ARDA Meet Is Planned For Tignish

TIGNISH — A resources development program for the Tignish area will be launched Thursday evening when Hartwell Daley, director of research and some of his fieldmen will be present at the regional high school in Tignish.

The program that is now in effect in many communities on P.E.I. will be started here too, it is expected.

Under this new program Islanders have an opportunity to create more jobs, build more and better communities, make farming more profitable and improve many more situations, it was stated.

The meeting is open to young men and women, businessmen, workers, farmers, fishermen, organization leaders, and any one who has an interest in seeing the area they live in developed, in line with other communities on the Island.

Tignish UC Anniversary Service Held

TIGNISH — Rev. Dewis J. Rector, BA, BD of Oxford, N.S. was guest minister for the anniversary service in Tignish United Church. In his sermon he referred to two great anniversaries mentioned in the Bible, the Passover which was a remembrance of how God had cared for his people and brought them to the promised land, and the Lord's Supper in which Christians remember their deliverance from sin.

"Today in this anniversary," he said, "we remember that we ourselves have been spiritually delivered; that we have one who forgives our sins and who gives us strength; and that we have a hope after this life passes away. We are a people delivered and provided for and that God has loved."

The Wilmot quartet of Fredericton, N.B. rendered two selections, one "The New Commandment" was composed by one of the quartet, Harry Currie. A solo "My Heavenly Father Watches over Me" was sung by first tenor and soloist, Jack Scott.

Mrs. Hazel Cameron of Elmsdale was guest organist.

Acadian Co-op Housing Construction Started

A sod-turning ceremony at St. Chrysostom Monday evening marked the start of construction of six homes in the Acadian Co-operative Housing Development.

Reid Sangster, chairman of the provincial housing commission, was chairman for the ceremony. The sod was turned by E. A. Belliveau, vice-president of the housing commission, in the absence of Hon. Henry Wedge, minister of labor and welfare, who was unable to attend.

Others attending the ceremony were William Meggison, manager of the provincial housing commission; Gleason Williams, housing commission building inspector; Edmund L. Arsenault, Wellington, building supervisor of the group; and Cyrus J. Gallant, St. Philip.

The site was blessed by Rev. Philip Cloutier, assistant pastor at Egmont Bay.

The development will build three homes in St. Chrysostom and three in Wellington. President of the group is Roger Arsenault, and others in the group are Albert Hashie, Albert Gallant, Adolphe Richard, Leo Richard, and Albert Arsenault.

The group was formed in December last, and conducted study meetings through the winter and spring months. It originally included 10 members and settled with six.

Following the sod-turning ceremony, refreshments were served by the women of the group, and an impromptu step-dancing show was staged for the visitors.

Members of the housing commission held a short meeting with the Acadian Group to finalize building plans.

Late Blight Spraying Should Start At Once

The spray schedule to prevent late blight developing in potatoes should be started at once, warns a bulletin from L. C. Callbeck, pathologist and F. M. Cannon, associate entomologist at the Experimental Farm last night.

Temperature and humidity conditions have been favorable for the fungus disease and it has already been found in a Nova Scotia cull pile, the bulletin said.

A check of the dates on which the first field infections were found in the past twelve years on Prince Edward Island showed a variation from July 16, to August 7, with the average being July 22.

"Flea beetles, usually numerous at this time of the year, have been very scarce so far this season. A few Colorado potato beetles have been found and some of their egg clusters have already hatched. Aphids began to appear in many fields during the past week and they will no doubt increase rapidly in the next few weeks if weather conditions are favourable.

"Growers are advised to apply an insecticide now before the aphid populations build up. Thiodan emulsible concentrate at one quart per acre will give good results. Other insecticides such as malathion and endrin are also quite satisfactory but do not use DDT for aphids," the bulletin concluded.

O'Leary Defeats Tignish Legion

O'Leary Legion defeated Tignish 8-7 last night at the Bloomfield diamond in a regular scheduled West Prince Softball League game.

Tignish got off to a fast start with four runs in the first inning. Losing pitcher Leo Richard played a strong game for Tignish. O'Leary finally got on the score sheet in the 4th when the hero of the night Bill MacMurdo started a rally by knocking in three runs on two hits. O'Leary went on to score seven runs in this inning.

Ed Malone drove in two runs for O'Leary also. Winning pitcher Glen Rodgerson was taken out in the fourth. He was followed to the mound by James Bagiole who only gave up one run in the rest of the game.

Clifton Gavin and Michael MacInnis drove in 2 runs each for the losers.

The next game will be on Thursday night when O'Leary plays West Prince.

13-Year-Old Scores Ace

Thirteen-year-old Danny McIsaac, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. Leo McIsaac, Sherwood, yesterday became the youngest golfer ever to sink a hole-in-one at the Belvedere golf course.

Danny's ace came on the 16th green, which was only opened three days ago, and using a three iron and a Titelist ball he made a perfect 160 yard drive.

At the time he was playing a twosome with Barry Harrison. The young golfer's feat was also witnessed by the greenskeeper Roy Doiron who was working on the green at the time.

A MINUTE'S silence is observed in memory of Scout Wayne Andrews by the 1st O'Leary Boy Scout Troop at their camp on the Mill River.

O'Leary Scout Troop Names Camp After Former Scout

O'LEARY — The 1st O'Leary Boy Scout Troop has returned home from a week's camping at Mill River under the leadership of Scoutmaster Lloyd Matthews, assisted by Gary Phillips.

The O'Leary Scouts erected a gate at the entrance of the camp site and named it "Camp Wayne" in memory of Scout Wayne Andrews who lost his life two years ago.

The troop was inspected during its stay in camp by Dr. Paul Cudmore, Charlottetown and Gordon Keir, executive provincial commissioner, who were interested especially in the twin projects of cutting and clearing the undergrowth and making a road through the woods in the area.

The troop had three patrols, the Beavers, Whip-poor-wills and Seagulls. The Beavers won top patrol honors and Scout Gerald Cornish won best scout award.

This was the first camp for most of the boys who learned a lot of woodcraft and cooking in the open. There were 17 scouts in attendance. Scoutmaster Matthews has been leading the troop for nine years.

The troop has named its camp site "Camp Wayne" in honor of the scout who lost his life two years ago.

BIG SUM

The bill for the frigates and submarines would come to $462,000,000. Anti-submarine hydrofoil boats would cost between $6,000,000 and $8,000,000 each but Admiral Rayner gave no indication exactly how many the navy would like to have.

Lt.-Gen. Geoffrey Walsh, chief of the general staff, mentioned only one cost figure.

He said stockpiling in Europe of weapons for two reserve Canadian brigades would cost approximately $135,000,000.

He also said the brigade in Europe needs the Bobcat armored personnel carrier (cost: $27,696,000 for 500) and more signals, bridging and transport equipment.

Moreover, he mentioned the possibility of supplying enough transport aircraft to move two brigades or 13,000 men overseas. No cost figure was given but the expense would be heavy.

Gen. Walsh only alluded to various new types of battlefield equipment such as surveillance drones, missiles, radars and infrared detection instruments.

Air Marshal Dunlap warned that if recent cost trends continue "something has to give." As operations and maintenance costs continued their relentless rise, funds for new equipment became smaller.

In 1955-56, the RCAF's expenditures were evenly split between maintenance and capital costs. But this year 75 per cent of the air force budget would be taken up by maintenance, leaving only 25 per cent for new equipment.

Mill River Boy Grabs Power Line

O'LEARY — A Mill River boy, Billy Brown, is in hospital at O'Leary with first degree burns after a close call with a high tension wire.

The 15-year-old boy was taken to the Community Hospital. O'Leary in an unconscious condition Sunday afternoon but his condition last night was reported as improved.

The boy is said to have climbed a power pole near his home. His foot slipped and he grabbed a high tension wire and his foot struck a guy wire.

The resulting jolt of electricity burned his shoulders, arms, chest, throat and foot. His father, Lyle Brown saw him fall and, heading from the pole and rushed him to hospital.

WESTERN BRIEFS

MUCH IMPROVED

The condition of Harold MacCormack, O'Leary is reported as improved in the Community Hospital. He suffered a heart attack last week while driving his truck.

RETURNS HOME

Mrs. Gordon Bryanton returned to her home at Kensington on Friday from the P. E. Island Hospital, Charlottetown, where she had been a patient for the past few days.

TRACTOR ACCIDENT

John Sands, 64, reportedly of St. Eleanors, suffered a concussion when a tractor he was operating overturned in a ditch at New Glasgow, Monday night. Taken to the P. E. I. Hospital his condition was reported "satisfactory" by Dr. Malcolm Putnam yesterday.

BECOMES VIEWER

"I want to see it too," a man in the Summerside Lobster Carnival parade told the driver of his car as he stepped from the auto to the side of the road to become a spectator for a few moments.

MODEL 'T' LEADS

Mayor Ernest Morrison and Councillor George Key led the Summerside Lobster Carnival parade Monday in a 1924 model T. The car belongs to proud owner Fred Haslam, a native of Springfield. It has been his only car in 29 years — "and she's been in good working condition all that time," he said. Mr. Haslam purchased his "old faithful" in 1925.

TUPLIN FUNERAL

The funeral for Rueben T. Tuplin was held Tuesday afternoon from the residence of his son, Elmer Tuplin, West Devon, to St. Peter's Church, Lot 11, where the service was conducted by Mr. Delmont Yeo. The choir sang the hymn "The Sands of Time are Sinking," a solo, "Rock of Ages," was rendered by Mrs. Erland Ramsay. Pallbearers were: Erving Smith, James Hardy, Wendell MacKay, Robert Henderson, Samuel Graham, Harold Miller. The flower bearers were: Robert Sharpe, William Robinson, Charles Moreshead, Wesley Gamble, Waldo Murray, and Lawrence MacKinnon. Interment was in the shareh cemetery.

Campers Finding Anglo Park Near Tignish Is Well Located

TIGNISH — Anglo-Park still under development a few miles northeast of Tignish situated on an outside shore, along the Lady Slipper Drive that goes through to North Cape, is fast becoming a popular camping site and has been described by many of the campers as one of the nicest parks on the Island.

There is safe and pleasant bathing in a newly roped-off area. The park has 16 acres of rich green turf with a wooded backgroung for campers. Swings and teeter-totters are available for the younger set along with picnic tables and outdoor fireplaces, that help to make living complete near the sea shore.

Now under construction by local labor are two large bathing houses and a kitchen will be constructed in the near future.

A modern chicken hut, the first for this area is operated opposite the camp site by Mr. and Mrs. William Gaudet.

Lloyd Shea a very likeable and hospitable warden is always ready to give assistance to any one wishing to use the park along with giving any information that is of help to the camper.

Albany Man Visits Calgary

Russell Hammill, Albany, P.E.I., was the winner of a white Stetson hat on a Trans-Canada Airline flight to Calgary last week. Mr. Hammill visited his daughter, Blanche in Calgary and also attended the famous Calgary Stampede.

The picture which appeared in yesterday's Evening Patriot was not that of Mr. Hammill and his daughter. The mixup in pictures is believed due to a mailing error by TCA public relations.

Bankers Defeat Mounties 15-9

The Bankers pounded RCMP pitcher Myron Weeks for 13 hits last night as they walked away with a 15-9 Commercial Softball League victory.

Barry Steveson went the route for the winners and allowed 9 hits. He struck out five.

Gordon Arsenault was the leading hitter for the Bankers as he picked up a homerun and a single in two trips to the plate. Bill Lynch had three singles in five appearances and Wayne Birch, smacked two doubles in five trips for the winners.

For the Mounties, pitcher Myron Weeks had a two for four night while Junior MacLeod clouted a home run in a losing cause.

S'side Horse Draws Rail For F-F-A

Victory Scott, driven by Art Burbine, and owned by Arnold MacLennan has drawn the rail position for the $2,500 Maritime Circuit free-for-all being run Thursday at the Summerside Raceway.

Dominion Byrd, owned by Doug Hill, Charlottetown, and driven by Joe Hennessey; and Greenbrier Farms' June Byrd, reined by James "Roach" MacGregor, have drawn number two and three positions, respectively.

June captured last Saturday's Monctonian in record-breaking time. 2.04.3 and Dominion Byrd was second to Tammany Hall, which took The Evening Patriot Inaugural in straight dashes at Charlottetown Driving Park, July 6.

SIXTH POSITION

This time Tammany Hall, again handled by Clarke Smith, will score in sixth horse position.

Don MacKennie, Glace Bay, owner of Bob Brooke, has asked Walter Craig of Charlottetown to pilot his great pacer. Bob was second to June Byrd last Saturday when she lowered the Moncton record.

Alf MacNeill's Stalag Hanover, driven by Emmet Bernard, is the other starter. Stalag will score in the number four spot.

This $2,500 pace will feature Summerside's week-long racing program, held in connection with Lobster Carnival activities.
