THE DAILY EXAMINER.
SEPTEMBER 19, 1891.

Notes and Comments.

—The chiefs of the Farmers' Alliance in Minnesota and Dakota have issued a million circular letters to the farmers, calling a halt in "the mad rush of grain to the market." The circular says there is a shortage in Europe of 678,000,000 bushels, and that wheat will soon be over $1.50 a bushel. Newspapers are charged as being in league with the speculators.

—The Montreal Gazette remarks: The appointment of Hon. Dr. Ross to the Speakership of the Senate naturally recalls the circumstances of his retirement from the premiership of this Province in 1887. His defeat was the direct result of the appeal of Messrs. Mercier and Laurier to the French-speaking people of this Province to avenge the execution of Louis Riel. Dr. Ross would not consent to the passage by the Legislature of a motion censuring that most just vindication of the law, and fell. It also suggests a contrast between what was under his administration and what is under that of his successor. There were no Pacaud jobs under Dr. Ross, and no blotches on his record as a Minister of the Crown.

—The British Association of Chambers of Commerce was in session in Dublin a few days ago, and the presiding officer of the conference, Colonel Hill, made a very significant remark. Referring to the McKinley Act, he said: "They had no right to complain of that measure, because they could not negotiate with a country to which they had nothing to offer, or from which they could gain anything by threats of retaliation, but even the worm would turn, and there was no knowing what the people of Great Britain might do in violation of their free trade principles if they were to feel themselves too hardly pressed." The McKinley Act opened the eyes of a good many people in England about the fallacy of one-sided free trade, because it pinched their pockets. The new French tariff will do considerably more of the same work.

The Floods in Spain.

Further distressing particulars in regard to the flooded provinces of Spain continue to be received. Heavy rain fell on Friday and Saturday, swelling the mountain torrents that poured into the Amarguillo. Wreckage and corpses were carried 40 miles. The mayor of Consuegra puts the fatality there at 3,000. Accounts from there are appalling in the extreme. The town is a heap of ruins. The flood at Almira plunged the city into absolute darkness.

The governor of the province of Jaen telegraphs that the whole commune of Aubeda is submerged. The damage done is enormous. There has been considerable loss of life. The estimate of damage to property in and about Consuegue places the loss at $2,500,000, not including money and valuables buried everywhere in the ruins. Survivors of the disaster are only able to give vague and confused accounts of the rise of water. Many unidentified dead have been buried.

The misery existing at Consulgra is intense. The inhabitants are compelled to sleep in the open air. The food supply is of the meagrest description. So far 945 bodies have been recovered.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Shire Horses at the Exhibition.

SIR, —I see the same disgraceful and malicious contempt displayed in respect to the Clyde and Shire horses and their owners as was displayed last year. It was asked that the clique be broken up. I see, Mr. Editor, it still exists. Do the clique wish to make gamblers of all our sons by trying to weed the cart horses and their owners? I think, Mr. Editor it is very unkind and digraceful conduct towards these horses and their owners. These same gentlemen would not like to have their own business interfered with in the same manner. I am told that the Government Commissioners fought very hard for fair play. There ought to be separate classes for the Shire and Clydesdales at a Provincial show. There are separate stud-books, and the Shire horses are worthy of honorable treatment and fair play. I would wish you, Mr. Editor, to know, and the public at large to know, that P. E. Island owns to-day some of the best bred English Shire horses, which cost their owners a lot of money, and, I think, our Commissioners had better wake up and bury their prejudice, and come out on the side of fair play, It's shameful conduct. Such conduct should not be allowed. Two hundred voices and one voice rules the whole thing. It is shameful, shameful conduct at a Provincial show, where all on the Island can compete. Give them their separate class and fair play. There has been money enough spent on the ground to give everyone fair play.

Hoping that the Association at large will look into the matter and see that fair play is shown the Shire and Clydesdales, I remain yours truly, A CITIZEN.

Dyspepticure—Is not a palliative, but a cure; it first relieves, then controls, and finally entirely subdues the irritation and inflammation of the stomach that causes ndi gestion and dyspepsia.

LOVERS of celery unwittingly "kill two birds with the one stone." Celery to them is like sweets to the children, they eat it simply because they are fond of it—but at the same time it is food and medicine. You buy a bunch of celery from Gay & Son, but do not expect a bottle of "Pains Celery Compound, or package of food preparation thrown in. All the same the essence of food and medicine is in the celery. Gay & Son only charge for the one, the other is free gratis.

W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. Convention opened at Summerside on Wednesday evening, with a public meeting in Market Hall. The hall was filled. Eight young ladies dressed in white acted as ushers. Mrs. Turnbull, of St. John, presided. The stage, walls and windows were appropriateiy decorated with bunting and mottoes. We condense from the Guardian:

After the opening proceedings, Richard Hunt, Esq., Chairman of the Town Council, welcomed the delegates to Summerside in a neat speech.

Mrs. Smith, of Windsor, N. S., responded on behalf of the Union.

The remainder of the evening was taken up with addresses by Mrs. Turnbull, Mrs. Judge Steadman, Rev. J. A. Cahill and others, between which were given vocal and instrumental solos, duets, etc. The meeting closed with the doxology.

Yesterday morning's session opened with devotional services led by Miss Bartlett.

Mrs. Dunlap, of Amherst, Maritime Superintendent of Industrial Schools, read a very interesting and encouraging report of the work accomplished in these schools. The report was adopted.

Miss Starrett, of Yarmouth, N. S., Superintendent of Coffee Rooms, read a very encouraging report, showing increased interest and increased numbers of Coffee Rooms throughout the Maritime Provinces, which was also adopted.

Mrs. Burpee, of Woodstock, N. B., Maritime Superintendent of Narcotics, read the report of the work of this department during the past year. The report was very satisfactory. Adopted.

Mrs. Randolph of Fredericton read the report of the Maritime Superintendent of evangelistic work, in the place of Mrs. Sampson who was unavoidably absent. Ordered to be returned for County Superintendent's report before its adoption.

Mrs. Todd of St. Stephen, N. B., moved the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Unions be requested to forward their contributions to the Dom. Pat. Com. to Miss Lockhart before the first of January, 1892, so that they may be sent with the Maritime donation.

The resolution was adopted.

The session closed with prayer by Mrs. Dr. Johnson.

The afternoon session was opened with the usual devotional exercises, Mrs. Todd of St. Stephen and Mrs. Atkinson of Moncton leading in prayer. Mrs. Todd occupied the chair in the absence of the president.

Mrs. Steadman read a report from Mrs. Trenholm, of Hantsport, Maritime Superintendent of Sailor's Homes, which was very encouraging.

Mrs. Allen read a very encouraging report from Mrs. McFarlane, St. John, County Superintendent, which was adopted, as was also the report of Mrs. Steadman of Liverpool, N. S.

Mrs. Steadman, of Fredericton, then took the chair to conduct the Parliamentary drill, during which Mrs. Todd moved the following resolution:—

Believing the needs of our work demand a different basis of action from that occupied by us during the past eight years as a Maritime union,

Resolved, that while we shall always entertain for each other the strongest feelings of sisterly sympathy and affection, we do in response to the demand agree at the close of this convention to declare null and void the constitution which has bound us together and form ourselves into Provincial Unions, auxiliary to the Dominion.

A discussion followed but no action was taken.

Mrs. Todd, of St. Stephen, Maritime Superintendent of Purity in Literature, Art and Fashion, then read her report, and Mrs. Steadman submitted the report of Mrs. Vickery, of Yarmouth, Maritime Superintendent of Railway Men. Both reports were very satisfactory, and were adopted by the convention.

Mrs. Phillips of Fredericton read an excellent paper on Scientific Temperance Instruction, stating the injurious effects of alcohol on the human body. She said that 35 of the 44 States had endorsed the Pathfinder series of temperance instruction books. The laws of New Brunswick had provided for children in the 3rd and 4th school grade. The sentiment is advancing in the provinces, and most children taking the pledge have kept their vows on going out into the world. This paper was strongly endorsed by the convention.

The following officers were elected:

President—Mrs Turnbull, St John.
Vice do for N S—Mrs Archibald, of Cow Bay, C B.
Vice do for N B—Mrs Atkinson, of N B.
Vice do for P E I—Mrs Dr Johnson (re-elected).
Corresponding Sec—Mrs Smith, of Windsor, N S.
Recording Sec—Miss Robinson, Halifax, N S (re-elected).
Treasurer—Miss Lockhart, of St John (re-elected).
Auditor—Mrs McFarlane, of St John (re-elected).

Mrs Smith moved that Judge Steadman be appointed vice-president at large of the Maritime Union. Motion carried unanimously by convention rising to their feet.

HE'S ALL RIGHT.—Sherman Cummins, a compositor on the New York Mail and Express, who was thought to have been one of the victims of the Park Place disaster, has turned up all right in Halifax. Cummins was one of the patrons of Peterson's restaurant, and left the office for that place for lunch on the day of the disaster. He did not return, and it was thought he had perished. Cummins did not go to the restaurant, as intended, but met with some companions, and soon fell by the way. When he came to his senses he found himself on board a vessel bound for Halifax. Cummins' wife haunted the ruins at the scene of the disaster, and at length identified one of the bodies found as that of her husband, and the body was interred from her residence with due ceremony. Mrs. Cummins received a goodly sum from the Typographical Union and from the general relief fund.
