ico. Earlier Hon. Eugene Cullen, P.E.I.'s minister of agriculture announced that Seaside Susie Abbekirk, owned by the Buntains had won the Canadian Holstein twice-a-day milking championship. Official confirmation of this feat would be released soon, Mr. Cullen said. Mrs. Buntain and the latest addition to the family herd is shown with the manager of the Falconwood Farm, Unsworth Gurney.

"It is one that we are deeply interested in," she said, "to see how it can be amplified and made possible to penetrate to all the units of your great society so that many fallen away Catholics may return to their faith and their church."

"I would ask you to remember that our organization was mandated in 1948 by the bishops of Canada, that this signal honor has not been granted to any other organization, whether men or women, that the bishops and priests are asking us to assist them in this apostolic work."

Deadline Is Set For Wednesday

Prince Edward Island baseball teams have until midnight Wednesday July 1st to register for Island playoffs leading up to Maritime playoffs.

Included in the group are mid-level, juvenile, junior, intermediate senior and intermediate rural teams.

Team registration should be filed with the Island Branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada.

S'Side W.M.S. Holds Meeting

SUMMERSIDE — Mrs. Harry Linkletter, Linkletter Road, entertained the members of the Summerside Church of Christ W.M.S. for the June meeting. Opening with the singing of "God Will Take Care of You", Mrs. Garth Linkletter led the devotional period.

The meditation was based on the Scripture reading from the 8th chapter of Deuteronomy and mentioned various kinds of things for which men hunger today, namely, food, human love, recognition, gratitude and easier circumstances, but Christ has promised to meet every need in the lives of those who love and serve Him. The reading of an appropriate poem and a prayer offered by the leader concluded this part of the meeting.

After the regular business conducted by the president, Mrs. V. Metherell, an interesting account of conditions in Paraguay and some of the work being carried on by our missionaries there was presented by Mrs. Wallace Harding.

HUNTING BADGES

WASAGAMING, MAN. (CP) — Hunters will have to wear a badge with their licence number in plain view if a recommendation of the Manitoba Federation of Fish and Game Associations is accepted by the government. Delegates at the federation's annual convention were told this would aid the public, particularly farmers, in reporting violations of the laws pertaining both to hunting and trespassing.

WELL GUARDED

TORONTO (CP) — Five hundred Metropolitan Toronto policemen will be on guard Tuesday at New Woodbine race track where the Queen is expected to attend the 100th running of the Queen's Plate. Another 500 policemen of the 2,500-man force will be on duty along the route leading to the race track in suburban Etobicoke.

Garden Of Gulf Museum Commences Third Year

MONTAGUE — The Garden of the Gulf Museum, officially opened its doors yesterday for the 1959 season and many visitors from island points and a number out of the province guests took advantage of the first opportunity to view this historic display.

The museum also houses the tourist information bureau and Kent MacLean is in attendance to assist with any information requested and to show visitors through the museum.

By the end of this week the Montague Junior Board of Trade expects to open the second floor which they have recently renovated and which will house most of the larger items and the new items received and collected during the past winter. The museum chairman, Gilbert Clements, said last night that all was in readiness for a record number of visitors to the museum in this, its third year.

Island-Bred Ayrshire Wins Further Canadian Honors

Keith Boswell and Sons, Victoria, have recently been notified that Cherry Bank Bernie Buttercup 41st Dam of their herd sire, Cherry Bank Royal Anchor was grand champion at the recent Ormstown Exhibition held at Ormstown, Quebec.

This cow holds the unique record of being at the present time the highest scoring Ayrshire cow in Canada 96.7 per cent. The reserve grand champion at Ormtown Burnside Appreciation was previously reserve all Canadian for 1958.

Cherry Bank Bonnie Buttercup 41st. was last shown at the 1956 Royal Winter Fair Toronto where she was 1st prize 4-year-old in milk and reserve grandchampion. She has just completed her third record of over 12000 lbs. of milk 485 fat.

Her last bull calf, a brother to the Leland's herd sire was recently shipped to Florida at $1500. Royal Anchor himself was 1st prize premium bull calf reserve "Jr." champ at Amherst in 1957, and reserve all Canadian that year.

Condition Said Critical

SUMMERSIDE — John (Junior) Gallant of Summerside, was taken to Prince County Hospital, and another Summerside man, Clifford Gillis, a passenger in the truck, was taken to Prince County Jail, following a highway accident near Borden yesterday about noon.

The half-ton truck in which the two men were proceeding towards Borden left the road and reportedly was smashed in the impact with a pole.

Gallant, who was said to be the driver, was removed to Prince County Hospital by ambulance, suffering from multiple fractures in the pelvic area, and his condition last evening was reported to be critical.

He is believed to be about 23 years of age, married, residing on Notre Dame Street, and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gallant, also of Notre Dame Street.
