Edmonton Kings Win Junior Title

BY JOE DUPUIS
 TORONTO (CP)—Edmonton 7-4 in the fifth game Saturday Oil Kings edged Oshawa Generals 2-1 Sunday afternoon to win the Memorial Cup, emblematic of the Canadian junior hockey championship.
 It was the Oil Kings' second cup victory in three years, although they've been in the final for the last seven years. They beat Niagara Falls Flyers in 1963 finals was the first time a western team has been able to win the championship playing on an eastern rink since Port Arthur Bruins did it in 1948.
 However, the East retains its superiority in the East-West battle, having won the cup final 28 times since the championship was inaugurated in 1919. The West now has won it 20 times.

goals, Hodgson the winner in the third period on a blistering slap shot. Harrison was not only an offensive threat, but proved a one-man wrecking crew, issuing hard checks that put Oshawa's Billy Heindl and "Pete" O'Leary out of action with injuries.
 The big win by beating Oshawa in the fifth game Saturday appeared in a cup final 22 years ago when they won it, discovered they couldn't win this time without star defenceman Bobby Orr, crippled for the series with a groin injury.
 And Edmonton discovered the acquisition of three players from Estevan Bruins of western team was the key to wrap up the series in six games.
 They got the two Edmonton players who were Gardner Dick- inson, Billy Casper and Kel Naino. Arnold Palmer was forced to withdraw because of a wrenched back.
 It was the seventh time this year that a PGA tournament round had been rained out exclusive of last week's Houston International. It was cancelled by rain and reset for Nov. 17-20 just before the Cajun Classic, the final tourney of the year.

Final Round Rained Out

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The final round of the $100,000 Greater New Orleans Open Golf Tournament was rained out Sunday and was rescheduled for today.
 Jack Nicklaus and Tony Lema were deadlocked for the lead at the start of Sunday's round. Each had birdied one hole when the rain started.
 All scores were washed out and the early starters will go out again on Monday even though they had finished Sunday.
 Nicklaus and Lema had a score of 208 for 54 holes, followed by Frank Beard and Bob Goalby, tied at 209, with a trio at 210. They were Gardner Dick-
