Hustle, Backed By Optimism Is Current Business Keynote

FORBES RIHDE, Canadian Press Business Editor

Hustle, backed up by a fair amount of optimism, appears to be the key word in business today, judging by the flood of correspondence that we receive of one kind or another.

The Bank of Montreal, in its current business review, says present indications point to a construction of the forces of recovery. It sees the six-month increase forecast for capital expenditures this year as "moderate," encouraging where other areas of demand continue strong.

G. I. Mansour, vice-president of RCA Victor, Montreal, says the sales increase that started last fall is continuing into 1962 at a higher rate than originally anticipated.

Plumes for 1962 to mid-March show the company's television sales running 30 per cent ahead of the similar period in 1961 and 35 per cent ahead of 1960. February table radio sales were up 20 per cent from February last year.

in the company's diversification program.

Volvo Canada Ltd., which last year sold 1,948 of the Swedish Volvo automobiles in Canada, says it expects to sell 3,000 this year.

The Investment Dealers' Association of Canada will hold its annual meeting in Montreal, June 17-20, and the Canadian Gas Association will meet at the same place June 20-23.

Crown Zellerbach Canada Ltd., West Coast producer of pulp, paper and other forest products, says it bought $25,000,000 worth of items from 300 suppliers in 1961. Processed materials, at $2,000,000, formed the largest group, including such materials as glue, saltlake, sulphur, cast soda, chlorine and chemicals. Other items ranged from needles to locomotives. The dollar volume includes federal and provincial sales taxes.

PICKET U.S. CONSULATE

MONTREAL (CP)—About 20 people were picketing in front of the United States consulate here Monday to start what sponsors said would be a 21-day demonstration against planned resumption of nuclear testing by the United States.

A spokesman for the group—the Movement for Nuclear Disarmament—said members will work in two-hour shifts in front of the consulate. He said a giant rally will be held in front of the consulate Saturday.
