Schoendienst In Batting Surge

NEW YORK, (AP)—Red Schoendienst of St. Louis Cardinals, currently major league baseball's hottest hitter, is moving swiftly to the top of the National League batting parade eluded him in 1953.

The aggressive second baseman ranks sixth at present, but at the rate he's going he appears headed for better things.

Schoendienst had a consecutive hitting streak of 22 games, the best string in either league this season, through Sunday's games. In that span he collected 38 hits in 98 at bats and lifted his average from 313 to .335.

Last year Red was edged out for the batting title by Brooklyn's Carl Furillo, .342 to .344.

Shoendienst still has a long way to go to the top, for Duke Snider of the Dodgers, the leader, shows little signs of slumping.

SIX FOR 14

Snider, sidelined briefly last week with a bruised elbow, cracked out six hits in 14 trips and gained six points to .374.

Don Mueller of the Giants dropped 12 points but remained in second place at .353. He's followed by Granny Hamner of Philadelphia 341.

In the American League Bobby Avila of Cleveland held onto the lead despite a drop of 22 points to .349. Bobby only had four hits in 25 trips.

Al Rosen of Cleveland tailed off eight points to .332 and remained in the runner-up slot. Nellie Fox of Chicago and Jim Busby of Washington are deadlocked for third at 319.

Stan Musial, the No. 7 batter in the National League with .332, regained the lead in home runs. The slugging Cardinal hit three last week to bring his total to 26, one more than the Giant's Willie Mays. Musial still leads in runs batted in with 78.

Mickey Mantle of the Yankees, also with three homers last week, took over the top spot in the American League with 16.

School Board Rejects Council Plan For S'side High School Extension

—The Summerside School Board meeting with the Town Council last evening rejected the council's plan for providing addfitional classroom facilities. They asked the council to reconsider the plan requested by the board, and submitted a memorandum outlining the opinion of the members of the board in regard to the matter.

The board had asked the council to convert the present auditorium into 6 classrooms, provide an unfinished extension for 8 more classrooms, and complete a new auditorium.

The council, at a meeting on Tuesday of last week, discarded this plan for one that would provide an 8 classroom extension to the present building.

Mayor Henry Wedge and Councillors William Jenkins and Dr. Hillard Clark were present to represent the town at the meeting last evening.

It was announced at the meeting that Councillor James MacDougall was on the mainland on business.

Also absent from the meeting were Councillors Andrew Perry, Donald Lidstone, and Clarence Steele.

The School Board was represented by Messrs. D. O. Stewart, T. E. Hickey, H. T. Holman, A. H. Hubley and P. G. Clark.

Mr. Stewart, chairman of the School Board acted as spokesman for the group and expressed the board's keen disappointment that the council had seen fit to disregard the request of the board and substitute a plan that was inadequate, and which would not, in any case, provide classroom accommodations that certainly must be available before the beginning of the school's fall term.

In supporting this view point Mr. T. Earle Hickey said the plan offered by the Town Council was short-sighted, and he recommended that it should not be followed as it did not provide for expansion.

SUGGESTS PROMPT ACTION

Mr. Harry T. Holman pointed out that money for either plan would have to be borrowed, and suggested that action be taken as quickly as possible on the matter. He said he had discussed the matter with several people and all were in favor of providing additional facilities to take the children out of the inadequate basement accommodations that the school has been compelled to use as classrooms.

Mr. A. H. Hubley said that the town should be able to look ahead on the school question and make plans to provide for the indicated requirements.

Mr. Stewart pointed out that some change has to be made immediately, or the town will have to hire a few large rooms somewhere to take care of the classroom needs.

Mr. P. G. Clark also emphasized the need of getting to work on the project without any unnecessary delay.

Councillor Wm. Jenkins, chairman of the finance committee said he was in sympathy with the opinions expressed by the members of the School Board. He referred to the decline in business sales which in comparison to other years were down, and Mr. Stewart interjected with "but the birth rate is up". Councillor Jenkins went on to say that the decline in business meant more unemployment with a possible decrease in the town's revenue from taxation.

He suggested that the submission by the School Board would be given consideration by the council.

Referring briefly to the matter of town finances, Councillor Clark said that a cost accountant employed by the town had submitted reports which indicated a few places that money could be saved in matters of town business. He suggested that these reports be studied by the council.

PROMISE ACTION THIS WEEK

Before adjournment of the meeting Mayor Wedge promised the School Board that some definite action on their request would be taken by the council before the end of the week.

The plan which the School Board rejected had the support of Councillors Jenkins, Perry, Lidstone, and Steele. It was opposed by Mayor Wedge, and Councillors Clark and MacDougall.

Following is the submission of the Board of School Trustees at the meeting with Town Council last evening.

(a) The Board wonders if some council members may have misunderstood or drawn a wrong inference from Mr. Mercer's statement to the council that for this year we would endeavour to get along with six additional classrooms.

What Mr. Mercer meant was that, pending completion of additional classrooms, we would continue to use the classrooms in the basement of the old school.

In this regard, Mr. Mercer informs our board that (1) for the coming term we have hired three additional teachers for grades 2, 5 and 9 and this will mean three additional classrooms; (2) at least three basement classrooms are unsuitable and should be vocated as soon as possible; (3) a grade 1 classroom now located in the small teachers' room and having only one window is small and unsuitable and will eventually have to be vacated; (4) a grade 7 classroom facing north on the court in the old school is very much too dark for a classroom, necessitating artificial lighting at all times. This, it was intended to use for music classes, which rotate every 45 minutes and should not be continued to be used any longer than is possible as a regular classroom accommodating students for at least five hours every day; (5) two grades 11 and 12 classrooms are needed, one to accommodate a grade 12 class and one for an additional room for the teaching of optional subjects. It will therefore plainly be seen that we need in the very near future at least nine classrooms for occupation and this provides no room for expansion.

(b) The plan agreed to by the council to provide 8 new classrooms necessitates the building of a complete new unit which would require the preparation of completed plans and specifications, the calling for and awarding of tenders, and the construction of the building itself. This obviously could not be done by September 1st, whereas the conversion of the auditorium into six classrooms could be done immediately and no doubt could be completed by September 1st.

A LATER PLAN

(c) Out of the tentative original plans to provide classrooms for immediate use by conversion of the auditorium grew a later plan for an auditorium on the ground floor level. This would replace the old auditorium which would be converted into class rooms, eliminating the existing fire hazards in the present auditorum, providing additional seating capacity in the auditorium and providing a proper room in which would be conducted at least some physical training.

None can be given in the present auditoriumh as it is immediately over classrooms.

This last plan would also have provided extra basement space for our vocational units and this would be a strong argument if we make application for funds for capital expenditure for vocational work. Not providing the room for such work would greatly weaken any argument we would have with our Provincial Government and the Federal Department of Labour when the new agreement in regard to vocational grants comes up for renewal in March 1955.

To summarize, (1) we can use and fill at the September term nine classrooms, but could perhaps manage with 6 for one more year by continuing to use our basement and other unsuitable rooms.

Eight classrooms are definitely not sufficient. We not only need more at present, and some provision should be made for expansion.

(2) The building of an extension to house additional classrooms could not possibly be completed by September 1st.

(3) The fire hazard in the present auditorium would continue to exist.

(4) No provision is made in the school for any place to give physical training.

(5) Unless a substantial basement space is made available for our vocational training projects, there is little likelihood of obtaining any substantial grant for capital expenditure under the new vocational agreement.—S.

Indians Lose Ground; Dodgers And Giants Win

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Baseball had its own fireworks Monday. The 16 major league teams exploded 35 home runs in a day of doubleheaders that saw the Cleveland Indians' American League lead shrink to three and a half games while the New York Giants maintained their three and a half game margin in the National League.

While Cleveland was held to a split by Detroit, the New York Yankees won their first twin bill of the season to gain a full game on the Indians. Home runs, the order of the day, helped the Yankees to each victory. Successive four baggers by Joe Collins and Mickey Mantle and Gene Woodling's run-scoring double proved the margin of victory in the opener. Irv Noren drove in five runs with a pair of homers in the nightcap.

George Zuverink, who once pitched for Cleveland, blanked his former mates with three hits over 11 innings as the Tigers won the second game 1-0 after the Indians had waltzed to a 13-6 first game triumph. Bill Glynn, now playing first base for the Indians, slammed three successive homers in the opener and drove in eight runs. One of his blows was a grand slammer. Harvey Kuenn's 11th inning homer off rookie Ron Mossi decided the second game.

Johnny Antonelli won his 12th game of the season with a three-hit shutout as the Giants swept a pair of games from Philadelphia 10-0 and 4-3. Dusty Rhodes homered in each game for the Giants, his second game homer coming with two mates aboard.

DODGERS HOLD PACE

Rookie outfielder Walter Moryn collected four hits including a two-run homer in the first game and Carl Furillo batted in five runs in the second game as the Dodgers trounced the Pittsburgh Pirates twice 8-6 and 7-2. The twin triumphs enabled the Dodgers to stay within 3½ games of the Giants.

Ted Lepcio blasted a grand slam homer for Boston in the first game and Roy Sievers smashed one for Washington in the second as the Red Sox and Senators divided a doubleheader. Willard Nixon pitched a six-hitter in Boston's 14-0 triumph in the opener and Chuck Stobbs three a five-hitter in Washington's 7-1 success in the nightcap.

The Chicago White Sox ended a five-game losing streak by taking a pair from Baltimore 3-0 and 2-1. Billy Pierce shut out the Orioles with four hits for his first complete game since June 19. Ron Jackson 20-year-old bonus rookie subbing for the injured Ferris Fain and Phil Cavarretta at first base, homered in the seventh inning to provide the Sox margin of victory in the second game.

Cincinnati took two from Chicago Cubs 6-5 in 10 innings and 8-7. Bobby Adams' single drove in the winning run in the opener. Karl Drews won his first game for Cincinnati but needed help in the nightcap.

Milwaukee's Braves walloped the St. Louis Cardinals twice, 8-6 and 10-4, banging four homers in the first game, two by Eddie Mathews. They collected 17 hits in the second game as Warren Spahn rgistered his eighth victory. Red Schoendienst, Card second baseman, hit safely in his 23rd and 24th successive games.

Little League Baseball In Ch'town This Summer

With the opening of the 1954 Little League Baseball season Tuesday, July 6, in Charlottetown the Abegweit Amateur Athletic Association is taking this opportunity to present a brief explanation of the history and development of Little League along with plans for the community this summer.

Little League Baseball is Big League Baseball adapted to the mental and physical capacities of boys 12 years of age and under. It was organized in 1939 in Williamsport Pennsylvania. The organizer, Carl E. Stotz, realized that boys 12 and under desired, more than anything else, competition in their own age group with field and other equipment trimmed down to their size. He had seen too many youngsters sit on the sidelines unable to get in the game because they were too small or too young.

The idea was an immediate success and the growth of Little League Baseball has been phenomenal. The 1953 season showed 2,826 leagues organized, comprised of 11,837 teams with approximately 178,000 boys of 12 years of age and under on the roster of regular "first" teams. In addition to this, well over 80,000 boys found places on "farm" teams.

Little Leagues are franchised in 46 states, in Alaska, Hawaii, Canada, Canal Zone, Philipines and Korea. Teams from Montreal in the past several years have successfully participated in the Little League World Series in Williamsport, Pennsylvania.

It would be impossible to measure accurately and completely the benefits of Little League Baseball to the individual boy, the team on which he plays, the league to which he belongs, and the community where Little League Baseball operates. There are far too many intangibles. The objective of Little League Baseball is to provide baseball for boys. The boy's participating in the game, the adults contributing their services and the fans rooting in the bleachers all get something out of Little League —and it's considerably more than wholesome recreation.

Youngsters from all walks of life, without regard to race or religion, report for practice with the common goal of making the team. The social or economic position of parents has no bearing in this competition. While playing together, the boys soon learn that their teammate is a pretty good fellow, no matter which side of the railroad tracks he happens to live. What more can a town want than the instilling of fine principles of sportsmanship, tolerance and understanding in its youth.

The players take pride in the wearing of the uniform. They know that should they engage in malicious mischief, fail to accept the responsibility for reporting to practice and games on time, or demonstrate poor examples of sportsmanship they would lose the privilege of wearing this uniform.

The Little League Program in Charlottetown will differ from the official set-up only in that the selection and sponsoring of teams and the administration of the league will be governed by local conditions. We will have a four team City League composed of boys aged 11 and 12 and a Minor League for the younger fellows 9 and 10. Kensington will have a team in our league.

The youngsters will be outfitted with a complete uniform and it will be their responsibility to see that they are kept neat and clean and worn properly. A Little League night will be held once a week at Memorial Field where the games will be played under the lights. Other games during the week will be played at both Memorial Field diamonds, plus trips to Kensington and other exhibitions.

This year a "Good Deed Day" will be an integral part of the Little League Program. One day a week the youngster will be responsible for performing some helpful chore for his parents or neighbor that is not included in his daily routine. A record will be kept of the player's responsibility in this matter plus his attendance at practice and games. Sportsmanship, fair play, responsibility to teammates and team, respect for elders and adherence to the decisions of field officials, will be stressed.

The basic fundamentals of baseball will be taught. They will include: batting, proper ball catching methods in the various positions, base running, sliding, pitching and postion play in game situations. Wth the learning of the physical aspects of baseball each boy will learn some of the lessons of fair play, of discipline and responsibility, and team work.

In conclusion it may be said that Little League offers a means through which parents and community leaders may foster in relation with their children a sanguine solution to many of the current social problems of our youth, thus insuring better citizens for tomorrow. Let's all back the Little League Program!
