The Waterworks Incorporation Bill.

An Act to incorporate the Charlottetown Waterworks Company.

Whereas, William Murphy, Alexander
McKinnon, Rowan R. FitzGerald, William
E. Dawson, William Dodd, Malcolm Mc-Leod, and Daniel Davies, together with divers others, have associated themselves into a company for supplying the town of Charlottetown with water; and Whereas, it is expedient that such company should be incorporated, Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, as follows:—

1. The said William Murphy, Alexander
McKinnon, Rowan R. FitzGerald, William
E. Dawson, William Dodd, Malcolm Mc-Leod, Daniel Davies and all every other person or persons who now are or may hereafter, from time to time, be and become proprietors of shares in the said company, their successors and assigns shall be and are hereby declared to be a body politic and corporate by the name and style of "The Charlottetown Waterworks Company," and by that name shall have succession and a common seal, and shall and may by that name sue and be sued, plead and be pleaded, answer and be answered in any court or courts of law, equity or place whatsoever and be able and capable in law to have, hold, purchase, take, receive, lease, possess and enjoy any houses, lands and tenements whatsoever, in fee simple, leasehold or otherwise, and also any goods and chattels and all other things, real, personal and mixed; and also to give, grant, sell, let, assign or convey the same, or any part thereof, as shall and may be thought necessary and proper for the benefit and advantage of the said company, and shall have all the general powers and authorities incident to a corporation, for the purpose of supplying the said city of Charlottetown, and the inhabitants thereof, and its vicinity, with water; and for carrying on and managing the necessary works therewith connected.

2. The capital stock of the said corporation shall consist of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, current money of Canada, to be divided into six thousand shares of twenty-five dollars each, payable in such manner, by such instalments and calls, and at such times and upon such notices as by the by-laws, rules and ordinances of the said company may be ordered and directed; and if such calls and instalments shall not be paid, it shall and may be lawful for the said company to sue for and recover such calls and instalments by suit or action in any court of law having jurisdiction, against any shareholder who shall make default in payment of any call or instalment. Provided always that there shall not be less than one month between any two consecutive calls, and provided always that the said Corporation shall have the power to increase the said capital stock to two hundred thousand dollars of like current money with power to increase the number of shares accordingly.

3. It shall and may be lawful for the said William Murphy, Alexander McKinnion, Rowan R. FitzGerald, William E.
Dawson, Malcolm McLeod, William Dodd and Daniel Davies, or their successors, immediately after the passing of this Act to take subscriptions for shares in the said company; but no person or body politic or corporate, shall be entitled to subscribe for more than one hundred shares until twenty days shall have elapsed from the day on which the books for such subscription shall have been opened, public notice of which shall be given by advertisements in two, at least, of the public newspapers in Charlottetown; and if at the end of the said twenty days the whole amount of shares of and in the said joint stock or capital as herein-before prescribed shall not be taken up or subscribed for, then any person or persons, body politic or corporate, under the sanction and discretion of the said William Murphy, Alexander McKinnon, Rowan R. FitzGerald, William E. Dawson, William Dodd, Malcolm McLeod, and Daniel Davies, or their successors herein-before named, or a majority of them may subscribe for the residue of such shares notwithstanding such person or persons body, politic or corporate, may respectively subscribe for more than one hundred shares.

4. Whenever one thousand shares have been subscribed, a general meeting of members and stockholders or the major part of them representing a major part of the subscribed stock shall be held at the said city, and shall be called by any two of the said corporation, by notice in two or more of the public newspapers published in the said city, thirty days previous to such meeting for the purpose of making, ordaining and establishing such by-laws, ordinances and regulations, for the good management of the affairs of the corporation as they shall deem necessary, and for the purpose of choosing seven directors, being stockholders and members of the corporation under and in pursuance of the rules and regulations hereinafter made and provided, which directors so chosen shall serve until the first annual meeting for choice of directors, or until their successors are appointed, and shall have full power and authority to manage the concerns of the said corporation (and shall commence the operations of the said company) subject, nevertheless, to the rules and regulations hereinafter made and provided.

There shall be a general meeting of the stockholders and members of the said corporation to be annually holden on the first Monday in September, in each and every year, at the said city, or elsewhere, as shall be ordained in and by the by-laws of said company, at which annual meeting there shall be chosen seven directors, who shall continue in office for one year, or until others are chosen in their room, in the choice of which the stockholders and members of the said corporation shall vote ac-ording to the rules hereinafter mentioned, and the directors, when chosen, shall, at their first meeting after their election, choose out of their number a president.

6. The directors, for the time being, shall have power to appoint such officers, clerks and servants as they, or the majority of them shall think necessary for the executing the business of the said corporation, and shall allow them such compensation for their respective services as to them shall appear reasonable and proper, all which, together with the expenses for building, reservoirs, buildings, machinery, pipes, and all other contingencies shall be defrayed out of the funds of the corporation and the said directors shall likewise exercise such other powers and authorities for the well regulating the affairs of the said corporation as shall be prescribed by the by-laws and regulations of the same.

7. Not less than four directors shall constitute a board for the transaction of business, of which the president shall be one, except in cases of absence, in which case the directors present may choose one of their number as chairman in his stead for the occasion, and the president shall vote at the board as a director; and in case of there being an equal number of votes for and against any question before them, the question will be considered as not carried.

8. No director shall be entitled to any salary or emolument for his services, provided, nevertheless, that the stockholders and members of the said corporation may make such compensation to the said directors, or any of them, as to them shall appear reasonable and proper at any annual meeting.

9. No person shall be eligible as a director unless such person is a stockholder, and holding not less than twenty-five shares of the capital stock of the said corporation, and is of the full age of twenty-one years, and shall have paid all calls, debts and assessments made and due on the shares held by him.

10. The number of votes to which each proprietor of shares in the said corporation, holding one or more shares in the said company, shall be entitled on every occasion when, in conformity with the provisions of this Act, the votes of the members of the said corporation shall be given, shall be one vote for each share.

11. All stockholders may vote by proxy, provided such proxy be a stockholder, and do produce a written authority from his constituent or constituents so to act, and file the same with the secretary before the meeting.

12. The directors shall be and they are hereby authorized to fill up any vacancy that shall be occasioned in the board by the death, resignation, or absence from this Province or meetings of the directors continuously for one year of any of its members; but in the case of the removal of a director by the stockholders for misconduct or mal-administration, his place shall be filled up by the said stockholders, and the person so chosen by the directors or stockholders shall serve until the next succeeding annual meeting of the stockholders, or until others are chosen in their stead.

13. The shares of capital or stock shall be assignable and transferable according to the rules and regulations that may be established in their behalf, but no assignment or transfer shall be valid or effectual unless such assignment or transfer shall be entered and registered in a book, to be kept by the directors for that purpose; nor until such person or persons so making the same shall have previously discharged all calls or debts actually due and payable by him to the said corporation, and in no case shall any fractional part of a share, or other part of a complete share, or shares, be assign-able or transferable. Whenever any stockholder shall transfer in manner aforesaid all his stock or shares in such company to any other person or persons whatsoever, such stockholder shall cease to be a member of the said corporation.

14. The directors shall make half-yearly or yearly dividends, as may to them appear most proper, out of the profits, rents, premiums and interest of the said corporation, payable at such time and place as the directors shall appoint; of which they shall give thirty days previous notice in one or more of the newspapers published in the said city or elsewhere, as directed by said by-laws.

15. It shall and may be lawful for the said company to supply the inhabitants of the said city and vicinity, or others without the city and the corporation with water, and for that purpose to construct all necessary waterworks, reservoirs, tanks and fountains, and at a proper and convenient distance below the surface of the roads, streets, sidewalks, squares and highways in this Province leading to the said city, to cause pipes, leaders, and tubes to be laid, maintained and placed as may be necessary, and in the said streets and squares of the said city, and in the said roads and highways, to place and erect in convenient and fitting situations, fire plugs, hydrants or fountains, and supporters for the same, and generally to do all things necessary to maintain and carry on a complete system of waterworks.

16. The said company may from time to time, at such time as they may deem expedient, improve, extend, and enlarge their said waterworks, or make and construct new works, and lay new pipes, mains, and do all things necessary to afford a sufficient supply of water.

open for such reasonable time as may be necessary, and lay down, maintain, and place therein, pipes, mains, conduits, service pipes, and other works and engines, and from time to time to repair, alter or remove the same, and, for the purposes aforesaid, remove and use all earth and materials in and under such streets, squares, roads or highways. The said company shall at all times have and leave a good and sufficient right-of-way or passage as heretofore used and enjoyed over and along every street, square, road, or highway, broken, opened up, or interfered with, and, when the work thereon or thereunder is finished and completed, shall make and leave such street, square, road or highway in as good and thorough repair and condition as the same was in before such breaking, opening up or interfering with, as aforesaid—doing as little damage as may be—the said company being liable for all damage resulting by reason of such breaking, opening up, or interfering with of such streets, squares, roads or highway.

18. All and every of the pipes and conduits to be laid down by the said corporation for the conveyance of water, in, under, through, along, across, or round any of the streets, lanes or other public passages or places within or adjacent to the said city, shall be so laid and placed at the greatest practical distance and, wherever the width of the street will allow thereof, at the distance of four feet, at least, from the nearest part of any pipe or other conduct already or hereafter to be laid down or used for the conveyance of gas, in, under, through, along, across, or round any street, road, lane or other public passage or place within, or adjacent to, the city, except in cases where it shall be unavoidably necessary to lay the water pipes across any of the said gas pipes, in which case the said water pipes shall be laid under the said gas pipes, at the greatest practical distance therefrom, and shall form as near as possible a right angle therewith.

19. Whenever it shall be necessary for the laying down or placing of any reservoirs, tanks, fountains, pipes, leaders, tubes or other work, engines or advisable in the interests of the Company, or for other purposes Act, that the said company should obtain and be invested with title or possession of, or in any lands, lots or parcels of land or premises, situate in this Province or in the said city, or require the permission of any private owner to lay or place the same beneath the surface of the soil owned by such person, it shall and may be lawful for the said company, in case it cannot agree with the proprietors of such lands, respectively, for the sale, lease or use thereof, as may be required, to apply either in term time or vacation to any Judge of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of this Island, and by petition under the common seal of the said company stating the nature and situation of the lands and property, and the estate use or interest therein it desires to acquire, and the proceedings had with respect to the same and the names and abode of the owners, proprietors and tenants thereof, respectively, so far as they can be ascertained, and praying for the appointment of appraisers to value the property and estate and interest or use therein, so required by the said company and praying also for the transfer, conveyance or use thereof, to the said company, whereupon the said Judge shall appoint a time and place for considering the said petition, and shall direct to be given to all parties interested, including mortgagees and judgments, creditors who may have their debts in this Island, or in case of the absence of any such parties, then to the person or persons entrusted with the care or management and control of his or their estate or effects. Proper notices in writing, requiring the parties respectively interested to attend before him in person, or by their Attorney or Agent, at the time appointed for the purpose, and at the time so appointed shall require the said company to nominate one appraiser and the party or parties interested to nominate also on his or their part, one appraiser, and the Judge shall name one other appraiser, and shall, by an order in writing, constitute and appoint the persons so chosen and named to act and be appraisers of the value of the freehold or leasehold or possession, as the case may be, of the lands by the petitioner referred to, or of the use thereof as aforesaid, should the said company desire to acquire no title thereof; and in case the party or parties collectively interested in any lands, lot or parcels of land by the said company, or having in the absence of the proprietor or proprietors control and management thereof, as aforesaid, shall fail to attend at the time and place appointed, or shall neglect or refuse to name one appraiser as aforesaid, the said Judge shall name a fit and discreet person as the case may require, to act on behalf of the person or party, or parties so failing to appear, or declining, or neglecting to make such nomination as aforesaid, and the persons so named and chosen shall, before they enter upon the duties of their appointment, severally subscribe an affidavit, and make oath before the said Judge, or any other Judge of the Supreme Court, or a Master in Chancery, faithfully and impartially to perform the trust and duties so required of them by order of the said Judge, which affidavit with the said petition, shall be filed in the office of the Prothonotary of the Supreme Court, at Charlottetown, and the said appraisers or a majority of them, shall make a just and equitable valuation and appraisement of the fair and reasonable value in money of the fee simple and inheritance of the lands, lot or parcel of land in the said petition referred to and applied for, or of the just and fair annual rent or gross sum which ought to be paid for the lease thereof, or of the value for the use only of the lands referred to in said petition should the said company desire no title therein, and shall certify and return their award, appraisement, and determination in writing, touching the value, price or rents aforesaid, under their hands, or the hands of the major part of them, in the office of said Prothonotary, whereupon if the Supreme Court at Charlottetown, in term time, or any Judge thereof in vacation, shall be of opinion that the said award and valuation hath been fairly, equitably and impartially made, and if no sufficient cause shall be shewn against such award and valuation, the said court or Judge shall confirm the same, and thereupon the said company shall pay and satisfy to the person or persons entitled to receive the same, a deposit in court, as the said court or a Judge thereof may order, the full amount of such award or valuation, together with the costs and expenses as the said court or Judge shall deem it reasonable to adjudge to be paid by the said company. And when the lands of any infant, feme-covert, idiot or lunatic is required for the purposes of this Act, if the said corporation cannot agree as to the compensation to be paid in respect thereto with the guardian of such infant, or with such feme-covert and her husband, or with the committee of such idiot or lunatic, or in case there be no guardian or committee, the said corporation may apply to one of the Judges of the Supreme Court for the appointment of an appraiser on behalf of such infant, feme-covert, idiot or lunatic, who shall, together with the two other appraisers severally appointed by the said Judge and the company have and exercise the powers herein-before mentioned, to assess and determine the compensation aforesaid. Provided that notice of the taking of any acquisition shall be personally served on the guardian of such infant, the committee of such idiot or lunatic, or the said feme-covert and her husband. Provided that in the case of premises mortgaged or bound by judgment, the compensation or damages found by such jury shall be paid to the Mortgagee or Mortgagees or judgment creditor, according to their priority, and be by him credited on such mortgage or judgment and the lands so taken shall be held to be thereupon released from any such mortgage or judgment.

20. And the said Judge, and also the said Supreme Court, shall have, with respect to the proceedings touching such appraisement and estimation of damages by means aforesaid, and with respect to the allowance of taxation of costs to or against the parties all necessary, discretion powers and authorities, and shall and may inquire into the proceedings by oath of witnesses or otherwise, and shall and may also, on good cause shown, set aside any such award and appraisement, and either direct the parties appraisers again to view, estimate and decide upon the value of such lands or the yearly value or use thereof, or otherwise, as aforesaid; or otherwise if it shall be deemed expedient, shall and may nominate other appraisers, or make an order for their making a new appraisement and valuation of the same, respectively, and the appraisers so nominated shall be sworn, as aforesaid, and the award or appraisement so by them, or the major part of them, made and returned in writing, when approved and confirmed by the court, or a Judge thereof, as aforesaid, shall be final between the parties, and may be carried into effect accordingly.

21. The award made on the second appraisement shall be final and conclusive to all intents whatsoever, and should no action be taken on the said first appraisement and award within ten days from the making thereof, it shall be binding, final and conclusive on all parties, and shall not be removed or taken into or inquired into by any court by certiorari or any other process.

Early in April, Lord Stratheden and Campbell put a rather unusual kind of inquiry to the Government. The visit of the Prime Minister to Copenhagen had, he said, been productive of much misunderstanding; it had estranged the Governments which British statesmen should try to conciliate, and had advanced designs which they should endeavor to retard. Among the latter he referred to the policy of Russia in Central Asia, which, in his opinion, had been encouraged
