

THE PEOPLES' CANDIDATES

QUEEN'S COUNTY: Brecken and Jenkins. PRINCE COUNTY: Hackett and Rogers. KING'S COUNTY: McDonald and Muttart. THE DAILY EXAMINER JUNE 14, 1882.

Acclamation!

THE mandate of the great Blake to the contrary notwithstanding, the following members and supporters of the Government have been elected by acclamation:—

- Sir Charles Tupper, Hon. John Costigan, Hon. Mr. Mousseau, Hon. Peter Mitchell, Hon. Mr. Abbott, Mr. Kirkpatrick, and eleven others.

How does this fact consort with the assertion that the Grits are carrying everything before them?

Without a doubt the Government will be sustained by a large majority of the people; and there is no question that the public opinion of Prince Edward Island is in rapport with that of the rest of Canada. The little Island is not going to be left out in the cool shades of opposition. We appreciate a good, generous Government; and we shall try—every man ought to try his best—to give them, from this Island, five supporters in Parliament, and one Cabinet Minister.

Prices.

WHEN every man knows by his own personal, practical, every day experience, that prices are not, on the whole, higher than they were before 1875, it is evidently unnecessary to meet the statements of Messrs. Laird, Davies & Co., that impost duties have been raised on certain articles. But here are some figures set forth by a correspondent of the Moncton Times.

The following table will show the amount of tax the poor and rich men pay on similar classes of goods by the yard as well as per cent:—

Table with columns: POOR MAN, Tax per cent, Tax per yard. Rows include Tweed Coat, do. Trowsers and Vest, Low Quality Cotton, Cheap Denims, Cheap Canton Flannel, do. Duck, do. chkd & striped shirtings, do. Blanket per lb., Winceys average.

Table with columns: RICH MAN, Tax per cent, Tax per yard. Rows include Broadcloth, Fine French Worsted, Fine Quality Fancy Shirting, Superior Qu'ty White Cotton, Expensive Denims, Expensive Canton Flannel, Expensive Duck, Sup'or Qu'ty Blanket per lb., Silk.

It will be seen, says the correspondent, that the percentage mode of reckoning duties on these goods does not show the real tax, even if the goods are all imported; but it must be remembered that the greater part of the poor man's necessities are manufactured in the country, while a great deal of the rich man's luxuries come from abroad; and the latter under the wise fiscal policy of the country really pays the greatest tax.

A Significant Warning.

The tremendous exertions which are being made by the unscrupulous Grits of this Province are made evident by a significant paragraph in Monday night's issue of the Patriot:—"It must be remembered," says the Patriot, "that the Dominion law, with respect to the expenditure of money in election contests, is exceedingly stringent. A very simple and apparently innocent act may vitiate the election. Our friends should be on their guard and keep strictly within the law."

The editor of the Patriot has evidently a reasonable fear lest some of the "Party of Purity" may "elevate the standard" just a little higher, and that the corruption hidden behind it may be discovered. Honest men don't need a warning not to steal; nor do pure politicians require to be warned against spending money too—too freely.

"It is a fact that many manufacturers and mechanics depending upon their disregard of the loose and unauthorized distributive of the Globe regarding the National Policy, and leaving the duty on coal and bread-stuffs to mere exercises upon an otherwise truly National Policy, are throwing in their sympathies and their assistance with the Liberal party, on the strength of Mr. Blake's declaration of policy on that subject."

Our readers will be surprised to learn that that paragraph is clipped from the Patriot—by which it was clipped from the Toronto World. So, if the Grits get into power, we are still to have "the National Policy" and the high taxes which the Patriot prates about, without the advantages which farmers and coal miners have, under the existing arrangement of the tariff. In other words, our farmers and coal miners are still to bear "the high taxes" for the benefit of the manufacturer and mechanic, without the compensating advantages which they now possess; and the Free Trade is quite content.

We do not wonder that the manufacturers of Ontario rather like the idea of a tariff which would let the coal they use in free of duty, and at the same time give them all the Protection they now have.

Nor is it strange that they favorably regard the placing of duty, etc., on the free list. But the farmers and coal miners would evidently suffer; for they would not only lose the advantages they now possess in our own markets; but they would have to make up the revenue which would be lost.

What have our farmers to say to this? The Meeting Last Evening.

The meeting, held in the Rink last evening, was well attended. A number of ladies graced the gallery. Colonel Beer occupied the chair. The candidates each spoke about an hour; and shortly before twelve o'clock the audience dispersed with cheers for Blake, Laird and Davies, the Queen and Sir John McDonald. The Grit organizers of the meeting had the cheers under good management; but they didn't count on the cheer for Sir John.

Mr. L. H. Davies occupies a rather difficult position. He is a "Free Trader," following a Leader who says "Free Trade is impossible;" and having neglected to press our "distinctive claim" to a share of the Fishery Award, when he had the opportunity, he asks to be returned that he may now do so. In other words he might as well huffly say: "Gentlemen, I failed you as the critical moment; therefore, place your confidence in me—elect me, and I'll be sure to do my very best—now that it is too late.

Occupying this absurdly ridiculous position—on the horns of a dilemma from which he cannot possibly escape—Mr. L. H. Davies, with characteristic audacity, was the first to speak.

It was a fine piece of audacity in Mr. Davies to challenge the Land Policy, to challenge the Pacific Railway Policy, to challenge the Trade Policy of the Government. The leaders whom Mr. Davies follows have no policy (which is feasible) upon either of these subjects, and, therefore, Mr. Davies could issue his challenges in comparative safety.

QUERY—If, as Mr. Davies was forced to admit last evening, "Free Trade is for us impossible," what has he and his Patriot (?) been making such a fuss about all these years?

Mr. Davies' endorsement of Sir Richard Cartwright's famous expression—"We are flies on the wheel"—was in strange and striking contrast with Mr. Davies' concluding remark that, if victorious in the present struggle, "Mr. Blake will lead this country on to a prosperity it never enjoyed before." We have no doubt that Mr. Davies is honestly trying to be logical and consistent!

It may be true, as Mr. Davies pleaded, that the late Government ought not to be held responsible for the terrible times which existed from 1874 to 1878. But isn't it somewhat singular that the bad times came when the late Government came into power, and vanished soon after they were hurled from office by a desperate people?

MR. DAVIES referred to the understanding on which the Maritime Provinces entered the Union, that the tariff should remain at 15 per cent; and charged Sir John with a "breach of contract" for having raised it. If the charge be true, what's to be said about the action of McKenzie, Cartwright & Co.? They raised the tariff from 15 per cent to 17 1/2 per cent, and hadn't the grace to say to the people of Canada "by your leave." But Sir John submitted the question to the people: Shall the tariff be readjusted in the direction of protection, or shall it not? and acted upon the decision of the people as expressed at the polls. Mr. Davies is more careful than he was; but he is still a very loose speaker. He, of all men, shouldn't have called to mind the unauthorized and treacherous act of his leaders and friends.

As a "prophet of evil," Mr. Davies must be a pride and delight to the great master Cartwright. His remark that, on account of the National Policy, "men have been flying from their homes as from a pestilential shore," would have been worthy of the great master himself; and when he said that in some parts of the country there are "nothing but grass widows left along the road," he delighted the hearts of his true Grit supporters. The truth of both remarks is only exceeded by their wit.

But his most doleful strain was sung, in accounting for the remarkable circumstance that the Government threw up their offices a year sooner than they might have done. Don't you see—"The crops promise well in England this year, the prices of grain will consequently be low; and, this being the case, away goes the prosperity under the National Policy, just as if you pricked a bladder with a pin"—and then "ruin and desolation!"

As early as January or February last the Grits declared that the Government had decided upon having the elections this year. Did they divine, at that time, that Sir John, with his present eye, foresaw that the crops in England would be good this year? They must have done so, if the reason for now bringing on the elections given by Mr. Davies—be the true one! "Can we purchase abroad," asked Mr. Davies? "Can we not as well manufacture at home?" would be the question of a patriotic man.

Extracts. A correspondent in Wood Islands writes: "I think the Liberal Conservatives will do as well as in 1878 in this polling division."

A correspondent at Belle Creek writes: "I think if our men will turn out, Brecken and Jenkins will poll a majority of votes here."

A resident of Capraud says: Brecken and Jenkins made a good impression at our meeting. Their opponents are daily coming over to the Liberal Conservative ranks, and if our men turn out on the 20th they will poll two to one in Lot 29.

A correspondent at Montague writes: "I think McDonald and Muttart are sure to get in."

The Souris Meeting. A DISGRACEFUL SCENE.

A GENTLEMAN residing at Souris writes: "Saturday evening according to announcement, a meeting was held in the Court House here. As usual, on such occasions, there was the necessary stock of Grit rowdies and the full quota of Grit partisans called in from north, south, east and west, whose business and prerogative appear to be to stop a free and fair discussion, thereby disappointing the expectations of the intelligent portion of the community, who come to hear and judge for themselves. At half-past six the meeting was organized by appointing John Leslie, Esq., chairman, and Mr. John A. Nicholson, secretary. It was mutually agreed that the meeting should be addressed alternately by Government and Opposition speakers—the four candidates having the precedence. This programme was properly adhered to until James R. McLean, Esq., the Local Representative, relying on his position as an M. P. P., and his authority as a man, and backed by a crowd of whom he should blush to be the leader, at the close of a frothy harangue of short duration, determined to break through all agreement and order in calling upon Mr. W. D. Stewart of Charlottetown to address the meeting when it was the right of a Conservative speaker. A call was made for Mr. J. G. Sterns, but the prepared and determined rable insisted on hearing a man of far-famed notoriety, out of his turn, in preference to an honest, intelligent and respectable elector, on whose reputation there can be cast no stain. During the confusion which followed, and which continued for about half an hour, the chairman left the chair as the meeting was virtually ended."

Mr. Sterns and the most of the Conservative party left the scene, and the rabble having it all their own way, heard their man speak his speech, concluding at one o'clock on Sunday morning. Oh! shameful and disgraceful scene—desecrating the Lord's day by hooting and cheering one of the most unscrupulous and unpopular politicians to day in P. E. Island. The Grits are reported to have had a slight majority, which is nothing marvellous; for they were present in force from all parts of the country, whilst the Conservatives only turned out from the country immediately surrounding. I trust that all intelligent and Christian men will show their disapproval of such disgraceful conduct as marked the meeting of Saturday night and Sunday morning by flocking to the polls (and I have every assurance they will) and rejecting the candidates representing a party which fears neither God nor man."

REMEMBER the public meeting to-night, in the Market Hall.

The St. Peter's Meeting. We have it on the best authority that the report of the St. Peter's meeting, which appeared in the Patriot last evening, is largely erroneous. It was when Mr. McDonald proved to a demonstration that Dr. McIntosh had made a little mistake in reference to the Pacific Railway of $22,000,000 that the rowdies interfered and refused to give him the hearing which every respectable man desired that Mr. McDonald should receive. Mr. McDonald (as may well be believed) made no contemptuous allusions to any of the electors.

Don't FORGET that Senator Howlan speaks at Market Hall to-night.

"To get public money, or not to get? That's the question."—L. H. DAVIES.

Go to the Market Hall to-night.

YESTERDAY Marshal Flynn went to Hunter River, and arrested a mail driver named Burdett, who was accused by the Postmaster of robbing the mails of $160. Burdett, drives the mails from Hunter River to St. Ann's and Hope River. Recently, a number of small amounts were missed and a few days ago a letter was stolen containing $150. The Postmaster of this city made inquiries and fastened the robbery on Burdett. When he arrived in this city last night he confessed to stealing the $150 and said if the City Marshal would consent to go to Hunter River with him, he would show him (the marshal) where the money was hid. The Marshal accordingly left with the prisoner this morning and will return to-night. Burdett will be examined before Theoph. DesBrisay, Esq., J. P. to-morrow.

HON. SENATOR HOWLAN speaks in the Market Hall to-night.

TWO WEDDINGS in as many days, and yet the Grits say the National Policy is ruining the country! Tell that to the M.M.s.

Meeting at Georgetown.

TELLING SPEECHES

Grits Losing Hope.

Special to the Examiner.

GEORGETOWN, June 14. An enthusiastic meeting of electors was held at the Court House last evening. Telling speeches were delivered by the Government Candidates—Messrs. McDonald and Muttart—by C. Shaw, Esq., and A. J. McDonald, Esq., M. P. P. All were strong in favor of the Government Policy and were well received by the people.

The Grits were very excited during the meeting, and are now losing hope of electing a candidate.

Mr. McDonald, of the Advertiser, made the usual exhibition of himself. He did not stop at the astounding statement that taxation is now ten dollars per head, but went on and stated that Pictou Coal was now a tax of sixty cents a ton upon us. He was deservedly hooted.

At the close, hearty cheers were given for the Queen and the Government candidate, Messrs. McDonald and Muttart.

Seventeen Conservatives Elected by Acclamation.

OTTAWA, June 14.

Sir John McDonald yesterday received a magnificent ovation in West Durham, Mr. Blake's stronghold and constituency.

Mr. Brown, the Grit Candidate for Carleton, Ont., stated yesterday in a speech to his constituents that the Grit Party was not the Free Trade party.

Seventeen Liberal Conservatives and one Grit were elected by acclamation yesterday, viz:—

- Conservatives: Kirkpatrick, Haggart, Abbott, Quimet, Bergeron, Riopel, LeSage, Wright, Ives, Hall, Grandbois, Davoust, Tupper, Mitchell, Costigan.
