

THE POPULAR CANDIDATES

KING'S: A. C. Macdonald. WEST QUEENS: Dr. Jenkins. EAST QUEENS: Alexander Martin. WEST PRINCE: Edward Hackett. EAST PRINCE: Richard Hunt.

"It seems to me you will clearly see, without persuasion, that the best interests of the Dominion are identified with the triumph of Conservative principles in the coming struggle. You will see that the policy of the party I have been called upon to lead has been marked by an abounding faith in Canada, and by a spirit of aggressive progress. We have pushed great enterprises to successful finish directly against the opposition of the men who now ask you to entrust them with the reins of Government. We have steadfastly striven to make Canada a united and prosperous country."—SIR CHARLES TUPPER.

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JUNE 3, 1896.

FINANCE MINISTER COMING. HON. MR. FOSTER, Finance Minister of Canada, will address a public meeting in Summerside, on Monday evening next.

AN ADMISION.

The Patriot in commenting on Sir Charles Tupper's visit and address in the rink says: "At the next election it will probably be the same old story, the failure of the railways and some new monster scheme held up to the wondering eyes of the electorate of P. E. Island."

This is a clear admission that in the opinion of the Patriot, the Liberal-Conservatives are going to be victorious at the coming election and will be on hand in five years time to grant more favors to Prince Edward Island. The Branch Railway will, by that time, we hope, be in full working order, and the present Liberal-Conservative Government will be in power to favorably consider any reasonable public work required in this Province. The Patriot, believing this, makes the above statement in order to draw votes from the Government candidates. But the effort will not succeed. The electors of the interested districts are determined to support the party that will give them their just rights.

THE DISTURBERS AT THE RINK.

We are glad to learn that the so-called men in the Liberal party in Charlottetown utterly repudiate and condemn the action of the few young men who in the rink on Monday night endeavored to interrupt Sir Charles Tupper in his address. We never thought that the leading men of the party would for a moment countenance the conduct of these inexperienced and irresponsible youths, and therefore are not surprised at their prompt and indignant repudiation. These young men, whose names are well known to the committee, would have shown good sense had they listened attentively to the discussion of the political questions of the day by Sir Charles Tupper. They, however, did not do so, and as a result they stand condemned by all right thinking men in their own party, as well as by the Conservatives. In fact, they are regular Ishmaelites as they deserve the opprobrium which they are unparagonably receiving. This should be a warning to them and teach them to behave themselves next time.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

The Liberal-Conservative meeting advertised to be held at Kensington on the 9th is cancelled. A good meeting was held at Tupper's on Monday evening. Mr. Yeo was followed by Mr. Moran, and Mr. Bell by Mr. D. B. McLeod. The meeting broke up at a late hour. The Opposition speakers complain about the free competition of Ontario. But they are quite willing that there should be added to that the free competition of the United States. Just think of it, far more!

St. John Sun: The division of duty in the Laurier-Mowat-McCarthy combination appears to be as follows: Sir Charles Tupper is the protector of Catholic separate schools in Ontario, appeals to the Roman Catholic voters. Dalton McCarthy is the Francophone objector to Catholic separate schools, appeals to the P. P. A. Protestant voters. Mr. Laurier appeals some to one element, and sometimes to the other, according to locality.

The Halifax Herald points out that of the 470 millions of people who comprise the civilized population of the world 340 millions have adopted and maintain protective tariffs. Within the last quarter of a century no portion of the civilized world has abandoned tariff protection; while several countries have adopted it, and a number of others have made their tariffs still more protective.

The hisses and counter cheers encountered by Sir Charles Tupper at the meeting in the rink proceeded from a small band of noisy and senseless youths who did their little best to bring discredit upon Charlottetown, but were not very successful. The sallies of Sir Charles proved that there was not much fun in it—for those who interrupted him. To these latter may be applied the words of Burke: "Because half a dozen grasshoppers under a fern make the field ring with their importunate chirp, whilst thousands of great cattle, repelled beneath the shadow of the British oak, chew the cud and are silent, pray do not imagine that the grasshoppers are the only inhabitants of the field; that, of course, they are many in number; or that, after all, they are other than the little, shrivelled, meagre, hopping, though loud and troublesome, insects of the hour."

SPLENDID MEETING AT KENSINGTON.

Very Able and Eloquent Speeches Delivered by Minister of Justice and Hon. Mr. Ferguson.

The exceptionally good order and intelligent interest exhibited at the meeting held at Kensington last evening reflects great credit upon that thriving town and upon the inhabitants of the surrounding country. No doubt this result was due, in part at least, to the good tact displayed by the chairman, John Anderson, Esq., President of the Liberal-Conservative Association of the district. Richard Hunt, Esq., whose popularity continues to grow, was the first speaker. He replied to the usual pre-election prophecies of the Opposition, which are now being made so freely, and argued that they would be covered by the usual results. He contrasted the significant prudence of Sir Oliver Mowat with the confident courage of Mr. Tupper, who had resigned his Premiership of the great province of Quebec, and is fighting the Opposition in their Quebec stronghold. He drew attention to the fact that in many constituencies the Liberal candidate have made way for the Liberal-Conservative, under their great Leader, present an unbroken front to the enemy with confidence and bravery. The chairman then read and presented to Hon. Mr. Dickey the following ADDRESS:

Hon. A. R. Dickey, Q. C., Minister of Justice. Sir,—On behalf of the Liberal-Conservative party of East Prince, we welcome you amongst us. Since your entry into public life we have watched your career closely, especially as following in the representation of the historic Cumberland County, after its long and successful representation by Sir Charles Tupper, Baronet, a man who has been for a long time a central figure in the political life of Canada, and who has filled the largest place in the public affairs of our Maritime Provinces.

Following in the footsteps of such a man it is natural for all to look for a worthy successor, and we can, with truth, say that no one more worthy could be found. Since your first appearance in Parliament you have steadily gained in the estimation of friends and foes. If purity of motive, honesty of purpose, commanding talent, and industry count in our national life, you should rise in our estimation as a fine roll by.

Apart from your advocacy of policies that to us as a party we consider in the best interests of the country, we have observed that in the advocacy of moral questions your influence has always been on the side of right. We need not refer to the great questions on which parties divide at the present time. Yet we cannot but admire your manly and straightforward stand on the great constitutional question that is now agitating our country. Our constitution being a written one, it is imperative that all compact and guarantees of Confederation should be observed in the spirit of them, and it is a matter of pride to us that you, at a great distance, have to yourself, no doubt, but put duty before party personal advantage, and staked your political fortunes to stand by our constitution.

In conclusion, again welcoming you to East Prince, we hope you may long be spared to represent us in the councils of our country. Yours very respectfully, G. W. BENTLEY, JOHN ANDERSON, NEIL McKEVIE, WILLIAM McNEILL SIMPSON, EDWIN PROCTOR, and others.

Hon. Mr. Dickey replied in a timely, reasoned speech, which was concluded in the choicest language and in many parts truly eloquent. He went to the bottom of the school question in Manitoba, traced a history, showed beyond the possibility of a doubt that a school, as a compact, had, in consideration, been entered into between the Dominion Government and the people of the province, securing to the minority the right and privilege of separate schools, and that the majority, as they have done, have not only failed to support the Government in their effort to remedy the grievance that had been created by the violation of the compact, but that the part of the Greenway Government. His argument was followed with the most intelligent interest, and the Minister of Justice was repeatedly applauded as he made good his argument, step by step and point by point. Towards the close of his admirable address he branched out into trade and other topics. He announced the fact that the Liberal-Conservative Party is the party of hope and faith in Canada, while the Liberal Party is the party of doubt and despair. He alluded to the Government policy in reference to the development of the country by the extension of railways, and said that, in accordance with that policy, the proposed branch railway of Prince Edward Island would be built. Preferential trade would, he pointed out, give a great advantage to the farmers of Canada in the sale of their products. The Liberal party had voted in Parliament against this policy. But the Liberal-Conservative proposals to adhere to it. If any man in Canada can obtain the loan, Sir Charles Tupper is that man, and his hands should be strengthened. He believed that the great heart of the country is with Sir Charles, who has a clear and definite policy, while the policy of the Liberal party has no definite policy, who promotes it continually differing in their statements the one from the other.

Hon. Mr. Ferguson then came forward and delivered one of those vigorous and convincing addresses for which he is celebrated throughout this province. He referred to the school question, and quoted with great effect the letter of a prominent resident of Portage la Prairie—a native of this province, well known here—showing a great change of opinion in Manitoba as to the school question and predicting the defeat of every Liberal candidate between Manitoba and the Northwest Territories. He dealt upon the trade question, the paramount question for the electors of Canada, and pointed out that the attitude of the Liberal party in respect to it was similar to that of the clown in the fable who, when he crossed to the other side of a river which he saw ran in the one direction laid down on his back and waited for it to run by. Hon. Mr. Ferguson also referred to the scandal charges, proving by reference to the records, if the election courts the records of the Provincial Governments that the Liberal Party was considerably deeper in the mud than the Liberal-Conservative.

of Justice to explain section 10 of the Remedial Bill. It had been stated that five heads of families could force a separate school upon a district. Was that true? Hon. Mr. Dickey said that the five heads of families could not control anybody but themselves. If five or more heads of families were to petition in accordance with their conscientious convictions they could under the Remedial Bill have a school for their own children. But their action would not bind the remaining heads of families in the district. Dr. H. Macneill, of Stanley, was then called upon, and delivered a short, eloquent, rousing speech, which was loudly applauded. Mr. J. A. McDonald, M. L. A., moved, seconded by Hon. Mr. Dickey, that a vote of thanks be given the Minister of Justice. The motion was enthusiastically received and passed, and appropriately acknowledged. Cheers were then given for the Queen, Mr. Hunt, Hon. Mr. Dickey and Hon. Mr. Ferguson.

SITUATION AT CREE.

The Disturbance Reopens the Whole Eastern Question in an Acute Form. LONDON, June 1.—The British consul at Crete, Crete, the scene of the serious fighting between the Christian and the Moslem, has telegraphed details of the trouble to the foreign office and confirming the worst accounts of the fighting in the streets. Though order has been temporarily restored, the people of the town and in the country round about are preparing for further trouble. The official Turkish communications affirming that there has been no rising, that probably nothing has happened beyond the street affray, and that all the excitement has subsided, do not tally with the measures being taken by the Porte for the hurried despatch of reinforcements to Crete from Salonica and Smyrna. It can be seen that though the Christian inhabitants of the island are not now in full revolt against their Turkish rulers, they are on the eve of an insurrection as great as that of 1870, when the Porte was forced to concede through Sukhkar Pasha, the then governor, a quasi autonomy, which was afterwards found to be unworkable. Since 1870, when the island was restored to the Turks, there has been in Crete a series of insurrections, all of which proved futile. No Christian means to gain, if possible, complete autonomy by a union with Greece, or having some European power establish a protectorate over them. At any rate they propose to overthrow the rule of Turkey. The disturbances reopen the whole eastern question in an acute form and the prospects of a peaceful settlement are very dim. The French press declares that British agents are supplying the insurgents with money and arms with a view to an ultimate British occupation of the island. The Speaker contends that their charges are absurd. It has a theory of its own regarding the troubles, which is that the Russian and French consuls fomented the disorders in order to bring about a French occupation of the island, which would be a step towards the union of the English and continental press show the depth of the jealousies which are interfering with the summoning of a European congress, which diplomatic circles were discussing as the only mode of solution that will prevent a European war. Unwilling as Prime Minister Salisbury may be to accede to the holding of a congress that would likely include Egypt in its decisions, the trend of events tends to make the conference inevitable. Great Britain would object to the cession of Crete to Greece, as the latter country is under Franco-Russian influence, and would prefer the granting of autonomy and the neutralization of the island under a European guarantee.

SITUATION IN ST. JOHN.

Independent Candidates Still in the Front. Hazen's Election Sure—A Suggestion From Dr. Pugsley's Friends.

St. John, June 3. The political situation here remains interesting. The independent ticket is still in the field, but some supporters of Dr. Pugsley are urging the Liberal-Conservatives to take him and retire Mr. Chesley. No attention will be paid to this suggestion. Mr. Hazen's election is certain. It is not believed that Dr. Pugsley can draw enough from the Conservatives to defeat Mr. Chesley and elect Mr. Ellis. It is still believed by many that Mayor Robertson will take the field.
