*HALLOWEEN PARTY—Mrs. Atwood MacDonald was hostess to the members of the Legion Auxiliary, Montague branch, Monday evening, when everyone enjoyed a delightful Halloween party. The costumes were especially good, and the judges, Mrs. Lyle Boehner, Miss Jean Beck, R.N., and Mrs. Tyler Beck, had difficulty choosing the winners. Prizes were won by Mrs. William Dewar, Mrs. Neil Hooley, and Mrs. Byron Stewart. The program, under the direction of Mrs. Hooley, featured contests, a sing-song, and instrumental music by Mr. and Mrs. Otis Jackson and Mrs. MacDonald. Step dancing by one of the members was greatly enjoyed. At a late hour, delicious refreshments were served, including sandwiches, cake, pumpkin pie and ice cream. A very enjoyable social evening closed with "Auld Lang Syne" and a hearty vote of appreciation for her hospitality was extended to Mrs. MacDonald.

EARLY-DAY MEDICINE SHOW PROVIDES COLORFUL ROLE FOR RAY MIDDLETON

Labeled as one of the great baritones in the history of the theatre, popular Ray Middleton is fast becoming one of the top screen luminescent stars.

Middleton, for his second picture under a new Republic Studios contract, will be seen as the colorful head of a travelling Medicine Show in the gay, Trucolor Republic Musical, "Sweethearts on Parade," which is now showing at the Capitol.

The singing star's first picture under the new pact was "I Dream of Jeanie" (With the Light Brown Hair), story of the young and romantic Stephen Foster, in which Middleton portrayed the bombastic minstrel, Christy.

Since his last appearance in films, the noted actor has appeared in a number of top Broadway successes. Most notable of which was undoubtedly the co-starring role with Mary Martin in the musical show, "South Pacific."

Other top Broadway productions in which Middleton has appeared include "Roberta," "George White's Scandals," "Knickerbocker Holiday," "Winged Victory," "Annie Get Your Gun," and "Love Life."

Souris Jr. Hospital Aid Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Souris Jr. Hospital Aid was held on Wednesday, October 14th, in St. James United Church Hall, with 23 members present.

President Mrs. W.A. Wright occupied the chair. She read the annual report which showed that the organization had a successful year. She also welcomed nine new members who joined at the meeting.

For the purpose of raising funds during the year the Junior Aid held field cake sales, lotteried a radio, had a film show, provided a canteen on Coronation Day, and sponsored a Baby Show. During the year numerous items were provided for the nursery, as well as slip covers for the nurses sitting room furniture.

It was decided to hold a monthly meeting on the second Wednesday of each month instead of semi-monthly meetings as was the previous arrangement.

This organization in conjunction with the Senior Hospital Auxiliary now has membership in the Souris Film Council, and have also voted in favor of sponsoring the Souris Girl Guides.

The executive of the previous year were re-elected by the nominating committee, and Mrs. Lionel Strong a member of this committee extended a vote of thanks to them for their duties so capably carried out during the past year. This vote of thanks was responded to by the president.

The executive for the coming year are as follows: President, Mrs. W. A. Wright; Vice president, Mrs. C. N. Richards; Treasurer, Miss Mildred Fraser; Secretary, Mrs. W. A. Acorn and Mrs. (Dr.) A. H. Smallwood agreed to act as convener of sewing for another year.

The treasurer reported a bank balance of $267.25 at the end of the business year.

Following the meeting an enjoyable hour was spent during which film was shown and a delicious lunch was served.—B. E.
