

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

APRIL 10 1888.

End of the Tragedy.

THERE is but one theme to-day—the consummation of the tragedy which began in John Tuplin's kitchen on a January night about fifteen months ago.

It is comforting to know—it will comfort the relatives and friends of the last victim to learn—that, however much he may have erred, he behaved at the last like a man—a firm, intrepid Christian man; and that his great and only regret, as expressed by himself to a clergyman who visited him a few days before the execution, was that he "carried so small a sheaf into Paradise."

City Council Meeting.

THE regular monthly meeting of the City Council was held last evening, His Worship Mayor Haviland presiding.

After the usual routine business had been disposed of—

The Clerk presented and read a copy of the estimates of the Fire Department for the ensuing year, which had been forwarded to the Council for their consideration, and also read a letter from a committee of wardens asking the Council to appoint a special committee of three to confer with them in reference to the providing of private rooms for the firemen in the new city building.

On motion the estimates were referred to the Finance Committee for their consideration, and a committee consisting of Messrs. Crabbe, Byrne and Horne were appointed to confer with the wardens' committee on the subject set forth in their letter.

The Clerk read a bill from James Egan for opening drains in the vicinity of Fitzroy and Cumberland Streets during the winter months, since 1872, at the rate of $3 per year.

On motion the bill was referred to the Finance Committee.

The Mayor presented a letter from Peters & Peters, on behalf of Wm. Harris, whose son had been injured by falling stones in the neighborhood of West Kent Street School in 1883, which stated that unless the Council take steps towards recompensing their client for the injuries his son had sustained, they would commence proceedings against the city at the next session of the Supreme Court.

On motion the letter was referred to the committee who have the Reid matter in hand, with instructions to report upon at an early date.

The Clerk read a petition from John Bolger, D. O. M. Reddin, L. M. Poole, J. T. Jenkins, W. E. Dawson and others, complaining about the defective state of the drainage on Water Street, in the neighborhood of the Railway Station, and asking that steps be at once taken to remedy the evil complained of.

On motion the petition was ordered to lie on the table till next meeting of Council. Councillor McRae seconded by Councillor Douse, moved that the services of H. B. Smith, as City Surveyor, be dispensed with.

A good deal of discussion ensued over the resolution, which was lost on a division of 6 to 4.

Councillor Crabbe gave notice that at the next meeting of Council he would introduce a by-law fixing the rate of assessment on real estate, personal property and poll tax; and also a by-law providing for a rate of discount on same. He moved that a special meeting to receive said by-laws be held on Monday evening next, 23rd inst.—Carried.

Councillor Davison, from the committee appointed to consider Park-keeper McQuillan's application for an increase of salary, presented a majority-report adverse to the petition, and moved that it be adopted. Councillor McCarron moved in amendment that the Park-keepers salary be $250 from and after the 1st May next.—Carried.

Councillor Douse drew the attention of the Board to the fact that he had been sued for horse tax, while the collector was owner, part owner or controlled a horse for which, according to the city report, taxes had not been paid. He also said that the books in the City Court were not audited as they should be, and suggested that the Collector be responsible for the collecting of Poll Tax. After some remarks upon the manner in which the market tolls were at present collected, he moved the following resolution which was seconded by Councillor Davison:—

Resolved, That tenders be called for up to Monday, 30th inst., for the leasing of the tolls in the Market House for one year.

After some discussion, Councillor Crabbe moved that Councillor Douse have leave to withdraw his motion.—Carried. Council adjourned.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Capital Punishment.

SIR.—The question is often asked, "Is the State justified in taking the life of a citizen?" To this question I think that the better class of men will answer that it is not; and what can be of greater injury to the State than to have the feelings of its best citizens hostile to the law.

Public feeling ought to be in unison with the law. Especially is this the case with criminal law, for when it is not the influence of example is lost. Men respect and obey the law while they consider it founded upon justice; when it exceeds justice, sympathy is excited towards the criminal. Will it be said security of human life depends upon capital punishment? If so, I think it very little to the credit of the large portion of mankind who live and die without committing murder.

No, the security of human life is not founded upon such a useless barbarity; it depends upon higher and nobler feelings; upon that veneration for life which a Supreme Being has planted in all mankind. Though several persons are publicly strangled every year in Canada, yet I do not think that crime is on the decrease. If anything, murders are on the increase. Therefore capital punishment is not a deterrent. It does not make men better. If we want to see a decrease in the number of murders in Canada, we must do everything to foster a reverence for human life, and that is what capital punishment does not do. Indeed it rather tends to take away all reverence for human life by imitating crime while it pretends to punish it.

Yours, &c., F. C. L.

What About the Doctors?

SIR.—A man or woman seeking the situation of teacher has to produce testimonials from our Board of Education. This is law, and 'tis well that it is so.

The law faculty compel every man "to toe the mark," or open an office at his peril. Strange, then, that the medical profession, which, humanly speaking, has human life in his hands, allows any man to assume its duties and responsibilities without demanding his legal right to do so. The wrong inflicted upon the public by this laxity is an unlawful one. Men who have failed even to matriculate, much less to graduate, settle down with the utmost coolness, and are base enough to accept, for the nonce, the time honored title of "Doctor." Heaven knows that in America it is too easy to creep into any profession, through it to certain channels, and the man who attends College and fails to graduate lays himself open to the suspicion of being below par morally and intellectually.

Our talented and honest young men who have graduated at first-class Colleges are thus cheated of their birthright and have no protection. I suggest, sir, that you open a column in THE EXAMINER, in which every medical man may vindicate his right to practice. This may seem, and, in the case of an honorable majority, no doubt is superfluous. But let our Taylors, McLeods, Warburtons, Conroys and others pocket their dignity for the nonce, so that the rest may follow suit, and thus by elimination enable us to spot the quacks.

Those whose claim to practise is doubtful—will, by their silence, condemn themselves. Let us know who have passed the entrance examination required and accepted in full by the Royal Colleges of the Mother Country, the term of preparatory study, number of sessions in college, and degree or degrees obtained and when. Fathers in the profession, come out, or the young ones will be slow. PRO BONO PUBLICO.

B. I. S.—The regular meeting of the Benevolent Irish Society will be held in their hall this (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock, F. Curran secy.

CONCERT.—Old Folks concert practice this evening at 7.30, all expected. Meeting at usual place.
