Can you test this? If you have never tried SUNLIGHT SOAP, ask those who use it what they think of it, then try it for yourself. The result will please you, and your clothes will be washed in far less time, with Less Labour, Greater Comfort, and will be whiter than they have ever been before, when you used ordinary soap.

Is That

not the best way to decide the matter? First by enquiring what the experience is of those who already use it. Secondly, by a fair trial yourself. You are not committed in any way to use the soap; all we ask is: Don't Delay, try it the next washing day.

Whereas by an order made in this cause by the Master of the Rolls on the 30th day of August, A. D. 1893, it was referred to me, amongst other things, to take an account of the personal estate and effects of which the late Hon. Charles Young, deceased, testate, was possessed, or to which he was entitled, at the time of his decease, also of the debts and liabilities owing to and by the said testator at the time of his decease; and that I should cause to be published in the Royal Gazette and such other papers as I should think fit an advertisement, calling upon all persons claiming in respect of any such debts or liabilities, other than those already duly furnished to the Executrix of the testator, to come in before me and prove such debts and claims, and that I should fix a peremptory day for that purpose, and that such of the creditors as should not come in and prove their debts and claims by the time so to be fixed, should be excluded from the benefit of the said order. Now I do hereby, in pursuance of said order, give public notice that I do hereby fix MONDAY, the Thirtieth day of October next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at my office in Charlottetown, in Queen's County, as the time and place for all persons (except as aforesaid) having or claiming to have any debt, claim or demand against the estate of the said Testator to come in before me and prove the same, and any person neglecting to come in and prove his or her debt, claim or demand before me at such time and place will be excluded from the benefit of the order of the 30th day of August, A. BISMARCK'S TRIBUTE TO MUSIC.

Its Influence on His Life and of Its Aid in Carrying Out His Plans.

Prince Bismarck years ago said that his favorite musical instrument was a hand organ. He did not mean by that remark, however, that he was no admirer of the "heavenly maid." On the contary, the ex-Chancellor is a great lover of music and musicians. In the course of a speech to the members of the Gesang Verein Orpheus, of Barmen, a few days ago, he paid a high tribute to the art, recognizing its aid in shaping the destinies of Germany, and in carrying out his far-reaching plans.

"In music," said the Prince among other things, "I am unfortunately not your equal. In the multitude of things I was compelled to study in my youth, music was neglected. But despite that I love it. I am thankful to music because it helped me so effectually in my political efforts. The sound of the German song won the hearts. I count it, in fact, among the aids which led to the success of our strife for union. Practical examples are not always easy to cite, but the first which I now recall is that of the Becker Rhinesong in 1841. Its influence was mighty. The rapid adoption of the song by the people—then mostly particularists — had the effect of two army corps. Later came the 'Wacht am Rhein.' The singing of that warsong on the battlefields in winter, when food was scarce, strengthened the heart of many a soldier, and the heart-feeling is everything in battle. Therefore I do not wish the German song to be overlooked as one of the war aids of the future. I wish to thank you for the aid given me by German singers in appreciating the National idea and carrying it beyond the borders of the Fatherland. We should hardly have remained in such close relations to Vienna, had not Haydn, Mozart and Beethoven lived there and created a bond of art between the Lower Rhine and Vienna.

"Yes," added the Prince, "our relations to our third ally, Italy, were of a musical nature before they became political. The first conquests which Italy made with us were musical conquests. I am no enemy of Italian music, despite my preference of the German school; on the contrary, I am an admirer of it. In this sense I thank you as the guardians of music—continue to cultivate it. The German cannot resist the effects of song. He is in the proper humor when he hears music.

"It is a fortunate thing that our ruling families are not enemies, but cultivators, of music. This art would not have reached so high a state of perfection in our country had it not always been cultivated by the ruling families."—N.Y. Tribune.

The Skull of Sophocles.

Amongst the treasure-trove which has come to light lately as the result of Hellenic excavation, none has been more enthusiastically heralded than that which was discovered the other day at Decelela—namely, the cranium of Sophocles. Already it has been sought to throw a damper on the delight of the discoverers by suggesting doubts as to its authenticity—and certainly the Greek record as to such "salvage from antiquity," whether it be a coin or a manuscript, a tomb or a cranium, is not so invariably unsullied as to absolve the finder from the most stringent proofs of bona fides. Controversy round this latest prize of archæology has waxed so warm, indeed, that an arbiter has had to be constituted—an arbiter who to classical learning adds the scarcely less appropriate qualification of anatomical and palæontological knowledge. Professor Virchow, of Berlin, is the authority to whom the contending camps have consented to appeal, and by his judgment, reinforced as it will doubtless be by the archæologists and men of science with whom Germany abounds, the question will, provisionally at least, be settled. We await Professor Virchow's decision with unusual interest and on grounds which every student of the connection between genius and organization will readily appreciate. Probably no dramatic poet who ever lived possessed facilities which were so splendid in their proportion and so symmetrically balanced. . . . Will the cranium just unearthed of the writer of the Antigone illustrate, the symmetry of the mind whose cerebral substratum it inclosed? Or are we to experience yet another disappointment in finding that genius of the most perfect order can enshrine itself in a comparatively narrow and poorly adjusted tenement.—London Lancet.

A Siamese Spectacle.

The King of Siam has a fine idea of the picturesque. On the night of the fighting at Bangkok he ordered out his chair of state, and shielded by the gigantic royal umbrella, made a midnight inspection of the troops, followed by his bodyguard, and making an imposing show. As they marched along barefooted—we read in the letter of a correspondent at Bangkok—their footfalls scarce disturbed the quietness of night. One flaring pine torch cast its light upon the figure of the King, and added to the solemnity of the scene as its light faded away into the distance, growing fainter and fainter as the troops, silent as death, passed in long lines.—London Globe.

The Cost of War.

War is a very expensive business. Statistics of some of the great wars of the past are as follows: The Crimean War cost $2,000,000,000 and 750,000 lives. The Italian war of 1850, $3,000,000,000 and 45,000 lives; the war of the Rebellion cost the north $5,100,000,000, and the south $2,360,000, and together about 830,000 lives; the Prussian-Austrian war of 1866 cost $333,000,000 and 45,000 lives; the Russo Turkish war, $125,000,000 and 250,000 lives, and the Franco-Prussian war $4,100,000,000 and 196,000 lives.—Chicago Herald.

Deservedly Popular.

Our readers have no doubt read with interest the despatches almost weekly appearing in this and other Canadian journals regarding cures of a most startling nature made by Dodd's Kidney Pills. These pills have proven themselves to be a certain cure for all diseases of the kidneys and blood, such as backache, rheumatism, Bright's disease, diabetes, dropsy, etc.

Enquiry amongst local druggists elicits the facts that they have a very large sale and are an infallible cure for kidney disorders.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are manufactured by Dr. L. A. Smith & Co., Toronto, and are sold everywhere, or by mail on receipt of price, 50 cents a box, or 6 boxes for $2.50.

He Was Convinced.

A man in Nova Scotia was in doubt as to the genuineness of the reported cure of Mrs. Bernard Maguire and ex-Councillor Lingley, of Petersville, Queen's Co., by a course of Hawker's Nerve and Stomach Tonic and Hawker's Liver Pills. He wrote to Squire Lingley, and that gentleman promptly assured him that the testimonials were genuine.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Only a short time remains in which to visit the world's fair. It has been a far greater success financially than had been anticipated in the early summer. So far as the show itself is concerned, all visitors agree in describing it as marvellous; and when its variety, volume and significance are considered, even this term seems inadequate. When one pauses to think that but a few years ago the very site of the city of Chicago was a wilderness, and that to-day there are gathered within her borbers the representatives and the products of the skill of all nations of the earth, a conception of the rate at which the world is progressing dawns upon and almost bewilders the mind. There have been many provincial visitors to the Fair, and many more will register there before its close. The city of Chicago is in itself a wonder world to the visitor, in its vastness and variety. In careful study of its people and the climatic effects, nothing is more noticeable than the prevalence of catarrh. It is a peculiarity resulting from the climate, and is noted by the medical authorities. Unfortunately this annoying and debilitating disease is not confined to Chicago. There are numerous cases of catarrh in the Lower Provinces. It is therefore of the greatest importance that a remedy which has proved its ability to cure the most obstinate cases should be brought into general use. This remedy is Hawker's Catarrh Cure, the most effective in curative power of any before the public to-day. The Hawker Medicine Co. can furnish testimonials and references regarding Hawker's Catarrh Cure that no reader of this paper will for a moment question. Capt. S. F. Belyea, of Greenwich, King's Co., N. B., under date of Oct. 6th, writes to the company that an aggravated form of catarrh had in his case closed the nasal passages so that he could scarcely breathe, had induced serious deafness and caused him great pain and trouble. He tried many remedies, but all failed until he got Hawker's Catarrh Cure, three 25 cent packages of which affected a cure. "I can honestly say," writes Capt. Belyea, "that I am practically well, and I take great pleasure in recommending Hawker's Catarrh Cure to those who may be suffering from this very troublesome disease."

GRATEFUL, PLEASING RELIEF AFTER MANY DAYS.

How a Queens County Man Found Permanent Healing.

His Own Experience Tells Fully and Freely some Truths which all Readers of this Paper Should Know.

Here and there, in almost every town of our province, are "chronic" cases over which doctors disagree; cases that become worse year after year. It is to reach such that the gentleman to whom these lines refer, and whose portrait is here given, has written the story of his case.

Mr. Branscomb's home is in Chipman, Queens Co., N. B. It was there that a representative of the Groder company called upon him, Sept. 1st, of the present year. His greeting was most cordial. He gladly acknowledged his thanks, giving expression to the following statement:

"It is five years since I first became afflicted with a form of indigestion. Last winter it became more severe, developing into chronic diarrhœa. I cannot tell you how much I suffered for SIX LONG WEEKS. It seemed as though relief could not be found. You will remember how I told you of my condition and asked your advice about taking a bottle of GRODER'S SYRUP. You told me that the medicine was a laxative and might not meet my needs. I delayed buying for a few hours until I began to hope that it would help me. Even my clothes seemed a burden because of bloating of stomach. It was with difficulty that I kept about sufficiently to attend to my business.

But I am a well man now from the use of your remedy. In three days after I bought GRODER'S SYRUP the terrible pain and distress across my stomach were removed. My bowels rapidly assumed a natural, healthy condition. Now I eat and drink as well as I ever could. I have gained constantly in flesh since March last. I am perfectly cured.

It seems a duty for me to state my case fully, that others who suffer as I did may know where to find a cure."

Truly yours,
E. A. BRANSCOMB.
