IN MEMORIAM

MRS. RACHAEL MacDONALD

At her home in Bradalbane on March 31st, 1950, there passed peacefully away Mrs. Rachael MacDonald, widow of the late Donald W. MacDonald who predeceased her by almost eight years.

She began regaining strength slowly for the past six months after having been in failing health for several years and confined to her bed for fourteen months. But on the above mentioned date she was stricken with a heart attack and was called to her final reward.

The late Mrs. MacDonald was born at Caledonia June 8th, 1863, daughter of the late Hugh MacPhee and Christie Nicholson, and the eldest of a family of seven; three sisters, Miss Margaret MacPhee, Bradalbane; Mrs. S. W. MacPherson, Glen Martin; Sarah who died in infancy, and three brothers: Ronald, Heatherdale; John H. Caledonia; Johnny killed during battle of Vimy Ridge.

In her early life she united with the Presbyterian Church, Valleyfield, and was a faithful and regular church attendant as long as health permitted.

On December 16th, 1906 she married Donald W. MacDonald and resided at Bradalbane where she was always very willing to help those in sickness or trouble.

Left to mourn besides the brothers and sisters are four sons and four daughters: Hugh, Charlottetown; John, St. Eleanors; Henry, Hamilton, Ont.; Alexander on the homestead; Catherine, Mrs. Thomas Peyton, Long Island, New York; Margaret, Mrs. Enoch Newson, Westmoreland; Annie, Mrs. Eldon Leard, Westmoreland; Florence at home. She also leaves eleven grandchildren.

The funeral service which was largely attended was held from her late residence and was conducted by Rev. J. A. MacGowan, assisted by Rev. B. W. MacPhail. Hymns sung were favorites of the deceased: "The Lord's My Shepherd", "Safe in the Arms of Jesus", "Forever With the Lord". The pallbearers were: Lorne Seaman, Bennett Delghan, Alex C. MacDonald, Kenneth Graham, Elmer Wigmore and James Snowie.

Interment in Bradalbane Cemetery.
