Alberton And Vicinity

Mr. Michael S. Gallant has joined the staff of Alberton branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, having been transferred here from Souris.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gallant, who recently sold their home in Alberton South to Mr. William Hutt, have taken up residence in Halifax.

Unfavorable ice and weather conditions forced the cancellation to a later date of the hockey game scheduled for last night between the Alberton Regals and the O'Leary Maroons to the great disappointment of hundreds of fans. Prospects for the ice carnival on Friday are not too bright with continued mild weather in prospect.

Second Guide Company Observes Thinking Day

Guide Thinking Day at Summerside was appropriately celebrated by the Second Company under Mrs. Wilfred Perry, captain, and Miss Patricia Watson as lieutenant when the commissioner, Mrs. T. L. Linkletter, enrolled three Guides with their second class badges. Those enrolled were Ann Roman, Marcia Arsenault and Marjorie Noonan while those receiving badges were Paula Perry, Betty Blaquiere, Doreen Perry, Patricia Grant and Ann Huestis. The color party consisted of Elsie Ann Arsenault, Katherine MacDonald and Rochelle Perry. An impressive campfire was held after the enrolling when the following program was carried out: Narrator - Walter Lewis; "Fire Burning" - in rounds; vocal solo - Betty Blaquiere; "Someone in the Kitchen with Dinah" - in rounds; horse race - Dorothy Perry; Reading - world friendship fund - Patricia Watson; presentation - world friendship fund - Norma Fitzpatrick; "In a Cottage in a Wood" - chorus; vocal duet - Peggy and Patty Grant; "All Through the Night" - chorus; "Mary Had a Little Lamb" - chorus; "We Are the Red Men" - chorus. This campfire was followed by a very impressive ceremony to a close.

patrol. He was struck by a mortar fragment and was captured. He was a prisoner for nearly a year until released in the exchange of wounded captives. The army said the award is in recognition of Dugal's "outstanding work" while a prisoner. The citation accompanying the award says: "Lt. Cpl. Dugal served with 1st Battalion, Royal 22nd Regiment, and during an action of June 23, 1952, was severely wounded and captured. During the period while he was a prisoner-of-war, and in particular while he was in the hospital, he resisted strongly the many attempts that were made on him in an effort to persuade him to divulge any information he may have possessed. He at all times displayed a genuine interest in the well-being of his comrades and kept a diary with complete information on other Canadian prisoners-of-war. This diary was preserved and was turned over after repatriation. The information recorded was completely accurate and was a great assistance in the planning of the interrogation of other repatriated prisoners-of-war. The initiative displayed by Lt. Cpl. Dugal and his general attitude and conduct are considered most worthy of recognition."

Let's Talk It Over

Rotary International has just celebrated a birthday. This great organization which devotes its energies to the common weal is well represented by an energetic local group in Summerside. Their contributions to our hospital, our high school, and to the sports activities of our youth are well known. Their institution of safety patrols at the High School and at St. Mary's Academy has been a particularly happy innovation.

This safety measure not only protects school children from passing traffic, but also teaches the patrols themselves, and the other children who must obey their signals, to be safety-conscious; a valuable training which may someday save their lives as they make their way through the maze of modern traffic conditions which tend to grow more hazardous as time marches, and the machines dash violently on. We know Rotary has had many happy returns of the day; returns born of the satisfaction of extending helping hands to the community in which they live.

The old story of killing the goose that laid the golden eggs is being acted out in Canada today. The farmer, instead of being protected as a primary producer upon whose prosperity depends the prosperity of the nation, is being exploited instead. He sees what he must buy to keep his farm functioning at an adequate level of proficiency commanding the same high, and sometimes low, prohibitive prices, while the products of his industry declines in market value. Even children can see how foolish the greedy old fellow was who killed such a valuable goose, but in the more complicated realm of a country's planned economy the foxy s'ems more difficult to comprehend.

St. F. X. Winners Of N. S. College Hoop Crown

NEW GLASGOW, (CP) - St. Francis Xavier University won the Nova Scotia intercollegiate basketball championship Wednesday night by defeating Acadia University 74-55.

Acadia took a 15-11 lead in the first period but St. F. X. were ahead 36-22 at the half and increased their margin in the last half. Richards was top man with St. F. X. with 21 points, and Clark led the Acadians with 12.

The following recruits were presented to Mrs. Linkletter by their patrol leaders for enrollment as tenderfoot guides: Betty Richards, Eleanor MacEwen, Janet Agnew, Gladys Bagnall, Barbara Rankin.

Second class badges were awarded to Carol Brooks and Norma MacKinnon.

Mrs. Linkletter complimented all recipients of awards on their accomplishment, the company in general on its smart appearance, and reminding the girls to be ever mindful of the world wide scope of guiding and the charge of each individual guide in the forward movement of guiding.

A letter from the Chief Commissioner of Canada, Estelle Wishart, was read by Mrs. Robinson. The meeting closed with the singing of "Bravo" complimenting recipients of awards, followed by taps.

Mrs. Charles Linkletter is captain of the First Summerside Company.

Nothing Deliberate He denied that United States policies had been adopted with the "deliberate intention" of creating tension between India and Pakistan.

"There are impressions existing that are unfair to the masses of the American people," he said, shaking his cigarette holder for emphasis. "I have contacts with many Americans. I am convinced the average American is not different from most Canadians. He wants peace, wants to rear his family under peaceful conditions. He goes along with leaders he trusts to give him those conditions."

Answering a question about the American attitude toward Prime Minister Nehru and India's attempts to maintain a neutral policy in world affairs, the Canadian leader said: "I do not think there is any impression in America that Nehru is unwise because of his high admiration of Nehru and what he is trying to do."

He rejected suggestions that U. S. aid to Pakistan would be aimed at India, saying: "I am certain that had there been the slightest suspicion it could be directed against India it would not have been approved. Not one per cent of the American people would so approve if aid were directed against India."

First S'side Guide Group Celebrates Thinking Day

The First Summerside Girl Guide Group celebrated "Thinking Day" at the joint birthdays of their founder, Lord Baden-Powell and their world Chief Guide Lady Baden-Powell with an enrollment and presentation of awards. In the roll call formations the Guides gave their usual collections, which instead of being turned into company funds was specifically delegated for the world friendship fund which helps to send guiding to all those girls who long to have the opportunity of joining in the world wide sisterhood. This contribution was presented to Mrs. T. L. Linkletter, district commissioner, later in the evening by Carol MacLean.

The Beesborough Shield competition, which is inter-company and provincial was discussed and duties assigned by Janet Horne, company leader who is supervising this project. This year it takes the form of sewing and knitting a baby's wardrobe to be later given where needed.

Norma MacKinnon, corresponding secretary, was instructed to send a note of congratulations to district commissioner, Eric Tanton, recent recipient of the Medal of Merit from the Canadian General Council of the Boy Scout Association.

After the Guides had marched into the horseshoe formation, the color guard, composed of Ruth Ramsay, Donna Bradshaw, and Joyce Burns marched on the colors.

A Thinking Day prayer was given by Helen Horne.

Mrs. Linkletter presented one-year service stars to June Ford, Roberta Clark, Mary Ann Lindsay, Cecelia Darcy, Margie MacDonald, Cavell Williams, Ann Hickey, Phyllis Ferrish and Carol Dunning and second year service stars to Betty Prichard, Louise Rayner, Glenda MacLean, Elisabeth Gallant, Ann Nicholson, Ann Jenkins, Margaret Coffin and Beverley MacKay; four-year service stars to MYRNA Hancock, Janet Horne; five-year service stars to Mrs. Arthur Robinson, lieutenant.

The following recruits were presented to Mrs. Linkletter by their patrol leaders for enrollment as tenderfoot guides: Betty Richards, Eleanor MacEwen, Janet Agnew, Gladys Bagnall, Barbara Rankin.

Canada's Reaction The Prime Minister was asked what Canada's reaction would be if India, in turn, should seek military assistance from Russia. "We would be very much concerned if there were an exchange of military aid between India and any nation we looked upon as a potential aggressor," he replied. "I would be very loath to think a great nation like India would think there might be a situation when India and Russia would be fighting together in some part of the world."

The Prime Minister said that in making an Indo-China cease-fire proposal, India "has done something that will have considerable influence." He personally thought it was practical and Canada "without any doubt" would endorse it. "Any public speech by Mr. Nehru must be listened to with attention throughout the world," he said.

Telephone Company Expansion Program In Summerside

Residents of certain areas in Summerside now on four party lines will be able to obtain either one or two party lines when an expansion program is completed by the Island Telephone Company in April.

Later in the year further expansion work should make one and two party lines available to all citizens within the town limits. At the present time special crews are at work erecting new cables on Central, Summer, and Granville Streets, and across Church Street.

When these are completed residents of the following streets should find the telephone facilities adequate to their needs: Central Street, Willow Avenue, Beaver Street, Myrtle Street, Argyle Street, Cambridge Street, Church Street, Belmont Street, Russell Street, Granville Street, (Church to Ottawa), Summerside Street (to Convent), Notre Dame Street (Summerside to Granville), and Convent Street-S.

Baseball Head Raps Proposed Legislation

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) - Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick Wednesday rapped Sen. Edwin Johnson (D-Colo.) for proposing "discriminatory" legislation, decried public feuding within baseball and called for the sport to rid itself of a "feud complex."

Frick made his comments outside the St. Louis Cardinal clubhouse after a brief conference with August Busch Jr., wealthy brewer who owns the club.

Johnson, president of the Western Baseball League, introduced a bill in Congress Tuesday that would subject any ball club owned by brewery interests to the jurisdiction of the anti-trust laws. The bill specifically was aimed at the Cards.

A recent supreme court ruling exempted baseball from the anti-trust laws on the basis that it was a sport, not a business. "I can not conceive of any congress passing discriminatory legislation which is pointed at one partner and excludes other partners," Frick said.

"I think it is unfortunate that a difference of opinion between people within baseball's organization should arise at a time when baseball is facing serious problems outside the baseball family," Frick referred to pending suits by the Liberty Broadcasting System regarding the broadcast of games and the constant threat of congressional resolutions.

"Half our problems is a fear complex," Frick said. "It is about time we got together and decided what is good for baseball and took steps to legislate ourselves."

Frick wants the clubs to set up an agreement among themselves on regulation of radio and television.

Traffic Returning To Normal In Prince County

Traffic yesterday in Prince County was returning to normal at least on paved highways following a snow and sleet storm that tied up traffic in many sections on Tuesday.

Last evening both Charlottetown-Summerside highways were open, as was the Summerside-Tignish highway.

Telephone communication systems suffered considerable damage east of Charlottetown, but was practically unaffected in Prince County.

Last evening the Summerside snow plow was busily engaged in clearing and leveling the snow that had banked up against the street curbs.

Indications for continued mild weather today will further delay sporting activities in local rinks, and motorists who do not live beside paved highways will hesitate to do any travelling due to the muddy condition of clay roads everywhere.

weight champion to get two chances at winning back boxing's biggest prize. Jim Corbett also had two cracks, and was knocked out twice by Jim Jeffries. No other heavyweight champion ever has regained the title although many have tried. Charles, of Cincinnati, won the title vacated by Joe Louis by out-pointing Walcott at Chicago June 22, 1949. He made eight successful defenses and then lost his title to Walcott on a 7th round knockout in Pittsburgh July 18, 1951. In a return bout with Walcott at Philadelphia June 5, 1952, he lost a very close decision to Jersey Joe.
