

ELLEN'S DIARY

January Lambs Arrive Sefting A New Record

Alex opened the door when at this evening's dusk was deepening, glanced at the clock and the clear, unobscured moon.

He closed the door, and stepped away smartly after Mack towards me. Notwithstanding a difference of almost eight years in their ages, the two are as close as the two ends of a string.

After school today, it was the skating. They had excavated to a field-pond, which the frequent sport of having had the skating for last week laid out beyond the road's hill.

"Remember to keep well away from the spruce" was the warning. The crowd was no more than one of many days gone.

"Men, many a child of its neighborhood, has skated there on a winter day. They are the ones who have been harvesting the hill's produce."

"The bride entering the church was the arm of her uncle Frank Campbell, Billerica, Mass. She wore a street-length gown of white tulle and lace."

United Church Presbytery Welcomed At Hartz Hall

Registration of delegates at the second annual meeting of the P.E.I. United Church Presbytery was held at Hartz Hall from last year with a total of 311 delegates answering roll call.

The president, Mrs. Charles Howatt, welcomed the ladies and gentlemen. They read the minutes of the last annual meeting. Annual reports by committee chairmen and presbytery secretaries followed.

Trotman-Shaw Nuptials Held At Lake Wilcox

St. Paul's United Church, Lake Wilcox, Ontario, was the setting for a quiet but pretty wedding when a Shirley A. Trotman and a James S. Shaw were united in marriage.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a two-piece suit of orion boucle in ivory white with matching wedding veil, headpiece, and carried a cascade bouquet of red roses.

Mr. Rod Kyle was the best man. A supper reception was a held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Trotman, with a musical program.

of no return... Or do they come back, straight as the crow flies, to re-visit with once-loved places.

And we mortals, if we have ears to hear, catch the sounds in the air. Thought of some little being wind?

Today brought lambs to Altered, Peter and the Murphy's in the very near future.

"Nor do I," James agreed. "The earliest I remember were some born before me, but I don't know the year man said."

"In the course of today's farming too, to further, or perhaps to further, the younger man said, in the case may be some younglings of the cow."

"I can't recall that we ever had January 18 in 's before this," the younger farmer remarked.

"It'll be good enough to put out to the sheep," Jack said. "I'm glad to see you're all here."

"I'm glad to see you're all here," James nodded. "Not bad," he said. "I'm glad to see you're all here."

ID BAILEY ALLEN Rock Lobster Chowder Is Real Crowd Pleaser

PROTEINS are generally considered the most expensive foods primarily needed in a balanced diet because more and more homemakers are buying frozen meats.

One satisfactory way to get the equivalent in nutritive value is to buy shoulder chops and less expensive cuts of steak and tenderize them before cooking with instant packaged meat tenderizer following packaged directions.

Another METHOD is to second way to get the tasty protein content of the menu is to learn to use the full list of protein foods," observed the Chief.

"Among these proteins are all kinds of meats; all kinds of fish and shellfish, frozen or canned; canned meat or frozen fish soups and other chowders or steams made with milk; all forms of milk; cheese of all kinds; eggs, Grade A or B; all the legumes, including dried peas, lentils, dried beans, soy beans or peanuts.

MARY HAWORTH Repetitive Dreams Plague Woman Who Was Orphan

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am on the other side of the globe, why can't I forget my past?

In my dreams very often I see the orphanage where I lived for 14 years. I see the Sisters and the nuns, and I see the children who were with me. I see the children who were with me. I see the children who were with me.

I was their fault; it was I who was the orphan. I was their fault; it was I who was the orphan. I was their fault; it was I who was the orphan.

I dream so much of those unhappy people that I almost feel I still live there. Yet I love you. America and could be very happy here if only I could be of those dreams.

I feel you are qualified to give me good counsel. Do you think there is a cure for my dreams? I dream so much of those unhappy people that I almost feel I still live there. Yet I love you. America and could be very happy here if only I could be of those dreams.
