Who Sell at Selling Prices.

There are two things of great importance to be considered by purchasers of Furniture. First—Quality. Second—Price.

The quality should be such that you will derive complete satisfaction from the use of the goods.

The price should be as low or lower than the same article can be purchased elsewhere.

It is, and always has been, our aim to satisfy the public, and you may feel assured that all goods we offer are of the highest possible grade and the price is right.

ST. JAMES' CHURCH.

The annual meeting of St. James' congregation was held in their Hall last evening.

The Trustees' report showed that from all sources the congregation had raised $4,453.38, of which $3,172.81 was for the Church expenses.

A committee was appointed to inquire into the question of a new schoolhouse, and to report to the congregation.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the choir, the Ladies' Aid Society, F. Perkins, Esq., and all others who had helped to make the past year so successful for St. James' Church.

During the evening the ladies handed round refreshments, which greatly helped to make the evening pass away so pleasantly.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

THE TROUBLE AT VERNON RIVER.

SIR,—In THE WEEKLY EXAMINER of the 18th inst. there appears three communications relating to a disease of some kind which has broken out at Vernon River.

One is over the signature of Geo. Forbes, Chairman of the Board of Health, the other two are anonymous correspondents who ask a number of pertinent questions, which for some occult reason, seem up to the present unanswerable.

Now, as one who is disposed to give our Board of Health every justice in this matter, I must confess that Mr. Forbes' reply to "Inquirer" is not such as the public have a right to expect under existing circumstances.

If one were addressing a body of gentlemen acting in a private capacity he would not feel surprised at Mr. Forbes' reply.

But to expect that the Board of Health should have a right to expect under existing circumstances, if one were addressing a body of gentlemen acting in a private capacity he would not feel surprised at Mr. Forbes' reply.

How It Is Done!

How I account for my business being successful last year is that I did my best to satisfy my customers, both in PRICES and WORKMANSHIP.

Believing, as I do, that I can do work CHEAPER and give as SATISFACTORY A JOB as any firm in the city, naturally I am looking for an increase in business, and will try and give the public good, honest work, lowest prices and entire satisfaction.

If I have not done work for you before, give me a trial order for BLANK BOOKS, JOB PRINTING, etc.
