FUNERAL SERVICE AT MONCTON.—A private funeral service for the late Mrs. D. L. Hooper was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. D. McEachern, at 9:45 yesterday morning. Rev. J. A. Ramsay conducted the services and the hymns, "The Sands of Time are Sinking," and "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me," were sung. The remains were conveyed to the C. N. R. station at 10:15 and forwarded to Charlottetown, where interment will be made.—Moncton Times.

NAVAL OFFICERS ENTER TAIN.—Admiral Sir William Pakenham, Captain Arthur Bromley and officers were at Home on card H. M. S. Raleigh yesterday afternoon to about two hundred citizens and a delighted time was enjoyed. The Marine band gave a splendid selection and their efforts were indefatigable in their efforts to please. Dancing from 3 to 6 p. m. was a feature of the entertainment, during which refreshments were served. Launches were waiting to take the guests to and from the cruiser.

SCOTTISH CELEBRATION.—A very large and well represented meeting of the Scottish Catholic Celebration, which takes place at Scotchfort, July 19th, was held last evening in the K. of C. Home. From the different reports of the communities everything is well in hand for the handling of the large numbers expected. The monument committee reported that the monument was now on the site and would be erected in the course of a few days. The catering committee reported that their end of the proceedings were coming along nicely and that they would be in a position to cater to the wants of those present. Other arrangements for the second day were fully discussed and together with train and other arrangements will appear in the papers in the course of a day or so.

GOLF

At Belvedere Links today at 2:30 there will be mixed foursomes, nine holes, medal play, fourteen officers of H. M. S. Raleigh being paired off with ladies of the club.

At 3:45 a return match has been arranged between the officers of the "Raleigh" and the men of the Club.

Tea will be served by the lady president and lady members of the house committee.

It is said the game of golf was invented by Scotch shepherds, who, having nothing else to do, amused themselves by knocking stones about with their crooks. They measured off their holes in circles, because in that way they could keep watch over their herds. The holes were marked by a tag of wool attached to a stake.

Big Racing Events On Dominion Day In Summerside

Summerside is assured of splendid horse racing on Dominion Day. The energetic secretary, Dr. W. G. Church has been successful in getting the classes filled to almost overflowing. The handsome purses and the fact that the track is in such excellent condition are no doubt reasons why the races there on Dominion Day have proven so popular with horsemen.

Following is a complete list of the entries:

219 Class. La Copia, 2:09 1/2, (Simple Training Stables.) John R., 2:16 1/2, (W. S. New som.) Albert J., 2:21 1/4 (W. McNeill.) Kentucky Marque, 2:13 1/4 D. A. MacKinnon. Black Diamond 2:19 1/2, J. S. Steele. Elastic Aubrey—Dr. W. G. Church Recharat 2:13 1/2, (D. A. Mac Kinnon.
