In Memoriam.

MRS. MATTHEW HUGHES—A DYING MOTHER TO HER CHILDREN.

Cling to me, dears, while my heart throbs slowly;
Ah, wrap thine arms around my dying form.
Is there on earth a love more pure and holy,
A winning tenderness more sweet and warm?
Ah, no, there cannot be.

Gently, O gently, as the bloom of flowers,
To let my spirit breathe itself away,
While memory drinks in light from other hours,—
Those hours the happy ones of love's young day,
They are all dear to me.

Softly as music on the breath of even,
So falls thy melting tones upon mine ear;
Sounds that, to my soul, seem all but heaven,
Binding still closer hearts already near,
Yet destined soon to part.

And wilt thou, dears, when bright flowers [illegible]
Gaily above my tomb refreshing sweet,
Wilt thou remember one that once could listen
To thy dear voice, and answering words repeat,—
Words gushing from the heart?

Wilt thou, when other eyes are fondly beaming
With love untold upon those eyes of thine,
And other lips are pressed to thine, not deeming
A world of love too much for thy dear shrine,—
Then wilt thou think of me?

You answerest yes, and yes seems gently ringing
Upon the air with silvery cadence soft,
And through my heart a welcome thrill 'tis flinging,
As it hath done in other days so oft,—
My life seems bound in thee.

Nearer, still nearer; let thy dark eyes gladden
This heart of mine with their subduing beams;
Those eyes whose light can either joy or sadden,
Whose glance of love dwells ever in my dreams,—
Making night's hours seem few.

And this is death. We part, but not forever;
Beyond the stillness of the marble tomb
We'll meet once more, to part again, no never,
Where life and love for countless years will bloom,—
Dearest, till then adieu!

Her loving daughter,
H. G. HUGHES.

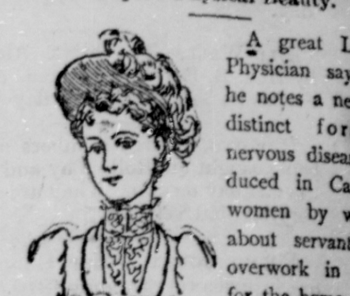
THE LADIES!

A New and Distinct Form of Disease which is afflicting Canadian Women.

How some of Them Regained Fresh Complexion, Perfect Health and Superb Physical Beauty.



A great London Physician says that he notes a new and distinct form of nervous disease produced in Canadian women by worry about servants and overwork in caring for the home. This is only too true. It is why we see so many ladies pale, weak, languid, and suffering from headaches and innumerable weaknesses. They cannot stand the strain upon their nervous system. Many of them have found the means to sustain their failing strength, to give color to the cheeks, and new life and vigor to the body, in Paine's Celery Compound. This pure and scientific remedy is especially adapted to the needs of woman, and is daily making the most remarkable cures. Mrs. W. E. Cooper, 60 St. Hypolite St., Montreal, was for a long time troubled with nervous headaches, loss of appetite, low spirits, etc. After using the Compound, her headaches disappeared, appetite was good, and her spirits revived.

Annie Gourley, of River Beaudette, P.Q., found the Compound a certain cure for weakness, and now feels as well as she ever did.

Many a Canadian lady has the same reason to be grateful.

Paine's Celery Compound can be purchased at any druggist's for one dollar a bottle. If he should not have it on hand, order direct from WELLS, RICHARDSON & Co., MONTREAL.

All widths and sizes. Sold by us or any dealer in this line of goods, FREIGHT PAID. Information free. Write is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of Chronic Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure.

$500 REWARD

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians.

By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "cold in the head," Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache.

Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony from Catarrh."

Prof. W. HAUSNER, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

"Constantly Hawking and Spitting."

THOMAS J. RUSHING, Esq., 2902 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."

Three Bottles Cure Catarrh.

ELI ROBBINS, Runyan P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now eighteen years old and sound and hearty."
