GRATIS AUX FEMMES qui Boulangent Elles-mêmes

Des milliers de dames nous demandent toutes les semaines les recettes "Royal Household"—ces recettes indiquent la nouvelle et la manière la plus facile de faire le pain. Faites un essai avec la nouvelle farine "Royal Household," qui est purifiée par l'électricité—vous ne sauriez croire qu'il puisse y avoir autant de différence entre diverses farines—les recettes valent certainement la peine d'être demandées.

VOICI, ENTRE DES MILLIERS, UN TEMOIGNAGE QUE NOUS AVONS ECU.

SAVONAS, THREE MILLS CREEK, C.A., 28 Novembre 1904.

Je me suis servi de votre farine exclusivement depuis que je suis au Canada, il y a 14 ans et j'ai essayé la farine "Royal Household" aussitôt qu'elle a été mise sur le marché. Pour vous montrer combien je la préfère aux autres, je vous dirai, qu'il y a quelque temps, mon épicier m'a manqué et que j'en envoyai chercher à Kamloops, à 25 milles d'ici, d'où je dus la faire expédier par chemin de fer, prévoyant payer le transport que de me servir de farine de qualité inférieure. Je crois que si je ne pouvais pas l'avoir autrement, je me la ferais expédier des moulins. Avec elle je suis certain de toujours avoir de bon pain et rien n'apporte mieux l'accord dans le ménage.

SUMMERSIDE P. E. I.

July 6th 1906

Le ministère des travaux publics recevra jusqu'à jeudi, 2 août 1906, inclusivement, des soumissions pour les réparations, le rehaussement, etc., du brise-lames à Souris, comté de Kings, I. P. E., lesquelles devront être cachetées, adressées au soussigné et porter sur leur enveloppe, en sus de l'adresse, les mots: "Soumission pour réparations, brise-lames de Souris."

On peut consulter le plan et le devis en s'adressant au bureau de M. J. B. Hegan, ingénieur résident, Charlottetown, I. P. E., ainsi qu'au ministère des travaux publics, à Ottawa.

Les soumissions devront être libellées sur les imprimés que le ministère fournit à cette fin et devront porter la signature des soumissionnaires.

Un chèque de quatre cents dollar ($400.00.) à l'ordre de l'honorable ministre des travaux publics et accepté par une banque à charte, devra accompagner chaque soumission. Ce chèque sera confié si l'entrepreneur dont la soumission aura été acceptée refuse de signer le contrat d'entreprise ou n'exécute pas intégralement ce contrat.

Les chèques dont on aura accompagné les soumissions qui n'auront pas été acceptées seront remis.

Le ministère ne s'engage à accepter ni la plus basse ni aucune des soumissions.

Par ordre, FRED GELINAS, Secrétaire.

Ministère des travaux publics, Ottawa, 14 juillet 1906.

N. B.—Le ministère ne reconnaîtra aucune note pour la publication de l'avis ci-dessus, lorsqu'il n'aura pas expressément autorisé cette publication.

Let Us Send You the

COSMOPOLITAN MAGAZINE

THREE months, FREE

Three months' free trial for merely sending your name. No money,—no letter,—nothing but your address on the attached coupon. If, after three months' trial, you wish to have the magazine stopped,—merely tell us,—and the copies received will cost you nothing. You are to be the intelligent judge. And there'll be no questions, no quibbling,—nothing. We'll leave the decision all to you. If, after three months' test you find you need the COSMOPOLITAN, let us send you the magazine for the full year.

Remember, though, that in reading the COSMOPOLITAN, you are reading one of the oldest high class magazines published in America. Such eminent and great men have in the past contributed to the reputation of the COSMOPOLITAN as President Roosevelt, Mark Twain, President Eliot, John W. Wainwright, Count Tolstoi, Henry Watterson, Jas Whitcomb Riley, etc, etc.

The following list of eminent contributors—taken from among a hundred others—will indicate the remarkably high standard that will be maintained by the COSMOPOLITAN:—FICTION: Sir Gilbert Parker, Alfred Henry Lewis, Booth Tarkington, ART: Frederic Remington, Henri Lanois, Frank Verbeck, SPECIAL: Henry Watterson, Edwin Markham, Elbert Hubbard.

No fonder array of talent could possibly be offered than the list of world specialists named above.

"Home" magazine is the key note to the COSMOPOLITAN. In no sense is the COSMOPOLITAN a small, cheap, 16-page mail-order monthly. It is, to the contrary, a great 240-page illustrated home magazine. Its editorial policy aims at every phase of clean, wholesome home life. An abundance of bright stories, full of fun, life and action, will interest every member of the family. Topics of the day are treated sanely, by experts of international reputation—political reform, international affairs, economics, social problems,—and a hundred other timely topics of which every intelligent man or woman must be informed.

The COSMOPOLITAN also affords unusual advantages for the refining and educative value of art.—Remington, Lanois, Fogarty, Terbeck, are only a few of the masters represented. The COSMOPOLITAN, furthermore, has just begun one of the most remarkable exposés ever attempted by a contemporary magazine.—"The Treason of the Senate," by David Graham Phillips.

It will be strictly impossible, during this series, for us to insure newspaper purchasers a copy of the magazine, but,

We do guarantee that all readers who have, under this special offer, applied direct to the office for copies, will receive regularly the magazine during this brilliant series of articles. Be sure to read this most scathing of all political exposures.

We thoroughly believe that every intelligent reader will not only take but actually want the COSMOPOLITAN, should he once see the magazine itself.

And that's why we offer a three months' free trial at our expense. We leave the decision entirely upon the merit of the monthly.

If you don't like the three months received, you may stop the paper, and the copies received won't cost you a cent.

The offer is clear, plain, straightforward.

You are to be the only judge. We are going to leave it all to your decision.

Could anything be more fair? Fill out to-day the coupon below—place in an envelope—re-mail to us—and receive three months' test free. But mail the coupon to-day—tomorrow will never come.
