

terminated on entering a Convent! Thus matters stood when the elder brother, the one that was courting the mother, returned to our city. He was still true to the widow, and she went so far as to buy her wedding clothes, and the young man to say that he could do with said widow as he pleased—which meant he could marry her if he would. This he told in a public bar-room.

Somes scandal, entirely unfounded in truth, got out; the gentleman that conducted the business in the place of the young courtier, was discharged, but on the return of the elder brother he took charge again, and went on with the widow as usual. On Saturday last the daughter returned to her mother's, from school; she having been sent for, and got home through a great deal of persuasion; her disposition having been bent toward a Convent. On her return home, she saw again, and conversed with the brother of her late lover! He was soon to be her father! He told her, no doubt, to be a good child and forget the notion of a Convent! Her charms during her interesting conversations, took possession of the young man, and he regretted his pledge to the mother. It was a triumph of seventeen over forty! The young man declared his new-born passion—the young girl accepted the brother of her lover, her father that was to be. On Thursday last they eloped! What course they took it is yet impossible to tell. The mother was last seen in her carriage in hot pursuit after her young would-be nun and her was-to-be husband.—It is a mixed up affair and the "end is not yet."

Upon receiving the enclosed certificate I am directed by the Grand Worthy Patriarch to state, that as soon as practicable, he will attend with the Grand Conductor, or will send a Deputy duly authorised, to open the Division.

As it is desirable that the principles of this truly noble and philanthropic order should be diffused throughout the Island, it is to be hoped, that those persons who are in favour of Temperance would unite, so that Divisions may be established in every settlement of the Colony. The leading principles of the Order are as follows:—

1. A universal Temperance reformation.
2. A Brotherhood, in Love, Purity and Fidelity.
3. The pecuniary relief of sick Brethren.
4. The encouragement of morality.
5. The diffusion of good will to all mankind.

Besides others equally exalted and ennobling. The initiation fee to each Brother on opening Division is twelve shillings, and which is retained in the Division, and from this fund the expenses for Charter &c. are paid.

To THE ELECTORS OF CHARLOTTETOWN AND ROYALTY.

GENTLEMEN;

HONOURED by a Requisition so numerous and respectfully signed as that which has this day been presented to me, requesting that I would allow my name to be put in nomination as a Candidate at the ensuing Election for Charlottetown and Royalty, I hasten to comply with the wishes of my friends, though I assure them and the Electors generally, that the distinguished compliment was unlooked for and unmerited. Content with the humble sphere in which Providence has placed me, I have been always willing and ready to employ all the influence I possessed in advocating those broad and liberal principles which I believe to be calculated to develop the resources of this young Colony, and to secure to its inhabitants a wise, just and impartial administration of its Government. But I beg to assure you, gentlemen, I entertained on the present occasion, no ambition to go beyond that sphere, and occupy a position in the Legislature which could not fail to be more ably filled by another reflecting your views and opinions, yet I feel that I should be wanting in respect to myself and to those who have been kind enough to honour me with their countenance and confidence, if I continued to decline their invitation.

My political principles, I believe, are known to many of you. Suffice it to say, that, if returned, I shall be found upon all occasions to vote for the general interests of the Colony, and for those of my constituents particularly; and I feel confident you will have no reason to question my integrity and consistency. If not returned, I shall be fully satisfied to resume my present private position; but in either case, I will long remember with gratitude the manifestation of respect and confidence with which I have been favored.

I am, Gentlemen, Your obedient Servant, W. W. LORD.
