"Variety," "the very spice of life," you will get in "Touched and Go Papers" at St. Peter's Schoolroom, this evening.

Lecture.—A lecture will be delivered in St. Patrick's Hall on Friday evening by the Rev. C. A. Campbell, of Halifax, on "The Catacombs of Rome."

Cargo of Oil.—The sch. Delight, Captain William Macdonald, arrived from New York this morning with a cargo of kerosene oil for N. Rateabury.

For Interment.—The body of Dr. A. C. McLellan, whose death at Gloucester, Mass., was chronicled by The Examiner a few days ago, arrived at Summerside last evening en route to Indian River where the interment will take place.

Don't Forget.—No matter how cool it may be outside this evening, it will be pleasant and warm in Wright's Hall. The social to be given there by Charlottetown Lodge I. O. G. T. will be very enjoyable. Coffee, cake and a nice programme. 15 cents. Come.

Card of Thanks.—The Y. P. S. C. E of the Christian Church, take this means of thanking those who so kindly assisted them at their concert; also Mr. Heartz for the use of the hall, to the press for courtesies received and to all who helped in any way to make it a success.

Missionary Meeting.—A well attended missionary meeting was held in the basement of Zion Church last evening. Addresses appropriate to the occasion were given by Revs. W. J. Kirby and Mr. Manfold. There were also vocal solos by Miss Dot Huggan and D. J. McLeod, and a chorus by six little girls. There was a liberal collection.

The First Snow.—At Montreal, on Monday, a little snow came down but disappeared as fast as it touched the ground.

An inch of snow fell in the Escanaba, Mich., district on Saturday night.

Chicago had two hours of snowfall on Saturday, the earliest storm of that kind on record.

Snow also fell in Toronto on Saturday evening for a short period.

Christian Endeavor.—All Christian Endeavor Societies in this province are requested to meet on Friday evening, Nov. 13th, to offer up special prayer for Armenia. The Societies are also required to have this matter taken up in their churches on Sunday, Nov. 8th, and at the regular meeting of their Society in that week. This is in accord with Dr. Clark's request from the Scotch Endeavorers published a short time ago.

Died From Her Injuries.—The three year old daughter of Mr. John Clarke, Clarke Street, died last evening under sad circumstances. It seems that on Tuesday evening during the temporary absence from the house of her mother, the child's pinafore caught fire from a stove near which she was standing, and before the fire could be extinguished the little one was so badly burned that she died as above stated.

Police Court.—This forenoon, George Carver, Michael Sweeney and Joseph Kent were convicted of a first infraction of the Canada Temperance Act and each was fined in the sum of $50 and costs or two months imprisonment. The summons against Thomas Clarke was dismissed. Charles Watling, who was charged with a third infraction of the Act, did not respond to the summons and a warrant for his arrest was ordered to issue. Daniel Gillis, for being drunk and incapable, was fined $2 or 10 days.

Through Newfoundland's Fogs.—New scandals are looming up through Newfoundland's fogs. Investigation into the recent robbery at the St. John's custom house, whereby some $5,000 was taken by a messenger, shows that the condition of the department is rotten to the core. The accounts show no trace of the sums stolen. The police believe that a gigantic system of peculation has been practiced. The whole colony is shocked by the revelations, which, it is believed, surpass last year's smuggling scandals.

Islanders Among Them.—The Moncton Times says: "The matriculation examinations for the universities of New Brunswick and Dalhousie have recently been completed. The results give a most creditable standing to the Rothesay Collegiate School of New Brunswick. This school sent up six boys to the University of New Brunswick for matriculation in arts and one for matriculation in engineering. Of these all were successful." Mr. Fred Bayfield, son of Edward Bayfield, Esq., and Mr. W. Brecken, were among the number.

Garrison Artillery.—No. 1 Co. P. E. Island Regiment Canadian Artillery, held their annual Company drill at Kensington Range yesterday afternoon. The day was cold and a strong wind blowing across the range, rendered high scoring impossible. Corp. John McLeod won the cup, with 58 points; Capt. H. M. Davison came second with 57 points; Gunner Scantlebury third with 54 points; Corp. Acorn fourth with 52 and Sergt. Murley fifth with 51 points The shooting was for a challenge cup presented to No. 1 Co. by Adjutant F. P. Carvell, and also for a number of other prizes. The officers and members of No. 1 Co. desire to convey their thanks to Colonel Moore and officers of the staff and also to all those citizens who so kindly assisted them by contributing to their prize list.

New Overcoats and Suits for Boys.

We have just opened our third lot of boys' 3 piece suits, so we would ask those who are waiting to call; we have also received another lot of those wonderful overcoats for boys, that you liked so well; the price will be the same.

MANTLES AND SACQUES.

HOW many people don't know we carry Sacques and Mantles can only be judged by the number of old styles and poor fits you see on the streets. Look out for the man who will tell you there is no shoddy in his Sacques or no stylish garments outside of his store. If he will deceive you in one thing, he will do so in another. Ladies, all we ask of you is a call in our Cloak Department.

Scott Act.—Joseph Blanchard received a first offence summons this forenoon. It is returnable on Thursday next.

From Montreal.—The steamer Polino arrived from Montreal about eight o'clock this morning, bringing a good general cargo. She will leave port this evening for St. John's via Sydney with a cargo which will include live stock, produce and miscellaneous articles.

In King's County.—At St. Peter's Bay yesterday, before Stanislaus Blanchard, Stipendiary Magistrate for King's County, Geo. McAulay and John Larkins, of that place, and Mrs. Dingwell, of Morell, were convicted of first infractions of the Canada Temperance Act and each was fined in the sum of $50 or two months imprisonment. At Georgetown last evening a case against Percy Jenkins was called and postponed for a week. A week ago today, at Georgetown, the same magistrate imposed four fines of $50 or two months each upon William Edmunds, Montague; Joseph Robertson, Cardigan; Daniel Somers, St. George, and Mrs. Martin, Dundas.

Two Teams Collide.—The Guardian reports that what might have been a serious accident occurred last night at the corner of Kent and Hillsborough streets at 7.45. It says: A young man the worse of liquor was driving at a furious rate along Kent street and ran into a team which was being driven quietly up Hillsborough street by a Mr. Cummings from North River, accompanied by a lady. Mr. Cummings' wagon was upset, his horse thrown upon his back and the occupants thrown violently out, the lady sustaining severe injuries. She was taken to Dr. Richard Johnson's where she was attended to, and after a short time was sufficiently recovered to drive home. Mr. Cummings' face was considerably swollen where he struck the ground when thrown out.

Ringing noises in the ears, snapping, buzzing, roaring, caused by catarrh, all disappear with the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mr. Simpson has kindly consented to deliver a lecture on the above subject. "Touch and Go Papers" will give us the impressions and varied experiences of the lecturer during several weeks' visit to the Far West. Admission 15 cents. td

A NEWSPAPER WAR.

The National Temper Beginning to Give Way Under Repeated Warnings.

The New York Sun's London letter says:—"Except for a paper war of almost unprecedented bitterness between Great Britain and Germany, peace reigns in Europe and the beating of war drums for the moment has ceased. The national temper of this country was beginning to give way under repeated warnings from the followers of both Lord Salisbury and Lord Rosebery that England must not do this and must not do that because of the danger of war. The idea is beginning to creep into the popular mind that this timid fear of war is itself an invitation to war. It would be unfair to say that the Armenian agitation is subsiding on account of popular terror inspired by the war bugaboo, but it is doubtless dying out and giving place to widespread and hopeless disgust over the whole situation and over the manner in which it is being dealt with by British statesmanship. It will require very genuine alarm to reawaken popular interest in the eastern situation, but it is generally believed in diplomatic circles that important events in that quarter are close at hand. Meantime there is evidence that some portion of the anti-Turkish indignation is turning into hatred of Germany. It is true that the chorus of abuse of England by the German press during the past few weeks has been peculiarly virulent and persistent. The reason is not really apparent, but there is no question that it is significant. The German official policy is becoming daily more antagonistic to Great Britain. The Zanzibar incident is only a trifling indication of this fact. England is now openly accused in the German press of trying to seduce Italy from the triple alliance and of endeavoring to turn the new dual alliance in anti-German directions. In fact, England has become Germany's bete noir. This country is at length giving evidence that Germany's feelings are cordially reciprocated. Even the Times has declared it this week in language as strong as its somewhat heavy dignity permits. The German press replies to-day with a fresh storm of protest. The North German Gazette easily pierces the Time's armor with the sneer that "if the organ of Cecil Rhodes and his accomplices can recollect its own attitude at the beginning of the troublee in South Africa, it will not have far to seek for the reason why the German press has adopted a less friendly tone toward England." This war of words is no new thing, but it has reached a point where such outbursts of international bad feeling begin to have serious political significance and effect."

ITEMS FROM THE WEST.

(Summerside Farmer.)

On Saturday last Mr. Peter Millar, of Bideford, showed us several wild strawberry plants with ripe strawberries growing on them. The plants were dug on the 15th inst. This is very remarkable at this late season.

On Tuesday besides the regular supply of oysters the Northumberland took away a large quantity of wool sent from Charlottetown. Mr. Chas. A. McNutt also shipped 157 fine sheep and lambs for the Halifax market. On Wednesday morning Mr. S. H. Jones shipped 750 lambs, the most of them being gathered by Messrs. Deacon and Kane.

The Mystery, Capt. Richards, was ready to sail on Wednesday evening, and she goes to Barbadoes and Trinidad. She was loaded by Mr. A. M. Wright, and has on board 2,572 sacks of white oats and 30 horses. Thirteen of the latter came up on Wednesday morning in a car attached to the express, the most of them being owned by Dr. Bagnall and Fred. Robins of Charlottetown.

The barque Chas. E. Lefurgey, Captain Joseph Read, arrived in Rio Janeiro, Brazil, from Marseilles, south of France, on the 19th inst., having added another clipper passage to her many on record. We noticed the Chas. E. reported as passing Gibralter on August 25th. Capt. Read has with him as first mate his son, John Read, and as second mate, Basil Kelly, both of Sumerside.

Conductor McKay concluded his evangelical meetings in Malpeque last Friday evening after laboring there some three weeks. Mr. McKay won golden opinions for himself while there, and the moral and spiritual work he accomplished is said to be wonderful. In many homes where there was previous unrest and hatred of heart peace now reigns. On Saturday Mr. McKay went to Tryon, and will conduct a series of evangelist meetings in the congregation of Rev. Mr. McCurdy there.

TRADE NOTES.

A special from Aguas Calientes, Mexico, says: On account of the corn famine that now exists in the States of Aguas Calientes, Guanapuato and Vera Cruz, the Federal Government has remitted the duties temporarily on corn importations to the amount of 350,000 bushels. This corn must be imported through the ports of Tampico, Vera Cruz and Progreso. It is said that all this supply will come from the United States. It will be distributed free and sold at low prices by government agencies among the poor.

A Portland, Me., despatch of the 19th states that more wheat has been put afloat in that harbor in the past forty-eight hours than ever before in a similar length of time in the history of the port. The steamships Astoria, Glengorm Castle, Lindisfarne and Henrietta, with wheat, and the Sierra Estrella, with flour, finished loading yesterday, and the Andreada got away the day before. These ships carried nearly 20,000 long tons, or over 500,000 bushels of wheat, and have brought the October fleet up to fifteen vessels, with the month but little over half gone. The shipments to date are far in excess of those of any previous year, and with plenty of ships and plenty of wheat the good work will keep up.

It is feared that the English potato crop will be disastrously affected by disease. From a large number of counties in England, Scotland and Wales have been received complaints of its ravages. Ireland does not appear to have suffered so much, but even from there come adverse reports. It is prophesied that unusually high prices will prevail in consequence.

A Touching Incident.—The night that Du Maurier's death was received, the orchestra in Hammerstein's concert hall, New York, played "Ben Bolt." A very pretty young girl seated at a table began to sing the song made famous by Trilby's author, and immediately every man in the place removed his hat. A perfect silence was maintained until she had finished, when the applause was loud and long continued. The young woman disappeared, but the musicians were obliged to play the song over and over again.

A ROMANTIC REASON.

Some of the English newspapers refer to a romantic reason for Lord Rosebery's retirement from the leadership of the Liberal party. The lady's name is not mentioned, because that would involve the risk of incurring Royal displeasure. Here is a paragraph now going the rounds of the London provincial press:—"It is said that Lord Rosebery approached the Queen some time ago, to obtain her assent to a marriage which he was anxious to contract. The Queen distinctly declined to give her sanction as long as the noble Lord remained an active party politician. There are revived indications of interest in the affair which may suggest that the step just taken is a prelude to another conversation on the delicate subject. It would be imprudent to say more than this or to mention the name of the lady in whom her Majesty has taken so deep an interest. The attachment is declared to be of some duration, and to be mutual in character, as well as with the knowledge of several high placed personages."

The Presidential Contest.—There are six tickets in the field for the Presidency of the United States. These are:

Republican—William McKinley and Garrett A. Hobart.

Democratic—William J. Bryan and Arthur Sewall.

National Democratic—John M. Palmer and Simon B. Buckner.

Prohibition—Joshua Leveny and Hale Johnson.

Socialistic Labor—Charles H. Matchett and Matthew Maguire.

People's—William J. Bryan and ——, Thomas E. Watson, having retired.
