Good Poppy Sale
Expected In S'ide

Sales of poppies and poppy wreaths are expected to jump 10% over last year, according to Robert Clark, Chairman Wreath and Poppy Committee, Summerside Branch Canadian Legion.

The prediction is based on the fact that sales increased 10% last year and insufficient supplies were available to meet the heavy demand. There was a particularly heavy sale of poppy wreaths due to the increased number of citizens of Summerside who indicated a desire to dedicate a wreath at the Remembrance Day Ceremony.

Mr. Clark went on to say that it was now more generally known that over 90% of the proceeds were retained in Summerside and that this permitted Branch No. 5 to carry on its task of providing assistance to all veterans of the community in distress whether members of the Legion or not.

The Poppy Committee Chairman of Summerside has selected Saturday, November 7, as the day on which the annual street sales of poppies will be held. A house to house canvass of Slemom Park, St. Eleanor's area and Travellers Rest area will also be made on Saturday morning.

Mr. Clark urges every citizen of Summerside to be sure to buy a poppy on the first opportunity and wear it regularly till Remembrance Day.

will open for business on Monday evening for the purpose of receiv-

At a meeting of the board of committee was appointed to try and engage the Town Hall for an

It was thought that such an office could be obtained in two or three weeks. The exact place of meeting for Monday night's meeting was to be determined today and advertised in Monday's Guar-

It was decided that the business hours would be from 7 until 8:30 p.m. every Monday evening, and it was agreed that one or more persons would assist the treasurer, Mr. Chester MacDonald, in acting as receivers of deposits on any

Miners Score

Islanders' line and cut across the Islanders' defense before dropping a pass. Miller shot the puck and his rising 30 footer hit the far post before dropping into the coridge.

Throughout the period Bukko Trainer came up with several good defensive plays. On one occasion he narrowly escaped a serious injury when he slid into the goal post while attempting to take Miller out of the play.

Trainer and Frank Dorrington set up Elwood Ritchie for the Islanders' third goal early in the second period. Ritchie, who was uncovered in front of the net, slapped in Dorrington's pass after the latter had been set up by Trainer at the goal mouth.

Big, red-headed Kevin Rochford scored his second goal of the season, seven minutes after Ritchie's counter. He batted in Fyles' rebound from close range following a Glace Bay attack.

Roper outgassed Gray four minutes after the third period started and twice within the next minute he beat Towers from close range.
Trainer set up Towers for the first try with a beautiful pass and then Towers got a breakaway from centre ice.

The Islanders continued to pepper Roper but found him unbeatable. One of their assaults they were caught with the ice and three Miners broke out with only defensesman Don McLaughlin back on the Islanders' line.

Brown streaked down the left wing and blazed an ankle high shot from 20 feet out that zipped into the far corner. Twenty-two seconds later Cooper intercepted an Islanders pass-out and fed Connolly a short pass. Hughie Campbell knocked Connolly's shot behind Bessette to put the Miners ahead 4-3.

Fyles scored the winner five minutes later. Again the Islanders' defense was caught up and the ice and Brown broke out with Fyles and only Trainer back. Brown fed Fyles a short pass and the latter knocked in his own rebound.

The Islanders got that one back while Cooper of the Miners sat in the penalty box. Whitlock was the marksman as he swooped in on a loose puck and flipped the disc behind Roper.

With 38 seconds left in the game Trainer of the Miners was given a penalty. The Islanders drew their goalie and used the extra forward but failed to get a shot on net.

A face-off was called on the Islanders' line with 15 seconds left in the game. The Islanders worked the puck into Glace Bay territory and around the cage but a pileup in front of the net stopped play with only a second remaining.

Goedie Kelly of Summerside replaced Art Perry as a linesman for the game. Perry is ill with the flu.

Line-up:
Glace Bay — Goal: Roper; defence: Cooper, Amadio, Whyte, Treen; forwards: Campbell, Miller, Fyles, Rochford, Brown, Connolly, O'Leary.

Charlottetown — Goal: Bessette; defence: Gusterson, McLaughlin, Tysbko, Trainor; forwards: Whitlock, Gray, Saindon, Dorrington, Hennessy, Ritchie, Towers.

Officials: Laurie Powers, Square-briggs and Kelly.

Delegation Asks
Power Extension

A delegation of about 20 men from the districts of Bayside, Arlington, Birch Hill, Port Hill and Cross Rivers met last evening with the Summerside Town Council and officers of the Electric Light Department to request extension of the town-owned electric light lines to serve these areas.

As a result of last night's meeting these areas will be surveyed on Monday by members of the Electric Light Department from Summerside, and if the project seems feasible and the approval of the Public Utilities Board obtained, these districts look forward to obtaining light and power when the present work schedule of the Summerside Electric Light Department will permit the installation of the requested extension.

Smokehouse For Curing Surplus
Herring Discussed

A meeting of the fishermen in the Summerside area held in the Town Hall last evening discussed the desirability of having a smokehouse to cure the surplus herring catches for which markets cannot be found.

The meeting was in complete agreement on the advantage of such a smokehouse and expressed the belief that about 50 percent of the present herring catches were being lost by the fishermen through lack of markets and curing facilities.

Considerable discussion took place on the fishing industry in the Summerside area and of methods and procedures used in curing and smoking herring.

The meeting was called and presided over by Mr. Lester Jenkins of Summerside, and was addressed by Mr. Harold MacLeod of the Department of Fisheries.

Another meeting will be held later to further discuss and consider the proposed smokehouse at Summerside, after more information on the matter has been assembled and studied.

Quebec Plans
Budworm Control

QUEBEC (CP)—The Quebec government and three newspaper companies will share the cost of fighting a budworm epidemic in Gaspé peninsula and Matapedia valley forests, Premier Duplessis announced Friday.

Cost of spraying the forests by air is estimated at between $350, 000 and $400,000. Mr. Duplessis said at his weekly press conference.

The government will pay half the cost as forests damaged by budworms are crown lands leased to the operators.

Agreement on the operation was reached this week with officials of Canadian International Paper Company, Price Brothers Company Limited, Quebec North Star Paper Company, and the Quebec Forest Protective Association.

Mr. Duplessis referred to a similar epidemic in New Brunswick where DDT was sprayed by low-flying planes.

36th Anniversary
Of Revolution In Russia Observed

LONDON (Reuters)—An increased flood of food and consumer goods gave Russians something personal to celebrate today, Moscow radio said, as festivities marking the 36th anniversary of the Russian revolution got under way throughout the Soviet Union.

The official anniversary of the downfall of the moderate Kerensky government to the Bolsheviks falls Saturday. Russian cities are already bedecked with flowers and bunting.

A national policy statement by a leading figure, possibly Prime Minister Malenkov himself, will be broadcast from the stage of Moscow's Bolshoi theatre tonight.

Soviet leaders will be present in force at the ceremony, which will be transmitted by radio stations throughout the country.

The name of the leader who will deliver the address is as usual an official secret until the moment he mounts the rostrum. Malenkov delivered the speech as Stalin's right-hand man four years ago.

The 1902 eruption of Mont Pelee destroyed St. Pierre, Martinique, and caused about 30,000 deaths.

Dancing And Old Time
Fiddling Contest Enjoyed
At S'ide Last Night

Mr. Anthony Perry of Tignish was adjudged as first place winner in the step dancing contest held in the Summerside High School auditorium last evening, sponsored by the Summerside Y's Men's Club. Second place winners were Peter Gaudet of Summerside and Gabriel Finnain of O'Leary whom the judges considered to be as equal that their dancing was declared a tie.

In the ladies division Mrs. Fred Matthews of Summerside placed first while Miss Diane Perry of Summerside won second prize.

In the old time fiddling contest Mr. William Chaisson of Borden got the nod from the four judges and placed first while Mr.
Elmer Robinson of Mt. Pleasant was a close second.

The first place winners in the fiddling and dancing held last night heavy on the evening contest in the finals which will be held in Charlottetown at a later date, sponsored by the Charlottetown Y's Men's Club.

In the old time square dancing contest three groups were entered, the Summerside Star Dusters, the Sherbrooke Hoedowners and the Summerside Hoedowners. The Hoedowners were declared the winners and were recalled to the stage to receive the plaudits of the audience. Their club was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Don Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mac-Jellan.

The Sherbrooke Calf Club was made up of Junior Colwill, Lelia Townsend, Arnold Madson, Mrs.
Adrian Dekker, John Dekker, Francis Dekker, Carl Chappell and Kathleen Dekker.

The Summerside Star Dusters were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clow, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Gallant, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Gallant and Dr. and Mrs. Aubin Doiron.

The large auditorium was packed to the doors with an audience that came from points as far west as Tignish and east as far as Borden. The "standing room only" sign was hung out early in the evening and the show opened under the smooth mantle of ceremonies, Mr. Ken Walker, who started off the hilarity by proceeding to hypnotize a straw man standing at the rear of the stage which later developed into the person of Jim Murphy who demonstrated that he was far from being a scare crow by putting on a fancy demonstration of "heel and toe" to the great amusement of the audience.

As the evening progressed the fun grew fast and furious and at one high point nearly all the step dancing contestants were planking it down to the music of four of the fiddlers, said orchestra being augmented by the harmonica playing of Isaac Fraser, Mark Cosgrove on the "Old 88" and Phillip Richards of Tignish on the "Spook" enthusiasm soon reached a point where even some judges were unable to stay in their seats and one of them, Mr. Parnell Cosgrove, was demonstrating to the young contestants that he still had that old agility that once made him one of the outstanding step dancers in the Province while the other judges, Reuben Tuplin, tuned up a fiddle and showed he had the stuff that champions are made of.

When the master of ceremonies discovered that the inimitable Felix Gallant was present there then ensued a demand by the audience that he demonstrate his well known ability that has placed him among the "greats" in the art of step dancing. His "buck and wing" performance was something that might be envied by many of the young contestants and Felix once more showed that he is certainly improving with age.

Mr. Ross MacKenzie was master of ceremonies for the fiddling contest while Jim Murphy presided at the mike for the old time square dances.

Vessels, Edmonton's powerful running back, described as "Canada's prize catch." One shows him in the pulpit of an Edmonton church by invitation of the pastor. In the second, he is being brought down by two Saskatchewan Roughriders in a Western Interprovincial Football game.

The article describes Vessels' record as particularly impressive because of his open-field runs. Lack of protection of the downfield back he received in his college days at Oklahoma.

Other pictures show some of the attractions that brought big-time players to Edmonton. End Tom Johlandskis is shown with a shotgun. Out after the plant before nightly football practice. Arnold and his family sit on the steps of their home in Edmonton, where he plans to deal in oil leases.

The distress was felt by Mr.
St. Laurent's staff, plagued most of the day with telephone calls.

ley was shipped in 1903.
