

THE DAILY EXAMINER. JULY 2, 1881.

The pressure of local news is so great to-day that we are compelled to hold over Observer's Notes of the past month and some other matter, until Monday.

St. Peter's Schools.

The Annual Distribution of prizes at these schools took place on Thursday evening. The Hon. F. Brecken presented the prizes, and was most happy in an appropriate speech to each fortunate recipient.

Rev. G. W. Hodgson stated that the written examinations had been conducted for ten days. The Greek class had been reading Xenophon's Anabasis. There are five Latin classes which include all in the Boys' School.

The Scripture instruction was altogether on Old and New Testament History.

Canadian History has been thoroughly studied by the senior class, and Edith Thompson's English History by the juniors.

The boys of the general information class have received some slight instruction on Botany and have had their attention drawn to the current events of the day.

The Junior School under the efficient charge of Miss DesBrisay, shows that it has been carefully taught in the various branches.

It must be satisfactory to the friends of these schools to know that the number of pupils enrolled during the past year was more than at any previous time.

We were pleased at the handsome display of prizes upon the table, and glad to observe that they were mostly editions of standard poets.

For highest total of daily marks in all subjects, for Lent and Trinity Terms: 1st division, Hunt (St. Eleanor's); 2nd div., Newbery; 3rd div., Hyde.

For highest total marks gained in all subjects at the Christmas, Lent and Trinity Examinations: 1st div. Swabey; 2nd div., Irving; 3rd div., C. McNab, 2nd Foster.

A Palmer, E. Leigh, Constance Webb, Ethel Scott, Maud Davis, Arthur Carvell. Before the close of the proceedings, the boys presented the Rev. R. D. Bambrick with a handsome travelling dressing case. We were informed that it is the custom at this school to allow no presentations to the teachers, except when a teacher is leaving the school. The boys took advantage of the exception, and the presentation was made, accompanied by a complimentary speech by Mr. Brecken, who expressed great regret at the departure of the Reverend gentleman. Mr. Hodgson also expressed regret for the same, and appreciation of Mr. Bambrick's services. Mr. Hodgson stated that he hoped to announce Mr. Bambrick's successor in a few days.

We congratulate the schools on their well-deserved success, and hope they may continue to retain the confidence they have won.

The Races at Summerside.

The races at Summerside yesterday, notwithstanding the unpromising weather, were attended by an immense assemblage of people. The track was in excellent condition, and the races would have been most interesting and enjoyable, had not the admirers of certain horses which took part, amid wild whoops and howls, attempted to assume judgment of heats, and in these give places to their favorite horses to which, it is needless to say, they had no right whatever.

GENTLEMAN'S DRIVING RACE.

The first rang up was the gentleman's driving race. In it Mr. J. Richard's big "Garfield," G. Sims' byg, "Ned Hanlan," Mr. P. A. Larkin's "Silver Tail," and Mr. W. Jones' "Bideford Boy," started. The first named won easily, with "Bideford Boy" second, and "Ned Hanlan" third.

FOUR YEAR OLD RACE. The four year old race was looked upon as the most interesting on the programme, but through the interference of the spectators and wrangling of two of the jockeys, it was deprived of a great portion of its interest.

Four horses started, viz: Mr. Robert Grubb's, Don Carlos, Mr. Patrick Read's by m., River Queen, Mr. John McLean's Black Bird and John Irving's by g, Honest Bill. Don Carlos took first money, River Queen second, and Black Bird third. Honest Bill being ruled out in the third heat for fouling Black Bird. Don Carlos, the winner, is a medium sized grey horse, of remarkably symmetrical form. He is of thoroughbred stock, and has the speed and style which makes him every inch a trotter.

FREE-FOR-ALL RACE. The free-for-all race was the best on the programme. Three horses entered, Mr. S. T. Jenkins' by s. Young Hambletonian, Mr. J. D. McLeod's Lady Bagnall, and Mr. Donald McKinnon's Wild Harry. The last named took first place, Young Hambletonian second, and Lady Bagnall third. The winner is a small bay pacing stallion, recently imported, and in this race showed very good speed.

THE RUNNING RACE. In the running race four horses entered, Stanley Winslow's b. m. Flora Lane, John McPhee's by g. Jack Lane, J. Boness's Foxhall, and G. Clow's by g. Last Chance. The race was mile heats, best two in three, and Flora Lane finished an easy victor in two straight heats, with Last Chance second.

Supreme Court.

The Grand Jury have brought in a true bill against Lemuel Cameron for larceny, and against John and Patrick McCloskey, McRae and McLean, attendants at the Asylum, for grievous bodily assault. They have made a representation concerning Government Pond, and report that the Jail, the Poor House, and the Hospital for the Insane are in good order. The following is their report concerning the latter:—The Grand Jury visited the Hospital for the Insane on Thursday last, and after a thorough examination of all parts of the building, made the following report:—

The Grand Jury this day visited the Hospital for the Insane, and beg to report that they have found everything in a condition that reflects the highest credit on the Superintendent and his assistants. The unfortunate creatures under the charge of Dr. Blanchard appear to be well treated, and the bedding used by them is exceptionally good. Everything appears to be admirably conducted.

Weather Bulletin. Probabilities for the next 24 hours for the Maritime Provinces. TORONTO, July 2—10 a. m. Light to moderate winds; fine warm weather.

A boy employed in the Summerside Progress office had two fingers of his right hand badly smashed while working a press yesterday morning. The fore finger will have to be amputated.

Our Boys at Sussex. THE TRIP OVER! Arrival at Sussex!! THE BOSS BATTALION.

Sussex, N. B., June 30.

You no doubt will be disappointed at not receiving the account of the journey of the 82nd Battalion from Charlottetown before this. But the fact is, on reaching the camp everybody was busy up to ten o'clock getting themselves as comfortable as possible for the night, after which time all lights were put out, and of course no writing could be done then. When leaving Charlottetown the weather was very dull and heavy. However, all were in high spirits, and the Band cheered us up by playing "The Girl I Left Behind Me."

Violent and Mysterious Death of a Child. WAS IT ACCIDENTAL? About 8 o'clock on Thursday evening, Artemas Lord, Esq., and his wife were walking in Roshford street on their way home. When near the crossing on Grafton street, a child, about five years old, suddenly ran round the corner and stopped, meaning, as if in pain, at the door of a house occupied by Mr. Peebles.

through to-morrow before the Governor General. The 82nd battalion of this afternoon's manoeuvres was so steady and made such a fine appearance, that they carried off the palm, and were especially complimented by Major General Luard. They had three hours a half very hard work, and when they came into camp some of the younger men looked quite fagged.

The Home of Beauty. Thou Sprite of Beauty, sweet and shy, I've chased thee like the butterfly, O'er broad Columbia, fair and free, And climes between the foaming sea, Our wide Dominions, shore to shore, And where the thundering torrents roar, To woo thy love and win thy smile, And find thy Home is Edward's Isle!

Tis there thou dwelt in pastime free, Beneath the spreading greenwood tree, Where choral Birds, at dawn of day, Invoke their loves on flowery spray, Where rivers roll, thro' glades of green, And flowers blush, thro' haunts unseen, And pleasure beckons with a smile, To share her joys in Edward's Isle!

Tis there I'd live, 'tis there I'd die, Where rivers roll, and song birds fly, Where echo learns the lovers strain, And soft repeats the sweet refrain; 'Tis there with Beauty I'd reside, And plunge thro' foamy Ocean's tide, Till Health attests with brilliant smile, The genial charms of Edward's Isle!

Then to thy precincts let me flee, Thou Daughter of the foaming sea, And gloat thy Beauty, as of yore, When Venus sprang from Cyprus shore, And gained the palm of Beauty's prize As thou fair Isle, all matchless lies, While turrets gay shall woo thy smile, And bless the shores of Edward's Isle!
