A mysterious explosion occurred on Wednesday in one of the royal palaces at Naples.

It is reported that in Paris the predominant feeling is that only war or mediation will settle the dispute between France and China.

A report comes from Rome that the Geodetic conference, now in session in Rome, favors the unification of time and longitude to those of Greenwich.

The Berlin newspapers warn persons who intend to emigrate to America not to buy United States trade dollars in large quantities which they say have been imported to Germany for sale at face value, although worth only 87 1/2 cents.

A Vienna despatch says that at the opening of the session of the Austrian delegation the president pointed out that the necessity of peace was universally felt, but it was necessary to furnish means for protecting the honor, rights, and interests of monarchy.

Republique Francaise publishes an edict of Dr. Harmand, French civil commissioner in Tonquin, in accordance with which, by virtue of the Hue treaty, all persons, no matter what nationality, who continued to fight against the French are to be put to death.

British News Notes.

The Duke of Edinburgh and Prince Meiningen consulted with the Empress at Berlin in reference to the rupture between the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha and the Duke of Edinburgh, caused by the latter's refusal to be present at a ball given by the former unless certain persons were expelled. The London Law Journal understands that when Parliament meets Gladstone will propose that Sir Henry James, Attorney General, be made Speaker of the House of Commons, in place of Sir Henry Bouvier William Brand, the present Speaker, who is to resign; that Sir Farrer Herschell, Solicitor General, succeed Sir Henry James as Attorney General; and Horace Dorey, M. Lord Derby, Colonial Secretary for England, has written a letter to General Masiner, the chief promoter of the New Guinea Exploration and Colonization Company, emphatically protesting against further encroachments upon the rights of the inhabitants of that island. He calls attention to the fact that the Ministry, on several previous occasions condemned the project of annexing any of the South Pacific Islands to Australia, or in any manner assuming to establish a control of these islands at variance with the present system of government. If General Masiner persists in the forcible seizure of any of the specified territory or in any manner disregards the rights of the natives or colonists now occupying these places, even though such operation may be conducted under the British flag and ostensibly in the British interests, the Government will at once instruct the British commissioner and commander of the Western Pacific squadron to interfere and forcibly put down any further movement toward the prosecution of the scheme. This will be done, says Lord Derby, so effectively as to discourage any further attempts to set at defiance the expressed policy of the Home Government.
