Fine Performance Given In Aid Of Ch'town Hospital

A large and appreciative audience greeted the performers at the Prince Edward Theatre in the production of the delightfully entertaining comedy in three acts, "Don't Darken My Door", presented by the St. Charles Auxiliary of the Charlottetown Hospital.

The plot deals with two splendid young chaps who possessed many desirable qualities but were utterly lacking in "romance" which the young ladies whom they wished to marry, regarded as essential to connubial bliss. Their state of mind was the outcome of reading a series of novels by "Jane Perkins". Due to an accident Jane was thrown in with the young people and admirably brought them together in the third act, besides winning the heart of the "Old Bachelor", and securing romantic love for herself.

The players without exception, gave indication of a thorough understanding of their parts and entered wholeheartedly into the production. In the order of their appearance they were: Poppy Foster-Maid of all work, Ethel Trainor; Alec Stubbins-Poppy's devoted swain, John Walsh; Roger Kent-a bachelor, Wilfred Driscoll; Louise Featherstone and Susie Featherstone-Maiden Ladies, Mrs. Jean Giddings and Mrs. Eva MacMillan; Rosemary Kent-Roger's niece, Bethany MacDonald; Tom Garrick-Rosemary's suitor, Everett Beagan; Jane Perkins-a writer of romances, Donald MacDonald.

The specialties between the acts were also of exceptional merit and because of their variety added to the pleasure of the evening's entertainment. Miss Maureen Blake who has definitely arrived as a vocalist of distinction in this province sang two delightful numbers "Pretend" and "The Heart That's Free", the latter being in response to an insistent encore.

The tap dancing of Teresa Doyle and Electa Roberts, which has been brought to a fine art by this clever couple, also called for a double encore. Mr. Frank McIntyre, who equally at home in producing a play, acting a part or singing a lusty song, doubled with Jim Flanagan in two stirring duets, "The Gardemes" and "Stout Hearted Men", the latter as an encore. Hugh Spitzley as an accordion soloist received a splendid hearing on his first appearance here and from the expressions of appreciation heard on all sides, he is a welcome addition to our local musical talent.

Two clever little people, Virginia MacDougall and Margaret MacIntyre won the hearts of all present when they sang in costume "The Easter Parade" and after a quick change in costume appeared again to sing another delightful number, "The Wedding of Jack and Jill". Mr. Amos Curley was violinist accompanying the tap dancing, along with the orchestra, and Mr. Redmond Soy provided the piano accompaniment for the male duet. Miss Helen Patricia MacDonald was at the piano for the singing by Miss Blake and the children's duet.

Miss Dorothy MacAleer had charge of the makeup. The Downtowners Orchestra capably performed when required throughout the evening. Members are Les Alexander, Edith May, Ivo Curdmore, Redmond Soy, Wendell Murphy and Jimmie Coady. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, speaking on behalf of the ladies of St. Charles Auxiliary expressed sincere thanks to all those who for many years past and especially at this time, have contributed to their efforts on behalf of the Charlottetown Hospital and those whom they desire to serve. The Doctor also referred to the splendid work done each Easter for many years by Mr. J. Austin "Theor" in producing the annual play for the Society and commended Mr. Frank McIntyre as a worthy successor in his production of the evening.

Red Cross Fund Raising Campaign

Returns to date in the 1953 Red Cross Campaign now total in the vicinity of $12,000, according to the report presented on behalf of Brig. W. W. Reid, Provincial Campaign Chairman, at the regular monthly meeting of the Provincial Red Cross Executive last week. Partial returns from Charlottetown show some $7,437.65 has been subscribed to date on an objective of $15,000, but with many Teams still to be heard from it is felt the receipts so far are encouraging. 36 of the 147 districts in Queen's County have already completed the collection and made returns amounting to $1,478.00. In Summerside, where a whirl-wind canvass, in conjunction with a radio programme was done on Tuesday evening, March 31st, when over $3,000, was subscribed but the Committee expects to reach its objective of $4,000, in the near future.

Malenkov's New

Continued from page 1 ment may imply that the power of the dreaded secret police now will be lessened. It may mean that Malenkov wants to introduce "a liberal reform" into police and prison methods, perhaps advised on this score by his No. 2 man, Lavrenti Beria. No one outside the Kremlin can at present know the extent to which Malenkov intends to go in this matter.

Principle Established

But already a principle of far-reaching importance has been established. Soviet citizens may well argue that if the state can be wrong about one thing it can be wrong about another. About international policy, for instance, as well as about domestic affairs. "The start of a liberal reform" in Russia could give rise to a demand that the press should be freed of state control and given at least some freedom to criticize independently the state administration. It could cause Russians to question whether the Communist party is the sole repository of truth, as Stalin always maintained. This kind of development inside the Soviet Union would be of vastly more importance in the historical sense than a switch of policy on the international front. It could mean that the era of 100-per-cent personal dictatorship in the Stalin sense had come to an end.

New Slant On Heart Disease

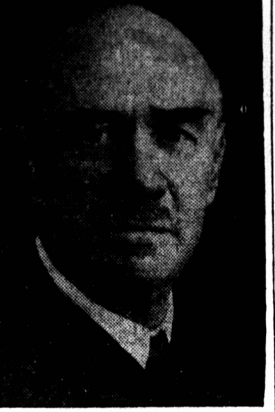

MONTREAL (CP) - The best thing for you if you suffer from a heart disease could be to go right on working, says Dr. Harold Segnal, president of the Canadian Heart Association, in the current issue of Health magazine. Dr. Segal, well-known cardiac specialist, says from 80 to 90 per cent of Canadians suffering heart diseases which doctors can recognize, are working and living normally and should continue to do so. "Until very recently it was thought that the slightest damage of the heart resulted in instant death," he said. "Nothing could be further from the truth. The heart is a tough, strong muscular organ that can take a lot of punishment and do its work for a long life time." Dr. Segal says heart disease is more prevalent than previously, but people are living longer.

Rt. Rev. Dr. Scott

Tuesday, following the reception. The Moderator will resume his tour of mainland points by leaving for New Glasgow on Wednesday morning. Dr. Scott is a native of Canada, having been born in Ontario and educated in the public and high schools of Carleton Place. He graduated from the University of Toronto (University College) in 1908 and from Knox College in 1911. On completing his theological course he spent a year in post-graduate study at the United Free Church College, Glasgow, and New College, Edinburgh. In 1912 he was ordained by the Presbytery of Lanark and Renfrew of the Presbyterian Church and went at once to India to join the staff of the Indore Christian College, where he now holds the position of Principal. He was elected Moderator of the United Church in Canada last September. During his stay in this Province, the Moderator will be the guest of the Executive of the P. E. Island Presbytery, under the chairmanship of Rev. D. W. MacPherson of Murray Harbour.

Experiments In Cucumber Growing

An experiment on spacing distances with cucumbers conducted at the Charlottetown Experimental Station has shown some interesting results. The experiment was begun in 1948 and completed in 1952, the results proving that close spacing gives the highest yields and the best cash returns per acre.

The experiments was laid out in two series, reports C. G. Warren of the Charlottetown Station, one with the rows spaced six feet apart, the other with the rows spaced eight feet apart. The plants in each series were thinned to stand one, and one-half, two, two and one-half and three feet apart.

In the first series the one-foot spacings yielded 7,646 lb. of fruit, while the three-foot spacings produced only 4,887 lb. In the second series, the one-foot spacings produced 6,235 lb. as against 3,340 lb. for the eight-foot spacings. When the one foot spacings of the two series are compared, the plants thinned to stand one foot by six feet apart outyielded those at one foot by eight feet apart by 1,411 lb.

Perhaps a better way of comparing the different plots, Mr. Warren states, is on the basis of total cash received per acre for the graded fruit. The prices received for the various plots were as follows: one by six feet, $74.72; three by six feet, $179.28; one by eight feet, $210.39; three by eight feet, $126.18. It is thus seen that the one by six feet plots gave a net increase over the one by eight plots of $64.33.

Even closer spacings than those outlined in the experiment might be used but consideration must be given to present methods of harvesting, as well as cultivation and weeding.

Eisenhower Plans Short Holiday

WASHINGTON, (AP) - President Eisenhower will fly to Augusta, Ga., April 18 for at least a week of golf, the White House announced Monday. Eisenhower will interrupt his stay at the

Producing Honey With Package Bees

A two-pound package of bees installed during the last week of April, or the first week in May, with abundance of stores in the hive, will, under normal weather conditions, produce a good average crop of honey, says W. A. Burns, Apiarist at the Dominion Experimental Station here.

In experiments conducted at the Charlottetown Station, in which two and three pound packages were installed at different dates, it was found that the two-pound package installed within the dates mentioned gave best results. The difference in yield from the three-pound size was not sufficient to pay the extra cost.

Package bees must have abundant stores available at all times if they are to be strong at the beginning of the main flow, says Mr. Burns, and in Prince Edward Island bee keepers must have sufficient feed available until at least July 1st. The practice of feeding the bees only until the first bloom appears is, in many cases, the cause of weak colonies resulting in reduced crops of honey. The hive on the scales at the Charlottetown Station in 1952 indicated there was a net loss in weight of five pounds from June 17th to June 30th and that the bees were not securing enough from outside sources for their requirements.

Augusta National Golf Club to return to Washington for a few hours April 16 to make a major address at the annual meeting of the American Society of Newspaper Editors.
