

Miscouche Pupils Pay Homage

—On May 30, the pupils of Marian Academy, Miscouche, joined in solemn procession to pay homage to the Blessed Mother of God.

The procession left the convent at 6:30, and entered St. John the Baptist Church singing "Immaculate Mary". Sister St. Mary Lutgarde, musician at the Academy, accompanied at the organ. Other hymns rendered were "Nous Vous louons Dieu", and "Bring flowers of the fairest".

The honour of crowning and adorning the Blessed Lady with May flowers was this year reserved for the boys. The crowning was performed by Edward LeClair, Grade XI, while baskets of flowers were carried, and placed near the statue of Mary by Armand Gaudet, Grade XI, George Power, Arnold Power, Junior F. DesRoches, Maurice Gaudet and Tommy Williams, all of Grade X.

The banner was carried by Miss Patricia Oakes, and the banner ribbons were carried by boys of Miss Oakes class, Eddie Gaudet, Eric McKinnon, Anthony Gallant, and Ronald Arsenault. The procession was headed by the cross-bearer, Peter Steele, Grade XI, and by the acolytes, Lionel and Armand DesRoches Grade VII.

After the procession, the pastor Rev. J. D. Kelly, spoke to the youth of the parish and their parents on the importance and necessity of devotion to Mary. He quoted the Holy Father, saying: "Stay close to Jesus and Mary and imitate them, in order to save your souls, and help save the Church."

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament followed, with Father Kelly officiating. The parish choir, accompanied by Miss Phyllis Gaudet at the organ, rendered "Pans Angelicus" and other solemn Benediction hymns.

At the close of the ceremony, the children once more blended their voices in the singing of "Bon soir, Douce Marie."

Passes in N.Y.

—Funeral services were recently conducted for the late Henry Veron Barbot, who died on May 28 in Kingsbridge Veterans Hospital, N. Y., after a very brief illness, just before his 55th birthday. Mr. Barbot was a disabled veteran of World War I. Burial was in Arlington National Cemetery, Virginia.

Born on June 7, 1899 in Camden, N. J., Mr. Barbot was the son of the late Wingate Pillsbury and Eugenie Veron Barbot and a brother of the late Mrs. Raymond Haabrouck. After World War I he finished his higher education, which he had started at Swarthmore before entering the service, and was graduated in 1928 from the University of Pennsylvania. Surviving is his wife, Mrs. Kathleen Jeffery Barbot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Jeffery, Summerside.
