(For Haszard's Gazette.)

Improbe amor, quid non mortalia pectora cogis ?

MR. EDITOR;

Sir,—The mania is so prevalent among the 'genus irritabile vatum' for manifesting their 'fine phrenzy' through the medium of the Press, that I shall offer no apology for favoring your readers, in the following lines, with a specimen of that important attribute of verse. I regret, however, that the effusion is not more 'finished;' that the fifth line, as you will observe, can be found verbatim in 'Thompson's Seasons;' and that there is an hiatus toward the conclusion, where it might seem that the fertility of the writer's genius, and the copiousness of his ideas,were becoming 'exhausted.' To many, however, its imperfections will not create surprise, when they perceive by the date that it was long ago compiled, from an original

MS.

TO MISS ———.

Can I forget thee ? Ask the midnight hour,
When all is silence round my lonely bed;
'Tis then for thee I tears of anguish pour,
And chase soft slumber from my aching head;
Or should exhausted nature sink to rest,
In dreams I see thy glowing form arise,—
But ere I strain thee to my panting breast,
The rapturous vision from my presence flies.

Can I forget thee ? Ask Aurora's hour;
Why shrink I then from Heaven's fostering ray,
And like a felon 'neath my sentence cower,
Oft as returns the brilliant beam of day ?
Ask, while each lovely flower erects its head,
To meet with fragrance sweet the rising morn,
Why the fresh tints, which once were mine, are fled,
And left alone, within my breast, the thorn ?

Can I forget thee ?—Ask the jovial hour,
When laughter rings around the festive board,
Why the full goblet charms my soul no more,—
Why the rich feast no pleasure can afford ?
Why from my cup, the sparkling mead I turn,
As the unwonted tear in sorrow flows ?—
Because for thee unheeded there I mourn,
'Mid reckless joys indulge my secret woes.

Stretch'd on the field, at ebb life's purple tide,—
At full the stream of dark unsparing death;
Thy pity 'd make his angry waves subside—
Thy name, Louise, would form my latest breath.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLANDERS IN AUSTRALIA.—Messrs. WALLACE MACKIESON and ROBERT HASZARD, who left Liverpool, England, on the 17th June last, in the ship Hibernia, 1500 tons, arrived at Melbourne, on the 5th Oct. Letters have been received from them both. They state that they had a long, but pleasant, passage of 104 days, that they were struck with the beautiful appearance of the Town of Melbourne, situated on the Yarra Yarra River, and of the surrounding country ; that Carpenters, Blacksmiths, &c. were getting from 15s. to 25s. per day, but every thing was extravagantly high in proportion ; that 200 vessels were lying in the harbour deserted by their crews ; and that, while on board the Hibernia, they went with a respectable company, bound for "the diggings" with whom they had joined, and were, when they wrote, on the point of setting out for Forest Creek, about 80 miles from Melbourne.

Mr. JOHN MACDONNELL, of Donaldston, who left Halifax in the Chebucto arrived in Melbourne on the 9th October.

Messrs. GEORGE OWEN and FREDERICK COMPTON, who went out in the Fanny to California, have also arrived in Australia.

Messrs. JAMES SIMS and BENJ. BELL, who left Boston for Melbourne, had also arrived at that place.

Heath Haviland, Esquire, will favor the Institute with the next lecture, on An outline of the early settlements of the English in North America.

☞ CONCERT.—It will be seen, by advertisement in another column, that the Charlottetown Brass Band will give another of their popular Concerts on Friday evening next. This Band have already earned an enviable popularity, and we have no doubt their character will be fully sustained on the present occasion. As a local corps, well advanced in the science of Music, we consider them a public acquisition; and we hope the public will afford that encouragement which their utility and talent undoubtedly demands. The performance will be conducted by Mr. R. Foster, whose ability is fully established; and, patronized as it is by one ever forward in aiding scientific improvement among us, we anticipate its drawing a large and fashionable audience.

Astonishing efficacy of the Oxygenated Bitters,

IN A CASE OF EIGHTEEN YEARS' STANDING.

From Fitzhenry Homer, Esq., of Boston, Mass.

Boston, September 28, 1848.

DEAR SIR—It is now eighteen years since I was first troubled with the water-brash and derangement of the stomach. I have taken advice of the best Physicians in this city and New York, in London, Paris, Germany, and Italy, followed their prescriptions, and visited the several sulphur and other springs in this country, the watering places of Germany, and elsewhere in Europe, and had found no relief. Since taking the Bitters I have never had a return of the Water-brash, which daily troubled me of late years to a very great degree. My appetite has returned; the extreme flatulence, severe constipation of the bowels, general debility, and sleepless nights under which I suffered, have entirely left me. Having found so great relief from this most discouraging disorder. I have recommended a trial of your medicine to many of my friends, who are now using it to great advantage. And I cannot refrain from writing to you in its favour and praise, for the good you have bestowed upon the community ; and trust that what little is in my scope to offer in extending the circulation of your "Oxygenated Bitters," will be done with grateful pleasure at all times.

Yours very respectfully,
FITZHENRY HOMER.

Improvement of HASZARD'S GAZETTE.

TWICE A WEEK ! IMPORTANT TO TOWN and COUNTRY SUBSCRIBERS

THE management of the Newspaper which, for the last 30 years, has been successfully conducted by J. D. HASZARD, Esq., is now transferred to the Subscriber, who will assume all the responsibilities thereof after the publication of the present number.

The circulation of Haszard's Gazette is, at present, and has always been, greater than that of any other newspaper in this Colony; and—availing himself of some of the greatest recent improvements which have been made in the art and machinery of the Printer,—its new proprietor and publisher hopes he shall be able still to secure for it the first place in the public estimation.

To this end, he has, at a considerable outlay, purchased a POWER PRESS; and, on his premises, made the alterations and additions which were requisite for its proper erection. About the beginning of February, he expects to have it in perfect working order; and—that being accomplished—he will, afterwards, issue Haszard's Gazette TWICE a week, of the same size as that in which it is at present published, and, to Subscribers, at the same price. The advantages which, from this LIBERAL ARRANGEMENT, will accrue to Subscribers and Advertisers, are so apparent, that they require no comment, and a due appreciation of it, by the public, will, it is hoped, appear in the increased patronage bestowed upon the Paper.

The Editorial Department will be entrusted to the management of a gentleman, whose ability and experience as a writer for the newspaper press, combined with the liberality and moderation of his political sentiments, are such as to afford a good guarantee for the future utility and popularity of the Paper.

By copious extracts from ENGLISH PAPERS ; by approved and well-written TALES; by articles on AGRICULTURE and GARDENING, so timed as to have direct relation to the immediate objects of the farmer's skill and labor; by MORAL and RELIGIOUS matter, free from sectarian bias; and by comprehensive notices of Social and Political Reformations, now happily in progress amongst all the civilized nations of the earth, there will always be manifest in the management of HASZARD'S GAZETTE, an earnest desire to provide valuable and acceptable instruction and entertainment for all classes amongst its readers.

And, further,—that the patrons of Haszard's Gazette may be duly apprised of all PUBLIC NOTICES proceeding from the Government,—they will regularly appear in it—gratuitously published—under one general head.

For the transmission of IMPORTANT NEWS, by means of the ELECTRIC TELEGRAPH, the subscriber has also made arrangements with CORRESPONDENTS in Halifax, St. John, and Boston.

COMMUNICATIONS directly bearing on the general interests and well-being of the community, will always be thankfully received.

GEORGE T. HASZARD.

WONDER OF THE WORLD.

Gravel Cured of five years standing.

Messrs. CURTIS & PERKINS, Bangor, Me.

Gentlemen,—I have been entirely cured of the Gravel, by the us of your Cramp and Pain Killer. I commenced taking the Cramp and Pain Killer in the Spring of 1847. I had been a great sufferer for ten years previous; some four or five years of the time I suffered beyond all my powers to describe.

During this time, I have had medical aid, and tried various spe- cifics, but found very little relief until I obtained your Cramp and Pain Killer. In one month after I commenced using it, I began to grow better. I continued to use it for a year, all the time improving until I was entirely cured. MILES STAPLES.

Prospect. Me., Jan. 29, 1851.

We, the undersigned, are well acquainted with the above case, and certify to the above statement of facts.

CHARLES CLIFFORD,
HANNAH CLIFFORD,
STANTON ELLIS.

Doctor Toby, a regular practising Physician, of East Machias, writes us under date of March20, 1847: "Please send me half a gallon of your Cramp and Pain Killer—it is the best medicine to cure what it is represented to, that I everused."

The Doctor first made use of it in his own case, for a severe sprain in the shoulder, caused by the upsetting of a stage, and found immediate relief, and has since used it in his practice.

Read the following. It speaks for itself.

RHEUMATISM CURED.

I certify, that I was afflicted with a violent Rheumatic pain in the small of my back, which entirely disabled me, so that I could not get up without the greatest pain and effort; nor could I walk without a cane, and but very little with. I applied Doctor Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, or Liquid Opodeldoc, and several other remedies, without any relief. After suffering in this way about a week, I purchased a bottle of Cramp and Pain Killer, prepared by CURTIS & PERKINS, Bangor, and after three applications was entirely relieved and free from pain, and am now entirely well. I also cured a friend of mine, who had been suffering for a long time with a lame side, with the same bottle. I believe it the best medicine in the world, and am happy to add my testimony in its favor

3. The North Britisl Review (Free Church).
4. The Westminster Review (Liberal).
5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory).

These Reprints have been in successful operation in this country for twenty years, and their circulation is constantly on the increase, notwithstanding the competition they encounter from American periodicals of a similar class, and from the numerous Eclectics and Magazines made up of selections from foreign periodicals. This fact shows clearly the high estimation in which they are held by the intelligent reading public, and affords a guarantee that they are established on a firm basis, and will be continued without interruption.

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and first appearing in its columns, both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel," (both by Bulwer), "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by Messrs. Scott and Co., so that Subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.
