Collapse of the Scheme

TO ESTABLISH A PERMANENT COLONIAL INSTITUTE IN LONDON.

(London Correspondence of the Montreal Gazette.)

A sad collapse has befallen the cherished plans of the Prince of Wales and the Royal Commission regarding the outcome of the Colonial Exhibition. As your readers know it was some three months since decided to re-open the Exhibition next year in somewhat its present shape under the auspices of the Imperial Institute of which it was to form the basis. Executive commissioners, and through them Colonial Governments, were consulted. Sir Charles Tupper made an avowed special journey to Canada; the Canadian Government promised an application to the Canadian Parliament for £20,000 towards the institute; the local governments and Canadian exhibitors were eagerly canvassed with some degree of success to allow their exhibits to remain, the other colonies followed suite, and everywhere was activity in anticipation of next year's show.

Soon after Sir Charles' return it was apparent that the "hitch" which has for some time threatened was rapidly developing. Everyone was growing dissatisfied with the hole-and-corner way in which the plans of an institution of such general importance were being hatched. Calls for details were everywhere made, and at last the Prince determined to appoint a committee of representative Englishmen to his aid. The committee selected a sub-committee, and this sub-committee, consisting of the chairman of the whole committee, Lord Herschell, the president of the London Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Tritton, and Lord Carnarvon, has now come to definite conclusions, which, after due submission to the general committee, will be publicly announced. These conclusions are, briefly, as follows: That the exhibition shall not be re-opened next year; that a new building shall be erected in a central position as possible, of which the Queen will lay the foundation stone next spring; that the mother country, as well as the colonies, shall be represented, and that the present Royal Commission staff shall have nothing to do with the Imperial Institute when erected.

Something Like Boodle.

(Moncton Times.)

Hon. Edward Blake, the pure and noble-minded leader of all the Grits, drew six hundred dollars from the Ontario treasury for a single day's attendance at the Supreme Court.

Hon. David Mills, one of Mr. Blake's right hand men, a former cabinet minister and an aspirant for future office, received at the rate of thirteen hundred dollars per day on the Ontario boundary case before the Privy Council in England.

Hon. L. H. Davies' little bill for attending the Fisheries arbitration in Halifax, only amounted to fifteen thousand dollars, which was at the rate of forty-seven dollars and fifty cents per hour, or four hundred and seventy-five dollars per day of ten hours. Mr. Davies is the gifted young leader of the P. E. Island Grits. He recently spoke at Moncton and other places in New Brunswick, and we all know how anxious he is to have the present Government turned out of power. He has very good reason.

Plain Mr. J. D. Edgar, an Ontario exchange says, netted eight thousand of the public money as a result of a little trip to the Yellowstone Park and British Columbia during the Grit period. Other people have to pay for such little pleasures, but Mr. Edgar has been useful to the Grit party at various times. His latest achievement was to act as go-between for Blake in the Riel business, for which he will no doubt be suitably rewarded if the Grits should go into power.

Mr. Nelson, chief proprietor of the Toronto Globe, has a monopoly of furnishing school books to the people of Ontario, given to him by the Grit local government of that province. Mr. Nelson nets a good many thousands each year in this business, enough at least to recoup him for any loss sustained in the publication of Grit literature. Mr. Nelson lives in Scotland and his factories are there; hence the desire of the Globe to throw open our markets to outsiders.

The list might indefinitely extended, but it is not necessary. We will only add that Messrs. Blake, Mills, Davies, Edgar and Nelson never lose an opportunity to hold the wicked Tories up to public gaze as boodlers. They doubtless think that by liberally spattering their opponents they will draw attention away from their own infamies.

"Bell Organs" at the Colonial.

PATRONIZED BY ROYALTY—ANOTHER GOLD MEDAL FOR THEM!

In musical instruments, certainly Messrs. W. Bell & Co., of Guelph, Ont., have reason to be proud of their success, and it is universally conceded that their display was the most prominent in their line.

H. R. H. the Prince of Wales personally congratulated them on having the most handsome exhibit; the stand itself, a work of art in design and fitting, having been erected at a cost, it is said, of £600. The woodwork is in enamelled white and real gold, handsomely carved, and the drapery is in silk plush and Indian muslin.

The Marquis of Lorne and H. R. H. the Princess Louise, after thoroughly testing the instruments made and exhibited by the different manufacturers, decided to buy one of the Illuminated Pipe Top "Bell Organs." This sale was followed by others to the Right Hon. Sir Robert Bourke, Governor of Madras, India, and Sir Robert Ailcock, each of whom purchased one of their large and handsome organs.

The popularity of this instrument is growing more extensive every year in the British Isles and on the Continent, and it is the critical judgment of experts, who have pronounced them superior to all others for purity of tone and pleasing design.

In the Citadel of Quebec a "Bell Organ" graced its drawing rooms for the use of the Marquis and Marchioness of Lansdowne, and in far distant Victoria, B. C., Lady Douglas selected a "Bell Organ" for her use.

Perfection in these instruments has only been attained after years of experience and study; by using the best material, and employing none but skilled and practical workmen, Messrs. Bell & Co., have produced an organ without an equal.

Prominent English organists who have tried them at the Exhibition have been delighted with them; and we observe that the Invention, a journal published in London says: "The excellence of workmanship and quality of the 'Bell Organs' leave only one verdict possible to any expert who cares to personally inspect them, as we have done to ourselves, and we have pleasure in expressing ourselves as greatly pleased with the genuine organ tone brought out in these instruments."

The Music Trades Journal says: "Messrs. Bell & Co., are now doing a very flourishing business, which ought certainly to be much extended as a result of their handsome exhibit at the Colindale, and it is gratifying to note that the judges at the Exhibition have endorsed our opinion as to the excellence of their instruments."

We also understand that Messrs. Bell & Co., have received a Gold Medal at the Liverpool Exhibition which has just closed.—Toronto Mail, November 27.

(Mr. C. P. Fletcher is the general agent for P. E. Island for the above famous Organs, hundreds of which he has already sold.)
