden passing shocked and saddened his family and friends.

His kind and gentle disposition had won for him the very highest esteem and respect, from all who knew him.

Leigh, as he was well, and familiarly known was born in Kingston in 1895 a son of the late Robert, and Louisa (Bryenton) Barrett.

He will be remembered by the people of Kingston and surrounding districts, where he engaged in farming for most of his life, as a man who was always interested and cooperative, in the things that make for a better community.

He is survived by three brothers, Heber of Kingston, Dr. (Ray) Barrett of Charlottetown and Cecil of Kingston with whom he made his home.

The funeral was held from his late residence, to the United Church at Kingston, of which he was a member for many years. The service was conducted by Rev. I. L. Walls, Cornwall, who spoke words of comfort, consolation, and hope that is ours through faith in Christ. The hymns sung were, The Lord's My Shepherd and Safe in the Arms of Jesus.

Mrs. Sterling MacLeod rendered most beautifully a solo, "The Old Rugged Cross."

Pallbearers were Lorne Smith, Owen Younker, Tyron Holmes, Grant Willis, Leith Newson, Orman Yeo.

The many cards and floral tributes, expressions of concern and sympathy bore witness to the respect, and esteem in which the deceased was held.

OBITUARY

The family of the late Leigh W. Barrett wish to express sincere thanks to all the kind neighbors and friends, who helped in any way in their recent sad bereavement, and sent flowers, and messages of sympathy. They also wish to thank Dr. MacLeod and the staff, doctors and nurses of the P. E. I. Hospital.

OBITUARY

Inserted by friend sand relatives as a tribute to the deceased.

THOMAS LORNE CLOW
There passed away at the King's County Memorial Hospital, Montague, on Thursday, May 17th, 1962, Thomas Lorne Clow of Murray Harbour North, in his 64th year.

Son of the late David B. Clow and his wife, Isobel MacLeod, Tom was born in Murray Harbour North on May 22, 1898. In this community he spent his entire life. He chose farming as his occupation and in this work he found quiet contentment. Although his health had been somewhat impaired for many years, his sudden death came as a great shock to his family and neighbours.

He leaves to mourn his passing two brothers and one sister: Cameron, Murray Harbour North; Alexander, Cambridge; and Annie, (Mrs. Lloyd Buffler), Peter's Road. The sympathy of the community goes out to these loved ones in their sad bereavement.

The funeral was under the direction of the Murray River Funeral Home and was held from the Murray Harbour North Presbyterian Church on Saturday, May 19th, at 4 p.m. The service was conducted by his minister, Rev. M. Carl Currie. Taking his text from Job 19:25, "For I know that my Redeemer liveth," Mr. Currie spoke words of comfort and assurance to the sorrowing family and paid fitting tribute to the life of the departed. The congregational hymns were 'By Cool Siloam's Shady Rill', and 'Life's Railway to Heaven'. The solo, 'Good-Night and Good-Morning', was beautifully rendered by Mr. Malcolm Munro.

Pallbearers were William Dunn, Ernest Graham, Lowell Johnston, Eugene McCarthy, Albert MacLeod, and Glenn Millar. Flower bearers were Newton Hicken, Jamie MacLure, Leon Clow and Wendall Johnston.

The remains were tenderly laid to rest in the Murray Harbour North community cemetery.

"God calls our loved ones, but we lose not wholly What He has given:
They live on earth in thought and deed, as truly As in His heaven."

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Thomas L. Clow of Murray Harbour North wish to thank Doctors, and Nursas of Kings County Memorial Hospital, Rev. M. Carl Currie, the Murray River undertaker, friends and neighbors for their kindness, during the illness and death of Thomas L. Clow.

OBITUARY

ALBERT SEAMAN LING

A wide circle of friends and relatives were deeply saddened when news was circulated of the death on Saturday morning, January 20, 1962, of Mr. Albert Seaman Ling, of Brackley Beach. He had been in his usual fair state of health until a few days previously and had entered hospital less than two days before, so that death came very unexpectedly. The deceased was widely known, and the large number who came to pay their respects at his late home, the Funeral Home and the funeral, attested to the esteem in which he was held.

Albert was the second son of the late William and Hannah (Seaman) Ling, and owing to his father's death at a very early age, and as his only brother gave his life in the First World War he assumed when very young, the responsibility of the farm where he remained during his lifetime. In addition to his farm duties he also carried on a successful blacksmith practice.

He was a man of fine christian character, an obliging and kind neighbor and friend, always ready to lend a helping hand in time of need.

Left to cherish his memory and mourn his passing are his wife the former Jennie MacCallum, three sons and four daughters, ranging in ages from sixteen to

Sask. Doctors' Action Deplored By Montrealers

MONTREAL (CP) — A group of 24 Montrealers, most of them prominent in the professions, Wednesday sent a telegram to Dr. H. D. Dalgleish, president of the Saskatchewan College of Physicians and Surgeons, deploring "the irresponsible action" of striking Saskatchewan doctors and urging them to return to normal practice and to negotiate with the Saskatchewan government.

Meanwhile, Dr. H. S. Morton of Montreal, president of the Quebec Medical Association — Quebec division of the Canadian Medical Association — termed the Saskatchewan Medicare Act "complete civil conscription of the medical profession with respect to individual rights and freedom of practice."

CALLS PLAN 'EXTREME'

Dr. Morton said "no other plan this side of the Iron Curtain is as extreme as this one."

The telegram from the Montreal group to Dr. Dalgleish read:

"The current Saskatchewan crisis is of concern to all Canada. The undersigned deplore the attempt by an organized group to stand above the law. A conflict with the government does not absolve the doctors from the fulfillment of their professional responsibilities.

"The irresponsible action of Saskatchewan doctors with the danger of loss of innocent lives will seriously undermine public trust in the profession.

"In the name of humanity and of respect for democratic government the undersigned urge the immediate resumption of normal practice and peaceful negotiation with the government."

three years, namely, - David, Blaine, Hubert, Nancy, Linda, Brenda and Cynthia, all of whom he dearly loved. Also three sisters (Gertrude) Mrs. James Wares, Wheatley River, (Mina) Mrs. Alder Dickieson, New Glasgow, and (Emma) Mrs. Elvin MacLure, North Milton. Another dear son Horace met death in an accident on his way home from school in September 1958.

The very largely attended funeral was held on January 22nd from the MacLean Funeral Home to the Fairview Baptist Church of which he was a faithful member, and was conducted by his pastor Rev. T. W. Howard, assisted by Rev. Mr. Pierce. Hymns sung were "In The Sweet Bye and Bye" and "Peace Perfect Peace," and the choir rendered "Shall We Meet Beyond The River."

Pallbearers, all cousins, were Gordon Andrews, Leonard Ling, Lorne Seaman, Irving Neill, Preston Neill and Raymond Ling.

The floral offerings were very numerous and beautiful.

They are not dead who live in hearts they leave behind.
