

A Big Thing.

The Wall Street News has heard, or made up, a story of a young American, from the wooden nutmeg state, probably, which we commend to the Canadian cotton manufacturers who are just now in need of suggestions as to how best they can make an honest profit.

"Father I've made a big thing for our mill—an awful big thing!"

"What?" "Got a contract to supply the Indian Department with half a million yards of Hickory shirting. It is to go by weight, and we can use a quarter of a pound of starch to the yard."

"Mad youth! where were your wits?"

"I got a contract for the old man. 'Had you got a contract for a pound of glue to the yard and worked in the pot?'"

"Happily our cotton mill men are not so far as we know, of the class who need make the disclaimer: 'We are virtuous, but you had better not tempt us.'"

"Well, I hardly know what to think about the matter. Such a discovery may be possible. But I don't know, in fact," he continued frankly, "when I was at college I never paid any attention to botany."

An Act of Great Valour.

"Yes, sir," he said, much excited: he's a liar, and I told him so. "That's rather a risky thing to do; I wonder he didn't knock your down."

MRS. SOPHIA POTTER'S Bone Rheumatic Liniment

It is a fact worth knowing that Mrs. Sophia Potter's Bone Rheumatic Liniment cannot be excelled for removing pain and soreness. It is no worthless trash, as was once supposed, simply because they have been imposed upon by others but it positively the "King of Pain." Sore throat cannot stand before its power.

All we ask is a trial that you may be convinced of the truth of our statement. Our experience is that one bottle tried also sells many more.

See circular for particulars and testimonials, and try a bottle—it will not fail to do all that is promised.
