Couple Welcomed And Congratulated On Silver Wedding

On Saturday night May 26th, 1956 forty relatives and friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jones, 7 King Square when they arrived to welcome them back to Charlottetown after an absence of sixteen years in which they resided in Halifax and Truro, N.S. and also to extend to them congratulations on their 25th wedding anniversary.

After their arrival they decorated the dining-room with pink and white streamers which in addition to a beautiful bouquet of white and pink snapdragons and pink carnations which Mr. and Mrs. Jones received earlier in the day from their daughter Gloria of Truro made a very lovely setting.

Mrs. Harold Carver played the wedding march while Mr. and Mrs. Jones were led to two beautifully decorated chairs under an arch and wedding bells. Then Mr. Arnold Godfrey read the address while Mrs. Everett Saunders presented them with beautiful gifts.

Mr. Jones in a few well chosen words on behalf of himself and Mrs. Jones said how happy they were to have so many of their old friends present and thank them for their gifts and good wishes.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Hamm MacCannell, Mrs. Arnold Godfrey, Mrs. Everett Saunders, Mrs. George Waller, Mrs. William Chandler and Mrs. Kent Jones which included a beautifully decorated wedding cake made by Mrs. Carl Wood.

Pictures were taken by Mrs. Vic Runtz and a sing-song followed after which everyone departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Jones many more happy anniversaries.
